ERINNERUNGEN
SOUVENIRS

PUBLISHED BY THE CLASSES OF 1959
AMERICAN HIGH SCHOOLS OF GERMANY AND FRANCE

Dedication

To the destruction of prejudice
To the conquest of ignorance
To the quest of knowledge
To the firmer basis of understanding
To the betterment of man

These are goals to which we dedicate the 1959 ERINNERUNGEN.

Introduction

ERINNERUNGEN began as a slender volume recording activities of seven schools. Through the years from 1949 to 1958 it has steadily grown in size and stature, and it has strived to serve a dual purpose. ERINNERUNGEN has assumed the traditional role of a yearbook, recording for posterity the events of each school year, and it has also attempted to point out to its readers the advantages and opportunities with which we, American students living in Europe, are blessed.

In beginning its second decade, ERINNERUNGEN has taken a decisive step forward. Because of the growth in the number of American schools in Europe, this, the eleventh edition, will appear in two volumes. One will include six of the larger schools in Germany, and its companion will be composed of the fourteen smaller schools in Germany and France.

SOUVENIRS, the French word for memories, has been added to the traditional title in German, ERINNERUNGEN, and both words appear in both volumes. The bi-lingual title symbolizes the bond that still exists among the American high schools in Europe, even though our annual has been divided: a bond which unites our backgrounds and interests, our hopes and aspirations and — perhaps most of all — our day-to-day opportunities and adventures as honored guests in the very storehouse of history.

1959 ERINNERUNGEN TABLE OF CONTENTS: BOOK A

What we see we take in,
and finally each building and sculpture, farmers' cart, or remnant of a peaceful time, windmill or school building, road or bridge crossing a river comes through to create for us the uniqueness of living and playing and studying in Europe.

Somehow we become more than an American by name, it is all difficult to label and put a title to — — we'll know later. And then there are the people we meet — — some we meet only in our hearts. But then that is the best way to meet people, isn't it? Sometimes the words hurt too much — — we continue to look and will create what we will be.

AUGSBURG 14

Augsburg was named after Augustus. He is

We never saw so many different kinds of fountains anywhere
as there are in Europe.

BAUMHOLDER 46

There appears a great wealth of experience and tradition possessed by this land. We found this possession symbolized in the wheels of the area
whether it be the ox carts or the ancient water wheels
moving other stone cutting wheels in Idar-Oberstein.

KARLSRUHE 142

Ours is a new high school.
Our town people are proud of our school and saw to it that we have a pretty

all the rain, our flowers will grow well. We do have lovely spring days.

ORLEANS 174

There are quiet places for being alone all about Orleans.
We wonder if, perhaps, St. Joan of Arc may have found the same places when she needed times by herself. There are many roads to which we never found an end.

ALL HIGH SCHOOL OPPORTUNITIES

This two volume publication of the yearbook containing the stories of seventeen high schools is only one combined expression of our high school students. There are many other cooperative adventures that bring into focus students from all nineteen high schools in Germany, France and Italy.

Along with the high school music festivals, athletic tournaments, science fairs, leadership programs and year-book conferences there are both regional and school-wide art and craft exhibitions, student exchanges with host nation schools as well as many other unique activities completing a wide variety of enriching experiences. These offerings are provided to create a more individual participation in the educational processes while living in the European environment.

1959 ALL USAREUR SCIENCE FAIR

director, Richard M. Harbeck, on the left speaks with Miss Eddie Stone and Merle Simpson, FIRST AWARD winners from the Heidelberg High School and their teacher, Mr. John E. Novinsky. More than 100 students from USAREUR schools in Germany, France and Italy, gathered at Heidelberg High School, 11-14 March, 1959, to display their prize-winning science fair projects. These projects were the best from more than seventy local school science exhibits and five area science fairs. The USAREUR Science Fair included boys and girls from grades seven through twelve, and every major area of science was represented. The First Award winners, Eddie and Merle, were sent, expenses paid, with the Fair Director, Mr. Harbeck, to the National Science Fair in Hartford, Connecticut, early in May.

The USAREUR Science Fair program is one means of stimulating interest in mathematics and science in our schools. These subjects are an essential part of the basic curricula at all grade levels and provide for the development of fundamental skills in computation and scientific thinking.

THE TEACHERS OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES in the USAREUR Dependents' Schools accept partial responsibility for the success of the larger American mission in Europe by endeavoring to establish good host nation relations at the grass roots level. They see in this not only an opportunity for service to their own country, but a broadening experience for the children as well.

From the first grade on pupils are taught the language of the host nation and field trips are made to museums, industrial establishments and foreign schools to afford a valuable insight into another culture. The teachers of Foreign Language are almost one hundred per cent nationals of the nation in which the school is located whether it be in France, Germany or Italy.

The group of students above are at the Kaiserslautern American High School. The group is composed of the regularly enrolled American students and a number of visiting students from the German Gymnasium in Kaiserslautern. Such visits provide a first-hand experience in international understanding.

AUSTRIAN AND AMERICAN STUDENTS

of all ages met with Herr Hoeflmaier, music teacher of Oberndorf, Austria, at Oberndorf during the Christmas season to sing the original two part arrangement of SILENT NIGHT that Franz Gruber had created for the first Christmas performance in the same little village December 24th, 1818. As with the original performance by Gruber, a guitar accompaniment (provided this year by Herr Hoeflmaier) completed the seasonal character of this simple, unique musical experience in the Silent Night Chapel. The American students came from the area of Berchtesgaden, Germany: an area of perfect complement to any Christmas festivity. The father of one of the children had gone with the students and Dr. Krone, Music Specialist, and as Santa Claus, distributed candy and apples to the Austrian students as gifts from the American students. This was the first appearance of Santa Claus in the Silent Night Chapel, providing the Austrian students an unique experience of their own.

AT THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL BASKET BALL TOURNAMENT

held at the Mannheim High School, the Mannheim basketball team represented the American high schools. Other countries represented at the Tournament were Austria, Germany, Belgium and the Netherlands. Belgium won the first place championship. Pictured above, John Howard, captain of the Mannheim High School team, accepts the Sportsmanship Trophy from the Sports Mayor of the City of Mannheim, Ferdinand Kramers.

AN ARTICLE APPEARING IN THE "ANZEIGER", newspaper of Bad Godesberg, Germany, had this to say about the student art exhibition held at the Bad Godesberg School: "In comparison to German school exhibitions, it may be stated that the projects on display showed more fantasy, broader poetic tendencies and wider international character, while our German schools tend towards technical perfection and varied type of work." Mrs. David K. E. Bruce, wife of the American Ambassador to Germany, is pictured above placing a first prize award on a picture printed by Jan Kassap. Würzburg, Nürnberg and Frankfurt High Schools also arranged student art and crafts exhibitions on an international scale with work from host nation schools in their particular area of Europe.

