MINI-COURSES OK'D BY FACULTY

The BAHS Faculty tentatively approved the Student Co-op's Mini-Course proposition in a meeting here Monday.

The meeting was addressed by members of the Mini-Course Committee who answered questions and discussed the proposition.

The Mini-Courses (see next issue) were approved by a majority of the Faculty members after some discussion of various points. A new Committee of Faculty and students will meet soon to begin definite plans for the program, presently scheduled for Mid-April.

There is some dispute over whether or not the courses should be spread over a full two-week period.

Students interested in teaching courses have been urged to contact the Committee through the front hall newspaper box.

Medical Explorers

The third bi-weekly meeting of the Berlin Medical Explorers was held on 12 February, in the hospital's Red Cross Lounge.

Of the 37 students who were originally interested, only 13 were present for this meeting. 11 of the students were from BAHS; the other 2 were from JFK.

Captain Usry began the meeting with a brief review of what was discussed at the Jan. 29th meeting.

The meeting then got into full swing with the election of officers. The results were as follows.

President.....Linda Jones
Vice President .....Dana Phelps
Secretary.....Debbie Maryland
Reporter-Historian..Linda Bracey

After the election of officers, the members set up the Planning Committee and Publicity Committee. The meeting went smoothly.

Captain Usry and Sergeant Hall extend their welcome to any students interested in joining the Medical Explorers Group. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, Feb. 26 at 10:00a.m. in the Red Cross Lounge.

TOURNAMENTS

After a couple of bleacher wetting defeats of Zweibrücken last weekend the next stop is the Tournaments.

They are being held in Rhein Main this year as usual from the 23rd to the 26th.

As a 3 time goer to the Tournaments, I can testify that if you can get reservation's in Rhein Main or Frankfurt it is well worth your time to attend at least some of the games. There is a great thrill in rooting for your team amongst a crowd of opposers and you can be sure that you will not be the only one there. Many parents will be there and the team really appreciates the support they get. Not to mention the fun of being out of the city for awhile seeing some good Basketball and meeting many interesting people.

One way to see at least one game and not worry about Hotel accomadation's is to take the "the train" down Friday night and return VIA "the train" Saturday night. This costs you only your meals during the day, the small price for admission, and I have been assured that the Cubs will play on Saturday.

The biggest threats to Berlin is the Baumholder Bucs, who tied with us for Class B Championships this season, and the Zweibrücken Trojans who last weekend gave the Cubs a real rough time.

The teams participating in the Tournaments this season come from England, Shape and from our own league here in Germany.

Once again I urge you to attend the Tournaments and help the guys out.

COMING SOON!!!!

For the first time in many years it looks as though the snow will not be waited on for the beginning of the Track and Soccer Season.

For the past few years we always had to wait upon the melting of the snow to begin practice where most of the Schools in West Germany could begin practice.

So dig out your cleats and sweats and prepare for the coming season.

Smoking--A Problem at Berlin American High School

There were disputes about smoking last year. The students were giving the school a bad name by standing out in front of the school next to the cemetery. Some of the smokers would throw their cigarettes on the ground thus causing a disturbance between the caretakers and the school administration.

This year the policy at Berlin American High School has been changed. The students in the Senior High are allowed to smoke on campus. Room has been provided in the Student Union, Senior Lounge, and behind the Student Union. The nerves of the students have been greatly calmed by the new rule.

Now that we are allowed to smoke in the Student Union, small problems have been arising, such as students putting their cigarettes out on the trays. Since the trays are plastic, burns are created. The Sanitation Department stated that the trays were unclean and a health hazard. The Sanitation Department also stated that the trays had to be thrown out causing a great expense to our High School. Quoting Mrs. Sanders: "I ordered 300 trays for the cafeteria, but the school supply said they didn't have any funds. Out of 300 trays we received in the beginning of the year, we only have 80 left due to burns."

Also, cafeteria help has been complaining about cigarettes being thrown on the floor. Therefore, the students feel is ash trays were provided they wouldn't have as many complaints.

CLASS POPULARITY POLL

A poll was conducted by the Bull Sheet pertaining to courses in our high school's curriculum. Fifteen members from the two top classes were interviewed and the following is the outcome of the poll.

1. What is your favorite subject?

Srs: Science, Journalism, and Economics all received 13% of the full vote. Other subjects mentioned were: Math, Mechanical Drawing, Russian, Speech and Drama, English, Eur. History, Study Hall, Work Study and Chemistry.

Jrs: 33% said U.S. History. No other subject was named more than once. Other favorites were as follows: Journalism, Art, Work Study, Speech and Drama, Composition, Shorthand, Office Practice, and P.E.

2. Which course has been most useful for you?

Srs: The Sciences, Work Study, Contemporary Prob. and Journalism all got 13% each of the full percentage. Receiving single mentions were Mechanical Drawing, German, Ecology, Gov't, and Psychology. One individual confessed that none were useful.

