San Antonio Regional November 2007

Berlin and Heidelberg Brat, Ruchia (Eargle) Moran '73 organized a regional at the annual WurstFest held just north of San Antonio in New Braunfels. Wurstfest is a 10 day Salute to Sausage!!!! From a one day fest in 1961 to it's present 10 day celebraion the festival pulls in over 165,000 annually. (National media attention was thrust on WURSTFEST '89 as the reunification of Germany began with the opening of the Berlin Wall.)

That's a Lion on my head, not a slice of bread....didn't see any Bear hats! Roo, our hostess, in her fearless Heidelberg Lion (their mascot) hat.
