

Dean Roper

June 5, 1963 - January 17, 2019

Dean M. Roper, a ten-year resident of Plano, TX, passed away January 17, 2019, at the age of 55. He was born June 5, 1953, in Warrington, England, to Hugh Muir Roper and Gina Margaret Wright. In Plano, Dean's community involvement included membership in St. Andrew United Methodist Church and he enjoyed the annual Plano Balloon Festival. Dean celebrated life, and was also very involved with the larger Dallas community, where he was a member of the Dallas Symphony and the Dallas Museum of Art. Additionally, he was an avid bike rider and loved participating in local and regional biking events. Dean was a lifetime outdoorsman, and was very active in the Scouting movement where he attained the rank of Eagle Scout and Vigil Honor in the Order of the Arrow. His concern for the environment showed through his efforts to recycle, purchasing of green items and cleaning up trash and debris along the roads. He led a purpose driven life and family was very important to him, but during his down time, Dean enjoyed traveling and was a huge Walt Disney fan. A loving son, brother and uncle, Dean will be missed tremendously by all who knew him.

Dean is survived by his mother: Gina Boesch; brother: Glenn Roper and wife Leigh; niece: Sarah Roper; and nephew: Ryan Roper; along with a host of loving relatives and dear friends. He was preceded in death by his father: Hugh Muir Roper.

A celebration of Dean's life will be held 1:00pm Saturday, February 9, 2019, at Reflections at Rest Haven Funeral Home – Rockwall Location.