THE UNITED STATES ARMY DEPENDENTS' SCHOOLS IN EUROPE

On May 4, 1946 the Army established its dependents' school program in Europe. At that time, 3,087 pupils were enrolled in kindergartens, elementary and secondary schools. This year enrollments grew to a total of 54,069 in grades kindergarten through 12, as of 19 December 1958. Over 2,200 Americans and 350 local nationals were employed to staff the 117 schools operated in Germany, France, Italy, and Ethiopia.

The US Army Dependents' Education Group is the operating agency for the Army schools in Europe. The school headquarters is located in Karlsruhe, Germany. A civilian director administers the program assisted by a staff of educational specialists and military personnel. The schools are divided into six regional areas each under the general supervision of a superintendent. The 19 high schools are afforded accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. An inspection of the schools is made regularly to ensure that high standards are maintained. Schools are equipped with modern teaching aids and textbooks. A wide range of curriculum as offerings is provided to meet the needs of individual students. This yearbook is one illustration of the extra-curricular opportunities offered.

*Who can predict the end of a dream?
Who can chart a rainbow?
To whom is the pattern of birdsong revealed?
Whose feet know the paths of tomorrow?
What are the signs presaging a storm?
What are the omens of darkness ahead?
What whispers betoken an oncoming gloom,
Or the glimmer of brightness ascending?*

To a few men are presented
The key to the riddle,
The heart of the mystery,
The way through the wilderness.
To the others is given only
A beginning
And the promise of an ending,
A path beneath their feet, and
The arch of courage that connects
Beginning and promised ending.
These others tread their separate, winding paths,
Seeking the key, the heart, the way.
Face to the sky,
Ear to the wind,
The shades of tomorrow's history
Seek their separate destinies.
Many the pits that line the paths,
Many the false roads, intertwined.
The way is uncertain and vision is dim,
And truth and dreams play counterpoint:
Things seen and scenes imagined,
Whispers murmured on the winds,
Hollow laughter through the trees,
Mists half-hiding, half-disclosing,
False impressions blinding reason,
Showing blessings, obscuring curses,
Luring the feet on the uncertain paths,
Drowning the Future in promising Present,
Tempting the eye with the treasures of Now.
The seekers see goals in nebulous shrouds.
Ahead, horizonward they direct their eyes — — —
On to the glowing heights,
On through the shimmering curtain
Obscuring the unborn deeds of future time,
The wraiths of future lives.
Those who endure, those who persist
Come to the ending at last, at last.
Dream revealed,
Rainbow brightened,
Birdsong floating on perfect notes,
They watch the shrouds fall smoothly away,
Fulfilling the promise of time.

AUGSBURG

PERLACH TOWER

HISTORIC AUGSBURG

The many narrow, cobble-stoned streets of Augsburg wind in and out between ancient towers and buildings that have years of history locked behind every door. Many of us have felt very young and insignificant as we observed this panorama of towers from our schoolroom windows each year. Pictured below is this breathtaking skyline in silhouette.

The legends, traditions, and customs all come together into one delightful picture of Bavarian life here in Augsburg. The old and new mix together to blend into a wonderful atmosphere of old world charm and modern functional design. Augsburg is an intriguing old city. It has history in every nook and corner of every street and building. The experience of witnessing the colorful life of Augsburg society and the post-war reconstruction is one that will be long remembered.

Every city has its great wealth. Augsburg's wealth is in its history and its people. At first, the brief contact with a foreign language seems strange, but it soon becomes fascinating as you begin to understand many of the phrases and expressions. In order to understand people and their language we must learn to observe them in their own environment. Augsburg is one of our most interesting classrooms.

Many times we think of the wide streets, corner drug stores, and big oak trees and sigh with nostalgia. We often look at shop windows and compare them with those at home. No matter how often we make the comparison, there is nothing like the U.S.A., but it's great to be in Germany, especially Augsburg.

1958/1959 SCHOOL DIARY

SEPTEMBER . . . old and new students alike, spent their time memorizing new faces, names, lockers, and room numbers. The freshmen realized that their upperclassmen were good examples to follow. Football practice began and the cheerleaders were selected by an all-school assembly.

OCTOBER . . . our first football victory, at the expense of Baumholder, high lighted the month's gridiron action. Many of us enjoyed the famous Munich Oktoberfest parade and the activities on the fairground afterwards. The government of Augsburg High School was organized. The Senior vs. Faculty football game improved student-teacher relations in that the seniors won 7-6. Nobody could keep a serious face while watching those substitute senior and teacher cheerleaders. Homecoming was a huge success with a football victory over Mannheim and crowning of the queen at the "Pigskin Prom" victory dance.

NOVEMBER . . . Sadie Hawkins week started things off in fine fashion. The girls were rulers at the Sadie Hawkins dance. The boys weren't too reluctant to dance, but they had to be "drug" to Marrin' Sam. After a little kickapoo joy juice they were easily persuaded. The Thanksgiving holidays found many of us taking advantage of the brief recess to do a little traveling.

DECEMBER . . . was a joyous, busy, and festive month. The class of 1959 got in the Christmas spirit and sold Christmas trees. Basketball practice began in earnest. "Sounds of Christmas" put everyone in a gay holiday mood as they enjoyed the huge production by the drama club. The entire student body witnessed the spectacular in an all-school assembly.

JANUARY . . . HAPPY NEW YEAR! 1959 started with resolutions like: to win all basketball games, to pass all mid-year exams, and to improve school spirit by dressing neatly. The students from Ulm who didn't want to brave snow storms started riding the train daily to get to Augsburg on time. Some people didn't do very well on semester exams, so a dance was held in their honor, called "Flunkie's Ball". This was a successful "ball" attended by "A" to "F" students.

FEBRUARY . . . the 1959 "Erinnerungen" was completed. The Annual staff gave a big sigh of relief. The proud editor, co-editor, and advisor went to Frankfurt for the convention and helped to combine all the pages submitted from each school. Valentine's day arrived with gay thoughts of the "Sweet-heart Prom" which was held at the teen-age club. The basketball tournaments were in Bremerhaven this year.

MARCH . . . track season started with six track lettermen returning. Easter came early and the spring vacation was a brief rest stop before the "big push" to the end of the year.

APRIL . . .

MAY . . .

JUNE . . .

Bus riding can be fun

We want twin coaches!

Snow won't stop us

SLEEPY TIME STUDENTS

What was that terrible sound? This is a cry that is heard throughout many of the Ulm and Leipheim housing areas at 5:45 a.m. five days a week. Forty per cent of the Augsburg students arise at approximately the same time each morning and prepare for the long, bouncy bus trip to school.

As the first light of day peeps over the German countryside, teenagers can be seen plodding wearily through the housing area. They're a bedraggled troupe with half-closed eyes and tight-closed books.

A quick breakfast is digested and life on the "Wayward Bus" settles down to its normal routine. Some students read, some attempt homework, others try to sleep, and a few sing.