Jrs: 27% said Work Study; Shorthand and German were mentioned by 20% each. Getting a single mention were: Typing, Algebra, Office Practice, US History, and last but not least Lunch.

3. What new courses would you like to see entered in the school curriculum?

Srs: 33% wanted Drivers Ed. Also mentioned were: Courses involving computers, 2nd part Amer. History, a wedding course, coed gymnastics, a course in aviation, popular literature, a dancing course and a course on how to be tactful.

Jrs: 66% wanted Drivers Ed. There was some other wants: an advising committee, German History, Contemporary Problems instead of Gov't, just a plain old English Course, and Sex Ed. something that should be learned legally.

$$$$$One Dollar Bills Wanted$$$$$$$$$$$

For a good Cause might I add. The Fantastic Class of 1972 is sponsoring a raffle in which they hope to make millions in order to get to Amsterdam over Easter Vacation. We are raffling off $100.00 in cash. The drawing will be held in the Student Union on March 17, (Saint Patrick's Day) during B lunch Hour. Tickets are being sold by any member of the senior class going on the trip and the cost of the tickets is 1 for $.50 and three for 1.00. Your contributions would be very much appreciated.

MUSIQUE- Tracing CSN&Y

Have you noticed that the rumors of coming concerts include Crosby, Stills, & Nash? Sans Young? The classic Stills-Young rift has struck again. The great break in production between "Deja vu" and "Four Way Street" was due to this odd quarrel that perpetually comes up between the two brightest stars of the group, as was in part of the tragic breakup of Buffalo Springfield, the band from which Young and Stills emerged.

Young, with the image of a brooding genius, began a well-publicized solo career with his LP's "Neil Young", continuing with "Everybody Knows This is Nowhere", and the LP that won Melody Maker's Best Solo LP award, "After the Gold Rush". Stills went into the studio as a background artist, working on "Supersession", and playing with Baez, Colling, and other performers. He soon teamed up and formed Crosby, Stills & Nash, to which Young was later added.

COPIES OF THIS POSTER

On Tuesday, February 1, reluctant students of BAHS were seen dragging their feet from their second period classes to the front lobby of the school. The reason for this vast pilgrimage? Those horrible little four-pronged shots stabbed into your forearm called TINE TESTS! With these handy, versatile gadgets, the friendly neighborhood doc, after three days, can tell if you've been lucky enough to have been exposed to that fun little germ of--ready?--Tuberculosis!!!

Not many people ended up with the swollen arm bit, but for those of you who did, let me reassure you by telling you what it means. If, on the first or second day after the shot, you had a suspicious-looking swelling where your four holes are, then you automatically know you're lucky to have a friend somewhere who's got a bit of TB and has passed it on to you. But--it only means you've been exposed to TB and that your body has probably walled off the germs. Now that you've been reassured, let me tell you that there is a way to cure you if your test came out positive and you do have TB. You'll have to take medicine for a year, but it's worth it if it gets rid of that rotten little germ, right? Also, if your test is positive, and you don't have TB, you'll need to take a yearly X-ray just to make sure the germs have not broken out of the place where your body has walled them off.

So don't spread your icky disease to us. Cover your mouth when coughing, hacking, or wheezing! Because, you know, coughing is the best way to transmit TB. So, cool it!

News Briefs

Editor Tim Head of the BAHS Bull Sheet told fellow newsmen Friday that he had possession of "a series of classified EES documents disclosing the actual contents and manufacturers of cafeteria food."

Termed by reporters as the "Bull Sheet Papers," the documents are scheduled to be published in three installments in forthcoming issues of the newspaper.

EES officials, flustered by the security leak, are seeking an injunction to halt publication of the documents.

Those of you who did not make yourselves absent last week during the dental treatment were treated to a dental care presentation by Major Sam McCuskey, the Big Dentist at the hospital.

Major McCuskey had previously met with Sheet Editors to arrange a dental care plug in our publication, and gave us a short talk on the subject.

We immediately set about trying to find a way to present our discourse without making it seem like the Same Old Stuff. A number of ideas crossed our minds:

We could have included a transcribed tape of Captain Lacy giving a talk entitled "Your Oral Future." (This one has made me an unfailing brush fiend and User of the Floss.) Similar talks from Captain Glenn, Major McCuskey and others could be inserted in subsequent issues of Sheet. Anyone with sense would think twice after hearing one of them rattling off the Facts of Mouth.

We thought about enclosing a discoloring tablet in each issue to show you where you missed when you brushed and a three-foot strand of dental floss to remove some of it.

OR

A humorous little cartoon showing a guy who brushed like a madman daily, but neglected to use floss, and lost half his teeth. We'd end that with a couple of ribjabbing lines about how many hours of brushing he'd wasted in eighteen years...Or maybe another cartoon showing a set of beautiful teeth falling out of diseased gums, with a wry bit about "You mean I missed something?"

A lot of these things came up, but we decided on a no-crap punch line: "Clean 'em or Lose 'em." You've nothing to lose but five minutes, toothpaste, and floss, and an awful lot to gain.