Through it all, the Ulm-Leipheim bus riders have many enjoyable experiences to think of when they recall fond memories of school days in Germany. Many life-long acquaintances may have started on this daily bus ride. Weekend plans, dates, friendly chatter, teenage romances, and exchange of ideas all occur on this interesting round trip to school. Someday we'll look back on these teenagers, bound together with mutual sufferings and joys, as a lucky lot.

SENIOR CLASS

Sigh! This is the end. We have run the course and now are entering an entirely new realm of life. We will, of course, always remember our last year of high school, the joys, the sorrows, good times and bad — we'll remember them all. Many of us will go on to great things, which will make us all proud. As we glance back we see that the Seniors were the very heart of school life. We worked hard to raise money and were rewarded for our efforts. Now, as we close the book of the past and open the book of the future, we will stand on the principles and the lessons we have learned in the last four years.

JUNIOR CLASS

Coming around the bend in the road, almost to the end of our high school days, we realize more and more how we must prepare ourselves for the time when we will be on our own. Next year will be our last, and although most say that they dislike high school, we're sure we will be a little sad to leave. Our Junior year has been most profitable. We have held money-raising projects and have had a finger in almost every pie. We are looking forward to our Senior year and the pleasures and privileges that go with it. We hope we can make next year as vibrant and exciting as this year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

This year, standing on the second plateau of our high school lives, we feel more relaxed and, of course, much more sophisticated than we did last year! The class of '61 has held its own in all phases of school activities. Three of the five cheerleaders are Sophomore beauties. Many of our husky boys excelled in the various sports fields! We've had our triumphs and our defeats. The defeats usually took place in the classrooms, in which we slaved and quelled for tyrannical dictators — alias teachers! Now, as we have passed from the second plateau and are getting ready to mount the third plateau, we look back on our Sophomore year with cherished memories.

FRESHMAN CLASS

We have been tagged with degrading names, been pushed and shoved, and led through hoops by our self-appointed master, the upper-classman. After all is said and done, you must admit we've been good sports about it all. Contrary to popular opinion we have not been as miserable and no-count as everyone seems to think. Under all this oppression I believe we have had a successful year participating in the numerous extra-curricular activities. We'll always remember our freshman year, but also we are looking to the future, when we can take our place with the upper-classman and perform our duties with the same reliability and good-sportsmanship we have shown this year.

FOOTBALL

The Augsburg Apaches, looking forward to the football season, started practice in early September with only two returning lettermen. With real effort they prepared themselves for their first game.

It was a spirited but inexperienced team that took the field against the Würzburg Wolves, the eventual champions of 1958. It was a downcast but more experienced team that left Würzburg, as the Apaches fell 21-0.

The following week the Baumholder Buccaneers came to town and were beaten 6-0 as the Apaches garnered their first scalp. It was a well-played game with the winning score coming in the closing minutes of the final quarter.

The Eagles from Nürnberg swooped down on the Apaches and left with a 32-9 victory for their trouble. Mistakes and off-side penalties by Augsburg spelled the difference in this game. Traveling to Heidelberg, Augsburg fell again to the tune of 14-0. This dropped Augsburg to the lowest point of the season.

As always, the tradition of close exciting games between Mannheim and Augsburg was the highlight of an exciting and eventful homecoming day. The Apaches felled the Bisons of Mannheim 26-19. The closing victory over arch-rival Mannheim spelled success to a fine season.

Nemeth picks up six around Baumholder end.

"Shock troops" await the call to action.

A tall, experienced group of basketball hopefuls answered the call to represent Augsburg on the hardwood. After many weeks of grooming by head mentor Donald Devona the squad was ready. The Augsburg Apaches got off to a fast and promising start this season by downing the Bitburg quintet by scores of 55-35 and 60-42. After such a good start against Bitburg and two weeks rest, Augsburg moved into Berlin only to be upset twice by the quick-breaking and hard-playing Cub team. The scores of these two games were 36-31 and 45-40.

Karlsruhe was the next opponent for the tall Apaches and the home forces had to settle for a split in two games, losing the first game 29-28 but nipping the sharp-shooters in the nightcap 37-36.

The last two games played before the Annual went to press were with the Baumholder Buccaneers. This was the highpoint of the season for the Apaches as they garnered two victories at the expense of the Bucs. Augsburg nipped the Buccaneers in the opener 38-33 and copped the nightcap 47-27. Only Bremerhaven and Würzburg remain on the schedule and then on to the tournaments at Bremerhaven.

BASKETBALL

Coach Devona talking things over with senior, Pat Patrick.

Alan Meindertsma, only a freshman, takes a jump shot that shows that his future in basketball is promising.

Another two for Big Jim Carle.

The wheel — symbol of progress!
Around us we see an infinite number of wheels; they carry us to school; they turn the clocks in the halls; they power the machinery in the shops. Even our school life, indeed life itself, is a continuous wheel-like cycle from day to day, from year to year, from birth to death. From the windows of our school we are constantly reminded of the lasting importance of the wheels which surround us. We see trucks, tanks, and jeeps . . .

... carrying our troops on their missions. We see the hospital sustained by many instruments dependent upon wheels. In a more agarian setting we see a German farmer bringing home his crops in an ox-drawn cart. This pastoral scene contrasted with the mighty turning of locomotive wheels is a visual example of progress wrought
by wheels.

*What? Was a man a wheel-work to wind up, and be discharged,
and straight wound up anew?*

SENIORS

I am the forceful, continuously turning wheel, that rotates monotonously on the outside of the old mill.

It all looks so very dull you say; as each ripple of gurgling water is whisked around my teeth, until they burst into a thousand tiny drops of warm spray.

But inside! Ah, inside! There is where I serve my demanding purpose! For here days on end,

I grind and whirr, turn and push!

The friction causing my great body to burn, helping to cut the gem into its most proper size.

Alte Achat Schleife . . . Ancient Agate Cutting Mill.

ACTIVITIES

There are many small co-operative groups here at Baumholder that perform great services for our school. Among these is the Junior Red Cross composed of representatives from each homeroom in both junior and senior high. The most important of these are the junior and senior high Student Councils. They each meet once a week to take care of the student body business, and they approve all activities sponsored by the different classes. The senior high Student Council also sponsored the successful Homecoming Dance early in October.

The counselor's and office assistants help in keeping those offices in order and are prepared to take over in the event of the absence of the office staff.

BAND

Our band, although small, presented some excellent programs. In November they combined efforts with the 12th Infantry band for a special program. They have played at various assemblies, programs, and PTA meetings. We commend them for the hard work and effort they have put forth to bring the student body enjoyment.

CHORUS

We have two main choruses here at Baumholder — the mixed chorus and the girls chorus. Under the direction of Mrs. Evans, they have put on some stimulating performances. They combined with the "Operation Tannenbaum" choir composed of all senior high German students to provide an excellent Christmas program. In the spring the two choruses participated in the music festival held in Nürnberg.

BASKETBALL

The basketball season got under way with the defeat of Berlin at a home game on January 9th. This year we have two returnees, Harrison Fitch and Cournel Harraway, from our championship team of last year. The basketball team had more success than the football team, as the boys were determined to beat the football record. This was shown in the game against Nürnberg in which an extra three minutes was needed to break a 45-45 tie.

OPERATION TANNENBAUM

Three of our German classes combined their efforts under the leadership of Herr Eichelmann and sponsored the successful Operation Tannenbaum, a program which gave the German orphans a Christmas in American style. Each student gathered clothes and toys from families in the area and brought them to school to be repaired by the shop and home economics students. The seventh and eighth grade German classes wrapped the gifts.

On December seventeenth the three senior high classes went to the Bad Kreuznach orphanage, where they gave a big party for the children with Santa Claus to hand out their presents. Cake, supplied by students, and cocoa from the Bad Kreuznach dairy was enjoyed by all.

The time will come when every change shall cease.
This quick revolving wheel shall rest in peace:
No summer then shall glow, nor winter freeze;
Nothing shall be to come, and nothing past,
But an eternal now shall ever last.

BERLIN

Our school has come a long way since its establishment in 1946. We have added a new wing to provide for our growing student body. In these last thirteen years we have won and been awarded such prizes as the EUCOM 1948, 1950, and 1952 Basketball Championships, various track trophies, and, just this year, the USAREUR Six-man Football Championship.

Beginning this school year with a new principal, we have developed greatly in just a few months. Being the only American school behind the Iron Curtain, we have been the object of much attention. We know and appreciate the position we are in and will try to uphold the high standards of the people who have helped this school before us.

Brig. Gen. Charles D'Orsa presents the USAREUR six-man Football Championship trophy to Thomas Rainville and Howard Salisbury while Mr. Cook, the coach, looks on.

"The Best and the Last"

To us, the leaders of tomorrow, this year represents a close to a phase of life — a phase of which there will never be a substitute or period, anything similar. This is our only regret at the end of the year — the fact that we shall never be able to relive the cherishable years of highschool.

Knowing this, we have made an excellent attempt at producing the leadership that is so characteristic of seniors. Bob Buckley starts off the list as our senior class president. Carolyn Crawford follows as vice-president. She is also president of the chorus and co-chairman of the international club. Beatrice Oler is treasurer and Ingrid Geick is secretary. We also have some fine representatives in student council, as Tommy Rainville is president, and Danny Alley and Kensaku Hogen are senior representatives. Tommy also played an important part in helping win the six man football conference and obtaining our fine record in basketball.

The year was filled with many exciting events such as getting our senior rings, taking field trips, having money raising projects, Christmas Prom, and last but not least, the Graduation Prom.

As our school year is finished, we say "lebewohl" to the four powered city of Berlin, and the wonderful experiences it has given us.

Rathaus Schöneberg, home of the Freedom Bell

Our class of "60" started this school year of 1958-59 with a bang! To the cheerleading squad we contributed two fine junior girls, Carol Willoughby and Ellen Shelton. Terrell Gandy, Nick Ursin, Charles Ehrmann, John Corris, and Art Jaskierny all had active parts in boosting the Cubs to their Six-man USAREUR Football Championship.

With our president, Carolyn Weyand, we led the way in the annual Christmas decorating and backed Berlin's first Jr.-Sr. play helping the seniors in their campaign to finance their class trip. Sparking the social calendar were the Sadie Hawkins Dance, Christmas Prom, and of course the most gala event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom.

From Student Council to sports, the junior class has provided leaders and enthusiastic participants in all B.H.S. activities throughout this year and eagerly await the coming days of promise and challenge — our senior year.

Our sophomore class has really sparkled this year. Starting off with a bang, we elected Student Council representatives. The Council itself then elected our two members, Jon Trivers and Nancy Schott, as Treasurer and Secretary. When cheerleading time came around, "our girls", Anita Gibbs, Jill Faulkner, and Judy Kleiss, composed half of the squad that cheered our team to victory. At the close of football, all three of the squad who made USAREUR All-Star were members of our class. Need we say we are proud of Sandy Salisbury, Robert Ehrmann, and Jerry Smith? Carrying on last year's tradition, we decorated together at Christmas, and brightened up our halls, boards, and windows. When the Honor Roll was published two-thirds of the highest honors went to our sophomores.

As the year goes on, we hope to uphold the ideals we have set for ourselves in our freshman and sophomore years, and look forward to being juniors.

FRESHMAN

Enthusiastically we started our high school years as Freshmen with our homeroom teacher, Mr. Bunch.

Our first deed was to elect student council representatives, Kluuni Meybaum and Santiago Rodriguez, and later Frances Smith to fill in for Kluuni when she left us.

The Freshmen class also played a large part in electing Tom Rainville as president of B.H.S. We placed one cheerleader, Betsy Ursin, on the cheerleading squad, besides having several members on the football and basketball teams.

During the Christmas Prom a Freshmen girl, Frances Smith, became "Queen of the Prom". We look forward to our Sophomore and following high school years....

The impenetrable Cubs execute an almost flawless defensive maneuver as Skip Tipson of Bitburg gains 1½ yards.

There he goes! It's number 22 again, striding toward the goal line. This is only one time out of five that All-USAREUR Jerry Smith crossed the goal line against Bremerhaven. The final score: Berlin 32, Bremerhaven 8.

The homecoming! The Kaiserslautern Raiders attempt a quarterback sneak against the Cubs' defensive onslaught.

Under the auspices of Coach Dave Cook the Berlin Cubs rolled to a 5-1 record, giving them the USAREUR Class "B" Championship. After a two-year jinx the Cubs finally got their bearings and went all the way.

They started off the season well by beating Bremerhaven 32-12. The next game, the homecoming, the Cubs whipped Bitburg 28-12. Under adverse conditions in Karlsruhe the Berlin Cubs lost their only game 45-32. After being set back by Karlsruhe, the Cubs beat K-Town 27-20. (With a 3-1 record going into the next game, the Cubs, with Jerry Smith crossing the goal line five times, walloped the Bremerhaven Black Hawks 45-19.) The last game had Bitburg hosting the Cubs. Again it was All-USAREUR Jerry Smith, running wild, who tallied in the last half. The game ended with Berlin way ahead 46-21.

A round of applause should go to Tom Rainville and Sandy Salisbury, co-captains, the latter of which rated All-USAREUR for his outstanding defensive play on the grid-iron. We had two other All-USAREUR stars: Bobby Ehrmann, playing end, was remarkable in his pass-receiving; and Jerry Smith, Berlin's truly great bread-and-butter ball carrier, who scored 24 TD's to win the All-USAREUR quarterback position. These were our All-USAREUR stars, but we had 12 other fine players that always did their share of the work. And so this year, thanks to the work of a marvelous team and coach, the coveted trophy of the USAREUR Class "B" Championship stands proudly in Berlin High School.

BASKETBALL

The Cubs' veteran basketball squad anticipates a well-improved basketball team over last year. Coach Richard Kuechle's Cubs have compiled a 3 and 1 record. Jerry Smith, captain of the Cubs, has led the team with a 23 point average.

Our first games were away at Baumholder. 56-48 was the score at the end of our first game at Baumholder, Baumholder winning with Dave Fitch playing very well for Baumholder. The Cubs retaliated by winning 50-39. In the second game Jerry Smith scored 22 points.

Our next games were at Berlin, a series which really showed fans the Cubs' spirit. The Cubs mauled Augsburg 38-33. Buddy North, our "83" center, played superbly, blocking at least 6 shots and doing a great job rebounding. The second game was the repeat performance. This time it was Smith again; he scored 25 points. As the whistle blew the Cubs led 45-40. Our next games are against Bitburg. The Cubs have great spirit and have shown that they are worthy of another USAREUR trophy.

"Have you got that spirit? Yeah, man!!" BHS's strong school spirit has helped the Cubs capture many of this year's victories, and responsible for keeping this spirit running high are our six enthusiastic cheerleaders: Jill Faulkner, Anita Gibbs, Judy Kleiss, Ellen Shelton, Betsy Ursin, and Carol Willoughby. As a completely new unit, the girls started off a big year for Berlin by cheering the fast-moving football team all the way to the USAREUR Championship.

Each of the pretty maroon-and-white clad squad shares equally the honor and work of planning and leading our pep rallies. The cheerleader's place is a treasured one, but requires a great deal of time and effort. These are our cheerleaders, who mold the atmosphere of the game: yelling, jumping, screaming, and perhaps praying a little as well; best in the excitement of the most crucial moments, and ready to rush out with the other Cub supporters to congratulate our favorite athletes. A vote of thanks from the entire student body goes to these girls whose lively encouragement urges our boys to "go, fight, win!"

BREMERHAVEN

Located in the Northern lowlands of Germany is the famous port city of Bremerhaven. Although this city has long been noted for its fishing industry and ships, its cultural traditions spring from the wind-swept flat lands which extend as far as the eye can see.

With its black and white cows, wooden shoes, ships, moors, heather, dikes, storks and thatched roof houses, this is one of the most unique areas of Europe. A distant windmill outlined against the sky symbolizes man's early attempts to harness the harsh winds which dominate this part of Germany.

The fog, the rain, the wind remind us of this constant battle against nature's powerful forces. Life is hard — but worth the struggle, or so our German Bremerhaven friends tell us.

In the pages which follow we have tried to capture some of the elemental energy of our surroundings in a creative way.

Our school was originally established in Bremen in 1947, but was moved the following year to Bremerhaven. In 1953 a new wing was added to the original building, and our classroom space has been steadily expanded to meet the needs of the ever increasing student body.

We at Bremerhaven are proud of the fact that our school is so small, because it gives us the opportunity to participate in more activities, and to get to know all of our classmates well. We feel that this year has been a most memorable one, for we have enjoyed the harmonious life of students of the Bremerhaven American High School under the capable supervision of Mr. Glenn Gardiner, principal.

OUR SCHOOL

Our principal this year is Mr. Glenn Gardiner, who came to us from San Pedro, California, where he was principal of a junior and senior high school as well as a night school. Mr. Gardiner introduced a variety of activities originating with Freshmen Initiation, a separate Jr. High Student Council, the Homecoming Festival and basketball tournaments. Mr. Gardiner attended the University of Oregon, where he majored in Agricultural Engineering. He also studied Industrial Arts and Education at the University of California at Los Angeles. His advance studies in secondary educational school administration were completed at Long Beach College. We are fortunate to have had Mr. Gardiner with us at Bremerhaven this year.

Like the breeze on the lowlands the Seniors have swept through their last year in school with many victories behind them. The past year has been filled with numerous events in most of which the Seniors took a very active part. One of these was the Freshmen Initiation, a day packed full of fun for everyone, but especially for the Seniors. To each of us were assigned Freshmen "slaves" to help the mighty Seniors with their burden of that day.

Our Senior trip was a great success for one and all. We were certainly enthralled with the fascinating city of London. Its many sights — Parliament's spires against the sky, the vivid red coats of the Palace Guards — are indeed a fitting setting for all the great historical events that have taken place there, including Bremerhaven's Senior Class Trip.

For the truly memorable Junior-Senior Prom, we Seniors are indebted to the Juniors who planned and managed it. The Senior Class has many V.I.P.s among its members; the student body president, the newspaper and annual editors, athletes, letter men, and club presidents. On the scholastic side we have several members of the National Honor Society.

Even as the Bremerhaven natives have harnessed the strong winds that blow upon their city, so we the Junior Class have incited the energy of our strong sixteen members to raise the huge sums needed to sponsor our two big class activities; the Junior-Senior Prom and the class trip. We blasted the student body with a whirlwind of bake sales, sock hops, concession stands at the ball games, and cake raffles.

Through our efforts, we contributed not only funds, but also "gusty" school spirit at the Bremerhaven High School.

Ours is also an ever vigorous spirit which will have its chance next year, when we return as Seniors, to leave a never-to-be forgotten impression on these sandy lowlands.

With a burst of stormy activity, which included such endeavors as sponsoring concession stands and bake sales, the sophomore class swept through the school year under its capable adviser, Mrs. Marchand.

They backed up team spirit by contributing three cheerleaders and participating in many school activities.

And as the Northerly winds continue to sweep the lowlands, so shall we, to our Junior year.

Just as any wind has to have a beginning somewhere, we, the Freshmen class of 1958, began our first year as part of the high school. We were soon swept up in a whirlwind of activities.

The biggest gust of all hit us at the beginning of the year with Freshmen initiation. It wasn't an ill wind, since everybody, including the Freshmen, had a great deal of fun. Not long afterward, the Homecoming festivity caught up the entire school body in its gay spirit, which the chill winter winds couldn't dampen. We came back after Christmas vacation, warmed by pleasant Holiday memories, to plan the Spring trips, games, and dances, which carried us through the rest of our Freshmen year in the lowlands.

In the sandy soil of the lowlands, we, the roots of Bremerhaven American High School, have grown deep and strong. Our sense of leadership, strengthened by our Junior Student Council campaign, made possible our Christmas Prom with it's Queen, Princess and Court. Our participation in the Science Club, the Junior Red Cross, and our cheerleaders have boosted school spirit. Now we struggle to break through the soil of these lowlands; some day we hope to be part of the harvested crop of Bremerhaven American Senior High School.

In the beginning of the 1958-59 season Coach James Nickell looked over his prospective athletes for the coming football season. For his line-up he picked Joe Huston, only returning letterman from 1957, Jerry White, John Francis, Rick Ward, Kelly Morgan, Joe Eszes, Jim Schroeder and Jim Schoning. The team fought hard but was beaten by the larger schools and at the end of the season had an 0-6 record. They were not daunted and for one reason, they put out all the effort they had for our students and faculty of Bremerhaven High. Special acclaim should be given to Joe Huston, captain and ALL USAREUR fullback, who was handicaped by injury to his right hand. However, student body and faculty were proud of the entire team and rightly so, for they tried their best.

THE SOUND OF THE ROARING CROWD and officials' whistles heralded the opening of yet another basketball season at BHS. Day after day the boys strived in practice to perfect their skills. Under the expert guidance of Mr. Nickells the team was molded into a smoothly working unit. On several occasions however, Bremerhaven was victimized by bad breaks which kept the boys from showing their potential.

SCHOOL SPIRIT is the force behind any successful team and the Bremerhaven Cheerleader squad handled the job of keeping it high successfully. With the help of the student body, waving their pompons, they did their share to help our boys on to victory. One of our most popular yells was:

We're from Bremerhaven and couldn't be prouder,
If you can't hear us now we'll shout a little louder.

A peaceful scene in Bremerhaven.

Boys in the "Teen Club" relax on a cold evening.

A couple of seniors demand homage from a humble freshman.

Joe and Sally beam proudly before an approving student body.

HOMECOMING

One of the biggest events during the school year was Homecoming. A big bonfire flamed hilariously on the school football field the night before the game. As the flames rose higher and higher, so did our eagerness to win over Kaiserslautern. Although we didn't win, we had a wonderful time throughout the festivities, which included a big parade, crowning of the Queen, and the Homecoming Dance.

The Homecoming bonfire burns brightly during the evening pep rally.

Students lend their time and talent to decorating jeeps for the parade.

Colonel Brooks, Port Commander, congratulates "Queen" Sally.

Teachers and students assemble for a pep warm up.

Students will long remember an exciting evening at the Annex Club.

"Yea Black, Yea Gold", cheerleaders yell during the pep assembly.

A perfect day for a game at BHS. The sun is shining. Imagine that!!

Joe escorts Sally through a rather soggy field to her place of honor.

The assembled "Court" pose for a formal shot with Colonel Brooks, Port Commander.

Herb seems to be the life of the party.

Lynn and Jim dance a slow number.

Why is it that sometimes our school looks like a prison?

Junior high school girls join in some winter nonsense.

Boys at B.H.S. seem to grow taller and taller. Could it be due to the food around here?

Linda seems to be up to her old tricks again.

Junior high students pose during a drama meeting. But what are you doing there Carol and Lynn?

Big Chief U.-No.-Who!!

SYMBOLIC silhouetted against a turbulent sky we all know it well, a reminder of the ancient past. We hope these pages will remain for you a pleasant glimpse of past days at Bremerhaven American High School 1958-1959.

They're all waiting for something to happen. Something wonderful and great.

KARLSRUHE

Captions and copy are quotations or paraphrases from OUR TOWN, Thornton Wilder's nostalgically beautiful and simple play.

OUR TOWN

The Name of our town is Paul Revere Village, right over the boundary line from Karlsruhe, Germany. We'd better show you how our town lies. Over through the woods and across Erzbergerstrasse is the center of town. The Minuteman theater stands near the commissary, and the PX is next door. Just about everybody in town manages to stop in there at least once a day.

Over here is the chapel. On Sundays, most of the people in our town go there to worship God in a service that satisfies their needs.

There, on Rhode Island Street, is the elementary school. High School is farther over, on Tennessee. Quarter of nine, noontimes, four o'clock afternoons, you can hear the yelling and screaming from those school yards.

There are some wonderful, tall pines all through our town, and in front of the high school, some beautiful flower gardens. The whole town put together and paid for the flowers. The people in our town take a lot of pride in the school.

Just an ordinary American town, little better behaved than most. Our young people seem to like it well enough; there's a lot of spirit here and a lot of simple friendliness. Almost everybody is a good neighbor.

In our town, we like to know the facts about everybody. Our commanding officer lives over on Indiana Lane. The deputy commander is in the same neighborhood. They're both family men, have children here in school. Our school officer lives down at the edge of town in the B.O.Q., the Concord. The principal of our high school came here from Mannheim with his family; he's been in the overseas schools a long time; Austria, France, Germany, used to teach Industrial Arts years ago. He thinks a great deal of the young people here.

Our counselor grew up and went to school in Maryland. He came to Karlsruhe from France; new, this year. He's done a lot for our morale.

The secretary, a pretty, ambitious girl from Indiana, is over here with her husband, a lieutenant in the United States Army.

CLASS HISTORY

Being seniors is a responsibility. You come into high school just children, and in four years you go out ready to conquer the world. A lot of changes take place.

Our seniors took pride in the school and set examples for the most part for the younger people. Of course that wasn't true of all; some weren't that mature, but they will be.

They did most of the annual, worked hard on the newspaper, led in sports and music. They put on OUR TOWN. Yes, they've been busy. In May they took their trip, and now looks like they're pretty well set to march up and get their diplomas.

All that was going on, and we never realized it.

CLASS HISTORY

In our school the juniors have been the money makers this year. They're something like the man who jumped on his horse and went off in all directions.

The big thing, of course, was the Junior-Senior Prom. Just about all the girls and boys got dressed up and went to that. They had a wonderful evening.

You'll be willing, will you, to get up early and work hard all day, day in and day out?

CLASS HISTORY

When they get to be sophomores, they get the idea they're just about grown up. They show a lot of interest in all the affairs at school. Some of them make good cheer leaders, and they're athletic, and a few show some promise in music and dramatics. There's good material here in the sophomore class.

Everybody knows that something's eternal. It isn't houses. It isn't names; it's spirit.

In any town, some folks just naturally rise to the top.

We think a lot about nature.

Almost every young person at our school has a pet.

Music doesn't have to be loud to be good.

Lots of times problems can be solved in ordinary conversation.

Some people that weren't even born when we started high school mean a lot to us now.

This has been OUR YEAR.

And this is the way it has been with us in OUR TOWN,
our going to school and our growing up.

ORLEANS

Adventurous as a safari,
unpredictable as an expedition,
fervent as a crusade,
the march toward Education
relentlessly progresses.
Since many roads lead to this goal,
every fork and detour
cries for our decision.
Often then, like Robert Frost,
must we reflect . . .

*Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler . . .*

*"To every man there openeth a Way, and Ways
and a Way,*

*The High Soul climbs the High Way
The Low Soul gropes the Low,
And, in between on the misty flats
The rest drift to and fro."*

These lines, by John Oxenham, remind us of our responsibility for choosing the road we wish to take. In our high school many students are choosing goals along the High Way to Success. There seems to be a growing enthusiasm and esprit de corps in our school which apparently began with the school's first football victory in its history.

The school spirit has shown itself not only in athletics but at school dances and in the classrooms. The success our school has attained in the current school year is due to the fine spirit of co-operation between the students and faculty of O.H.S. in the common endeavors along the Higher Way of learning. The High Way is the Right Way and all who travel it must carry responsibilities.

We have now reached the crossroads of life, having come a long way since taking that first step on the highway to the future. As freshmen, we traversed the first mile with little confidence and much awe of the wonderful high school world. The second mile seemed slower, although we enjoyed watching young travelers approaching and discovering the first as we had before.

During the third exciting mile, we worked diligently on the Junior-Senior Prom and other dances, cake sales and slave sales; these were respites which bolstered us for the continued journey.

Our destination realized, we are suddenly aware that this terminal is not an exit, but an entrance into a new, challenging adult world which will test, objectively but fairly, the degree to which OHS has prepared us for this ultimate adventure.

*Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear.*

Taking one of their most important steps, the junior class will journey on to their next milestone with a sense of accomplishment. The Sadie Hawkins Dance, cake sales, class meetings, familiar green halls and crowded lockers will always hold prominent places in our memories, but certainly nothing will overshadow the unforgettable Junior-Senior Prom.

Our sincerest thanks go to Miss Rich and Mr. Perry, our sponsors, who have given their whole-hearted support and assistance to the class in all its adventures.

We have profited from working together as a class; these lessons in teamwork will qualify us for the studies and projects which will come in our eagerly anticipated senior year.

SOPHOMORES

We, the class of '61, beginning as a mere trickle as freshmen, eager to discover the adventures that were to come, soon grew as the year passed by, into a rushing stream. We gained more confidence than we had had the year before as "fish", and worked hard in order to make the other students recognize us. February found us preparing for the Valentine's Dance which we, along with the AYA, co-sponsored. In March we decked our auditorium with bouquets of shamrocks for the St. Patrick's Dance. Realizing the school term was quickly drawing to a close, we ended the year with a bang by giving a Class Hop for the sophomores and in honor of those leaving before the fall term began.

Now the school year had ended and we are saying good-bye to our friends. Thank you, class sponsors — Miss Schmiedeler, Mr. Himes, and Mr. Miller.

NINTH GRADE

When we first climbed the nineteen steps leading to OHS, our hearts pounded with the excitement and anticipation of entering a new world, high school! Although we were at the bottom of the ladder, we could still look back on the junior high.

Money we made from cake sales and profits from our spring dance went towards our class picnic. The advice and wise counsel of our teachers, especially Miss McNulty, Mr. Wenger, and Mr. Melrose, have been valuable assets as we embarked on our new adventure.

Rue Bannier, the familiar link between the Caserne and Maison Fort.

Math, science, history, English, French, gym, art, music, home economics, and shop have been the road signs as we traveled our eighth grade year. Our conductors, Miss Dwyer and Mr. Noland, have guided us over the rough places. Although the way was familiar to us "old-timers", we found it was longer this year. We explored many new and exciting paths: all of the Junior High Student Council officers were elected from our midst; the dances we gave at Christmas time and at Valentine's financed our Slave Sale; we write articles for the Junior High page of the Trojan. Before we realized how the time had flown by, it was June and we were graduating. At last, but so quickly, we had reached the highway, the one of high school! Next year, we begin another journey, but we shall never forget the wonderful eight years which we have passed.

SEVENTH GRADE

In September, 126 seventh graders, a little frightened at the sight of the upper-classmen, timidly entered Junior High. Adjusting ourselves to the new routine, we began our year by electing class officers. As we gained confidence, we participated in the Junior High Talent Show and the Christmas Program. We decorated the halls of OHS with paintings and posters to advertise activities and display our artistic abilities. Continuing our enthusiastic approach, we gave a Christmas party and sponsored a slave sale to finance our class projects. Our social jive of the year was the Valentine's Dance; everyone was decked in hearts ready to pay homage to Cupid.

With the guidance of our sponsors, we then looked to the more serious aspects of growing up. We planned field trips and visited the famous Louvre.

Now, having successfully completed the first portion of our journey, we are looking forward to being one year closer to our goal.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

First row: Merike Silbey, Mr. Miller, Pat Tribe, Betty McClain, Pete Donnell

Student Council has really gone places this year! We sent the Varsity basketball team and cheerleaders to the tournaments and provided student buses to several games played in France. These trips were financed in part by the raffling of a Grundig radio and the sales of Booster Cards and tickets to home basketball games.

Our Constitution was approved, letters were provided for the teams, and a book store opened to furnish students with school supplies. Extensive progress was made in a drive for more and better assemblies. The Ways and Means Committee solved many of the school's problems such as the scheduling of club meetings during activity period.

Our chief project was the Student Council conference held in Orleans this year. Representatives from American high schools in France came to discuss their problems and make new plans.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Traveling on the highway of education, the Orleans chapter of the National Honor Society was guided by the road signs of scholarship, leadership, character and service. It embarked on this journey by inducting all those who had excelled in its objectives. This worthy organization provided the school with a monitor system and administered and publicized the honor roll each grading period.

Frequently members excelling in algebra unveiled the abx^2 mysteries for classmates. Such tutoring, of course, was common in many subjects; this reflected the healthy outlook and caliber of NHS members who have completed this, their first year of official organization, with honors and distinction.

The Trojan

This year, OHS's bi-monthly publication of The Trojan marks its fifth year of bringing items of interest to the students. The staff, under the direction of Editor Diane Barry, has faithfully presented an issue covering school sports, activities, classroom news, and features. An inquisitive student asking who, what, where, when and why could always be spotted at all functions and quickly recognized as a Trojan reporter. "Burning the midnight oil" soon became the staff's motto as last minute articles were typed on the stencils. Always near with advice and a helping hand was their sponsor, Mr. Paesel, who shared their moments of glory and despair.

It wasn't until October that OHS finally realized we were at work. Then teachers began noticing the increasing frequency of our classroom absences, and an accumulation of Mr. Paesel's "please excuse" notes. Everyone "dressed up" when Jon brought his camera to school. While Susie and her business staff scurried around school, Tim and Gunar worked laboriously on layouts to the sound of Mary's clicking keys; Skip did her share of running around, getting students out of class to have their pictures taken, and then there were the coffee breaks! Ellen and her staff came through with the idents. Sally labored over copy and endeavored to organize the confusion. Mr. Paesel's journalistic experience and patient encouragement proved to be valuable assets.

As we look back on the long hours and hard work, they seem light. School life has resumed its normal pace; our frustrations have faded but the excitement of achievement will always remain.

Back row: Troy Blackwell, Mike DeLong, David Hudgins, Gregg Lynch, Dennis Lucker, Bob Jones, Klaus Thomas, Suzanne Schiltz, Ronny Hammuck, Bill Adkinson
Front row: Tommy Stridland, Donna Chamberlin, Bill Kingsmill, Tom Allen, Gloria San Pedro, John Allen, Bob Boyce, Tom Blackburn, Ed Anderson
Standing: Mr. Reid

The Band and Chorus have given an excellent show this year. Mr. Reid, our director, worked with fifty-four horns a tootin' and drums a drummin' which comprised two bands.

The regular ensemble sparked the beginning of all home games with our school song; the half time lull was enlivened with rousing marches, and every Trojan score was celebrated by a blast on a saxophone mouth piece.

The Chorus first confirmed its stellar reputation in the Christmas program. Versatility and delightful quality were apparent. By April their added achievement was witnessed at the PTA program. Hours of rehearsals and earlier performances successfully prepared us for the climactic Music Festival in Karlsruhe.

Music certainly was an important and truly enjoyable facet of education at OHS.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

The Lettermen's Club of OHS is composed of boys who have proved themselves outstanding athletes. Beside participating in school sports, we were responsible for seating students, faculty, and guests at assemblies and school functions.

Our Constitution, approved this year, sets down requirements for wearing letters received at the Sports Banquet on sweaters and jackets which each of us acquired during the year.

GAA

On the road to physical fitness, the GAA passed many milestones of discipline competing with each other in volleyball and softball.

While journeying on this highway, we stopped at Paris for swimming, ice skating, and a Play Day with the Paris High School GAA. Our first responsibility was initiating new freshmen members; then came the cake sales, hosting a Play Day in December, and a party. We were ably guided by our sponsor and friend, Miss McNulty.

Our road, like any other, had a starting point and an end. We started with a selected group of girls and drove hard towards our objective. At the end of the road, rewards in the form of letters and pins awaited us.

RED CROSS

Although we got off to a late start this last year, we have accomplished many worthwhile projects. Our membership drive was successful. Next we filled a gift chest from proceeds from a spring dance. With the aid of the woodshop class, we made a Book Wagon for La Chapelle Hospital. We feel that all these projects have been very rewarding.

FHA

Moulins, litres, and culliers de bois became familiar terms to the members of Future Homemakers of America this year as we took lessons in French cooking.

We provided refreshments for faculty meetings to finance these lessons and a trip to a fashion show in Paris.

Our accomplishments of this year gave us a wider knowledge of home economics and of France.

Absent from Pictures: Kelly McCartney, Treasurer

Bang! Sputter! Spooey! There they go! The Trojan Wheels even surpassed last year's Scooter Club!

Although our activities were somewhat limited during the winter, we took many trips when spring and warm weather came. We acquired a garage which doubled as an efficient work room for repairs and a meeting place.

Our purpose is to promote safety and encourage mechanical know-how. This is done through the combined efforts of our safety officer, Chris Deisher, and Charles Smith, our head mechanic. Oh yes! Our officers: Harvie Butler, President; Ed Corcoran, Vice-President; Pat Green, Secretary; and Kelly McCartney, Treasurer. Mr. Perry and Mr. Himes were our faithful, brave, and understanding sponsors.

Back row: Pat Green, John Truhacek
First row: Harvie Butler, Kelly McCartney, Jack West, John Taylor, Charles Smith, Daniel Petillon

HI-Y

Orleans chapter of Hi-Y, the first to be formed outside the United States, has been an active organization at OHS.

The trip which we sponsored to Paris for members and their dates was a huge success. Everyone enjoyed touring the city and visiting historical sites.

We also sponsored a citizenship award, based on a student's scholarship, character, leadership, and service. This award was presented on Awards Day by President Jack West.

Our number was increased to twenty in an induction ceremony held in the spring.

TRI-HI-Y

Aiming for progress the Tri-Hi-Y embarked upon the path of friendship. This included decorating the school for Christmas, aid to an orphanage, and promoting good character. The path widened into a road that provided educational programs at our meetings and the initiating of new members in a friendly manner.

OUR DAY

Our Day

Yesterday's assignment, the coming game, and the party last weekend are all topics of interest as last minute discussions fill our bus before schoolwork starts again.

First Period

Monsieur Wenger gestures dramatically to explique the difference between sortir and partir. French is challenging but fascinating.

Second Period

Ten o'clock finds us in algebra with Mr. Cunningham explaining quadratics and imaginary numbers to dispel our bewildered expressions. Imagine our amazement when a full page of symbols gives us zero as the solution.

Third Period

Reading for our instruments we rush to band where we begin a music-filled hour with Mr. Reid. A final rehearsal prepares us for our performance at the evening game.

A short walk and we are in the cafeteria for an army-style meal. This morning's bulletin was right again: hot beef, green beans, ice cream, and milk. Stomachs full, we scurry to beat the fifth period tardy bell.

Fourth Period

Mark Twain and prepositional phrases are in store for us as we enter English, the last morning class. Miss Rich explores a new world of prose and poetry with us.

at OHS

Fifth Period

Amidst gurgling test tubes and balances we review yesterday's experiment on sulfur. We learn, unhappily, that hydrogen sulfide has a very distinctive odor.

The GAA provides a chance, under Miss McNulty's guidance, for fun in girls' sports. Volleyball, tumbling, and basketball are some of their interesting attractions.

Sixth Period

In history the Civil War is fought again by the loyal supporters of the North and South. Miss Uehling has a difficult time staying neutral among the many convincing arguments.

Activity

Activity periods offer each student an option. Many choose to do part of tonight's homework. Others prefer more exhausting activities.

Three o'clock is also the time for our basketball squad to leave for practice. Daily workouts in the Caserne gym sharpen shooting and dribbling skills.

At 3:30 p.m. the buses are boarded. Another eventful day at Orleans High is reviewed; new assignments, small talk, and social plans are once again priority topics.

Jeff and Jim anticipate precipitate.

Coach Friedman consoles the fumbler.

Midiele's eyelashes are getting heavy.

Buddy races for Poitiers' goal in our historic first grid win.

Ellen leads the fans.

We at OHS have a special reason to be proud of our football team. For the first time in the gridiron history of OHS, we have emerged victorious. Our first game of the season ended in a rousing 33 to 7 victory for the Trojan eleven. This conquest proved to be a terrific boost to the morale of both the players and student body. Led by returning letterman Kelly McCartney at the helm and newcomer Buddy De Paulo playing the right half slot, the Orleans gridders were able to annex third place in the Com Z League. Orleans' two defeats were suffered at the hands of the Paris Pirates and the league champs, Verdun's Falcons. However, each game was lost by a margin of only one touchdown. This was our first year of competition in the eleven man circuit; although it was a new experience to most of us, our record proves that such challenges can be successfully met.

SOCCER

Soccer, an unfamiliar sport in most American high schools, is a natural and exciting brand of competition in France. Although the Trojans did not emerge victors in 1958, the sportsmanship and skill frequently displayed were tributes to our coach, Mr. Cunningham.

In addition to games with American high school teams, we enjoyed playing against French lycee teams from the Orleans area. Not only does this provide the chance to learn more about the sport itself, but it also encourages us to know better the people with whom we play.

Under Coach Himes' watchful tutelage the varsity hoopsters developed into a formidable quintet. Undismayed by losses in our two opening games, the four consecutive victories which followed gave evidence of sharpened incentive. Kelly McCartney and Harvie Butler, the guards, consistently engineered the ball to Jack Rice, whose pivot play aided forwards John Kohn and Gus Higginbotham. Able reserves were invaluable too in building the team's impressive record.

ADMINISTRATION

The framework . . . without whose support we would fall . . .

We live in Paris, the "City of Art"; a city designed by artists, inhabited by artists, visited by artists, and a city dear to art students. We see painters at work at their easels in the streets. We see the magnificent architecture of Parisian buildings; the sculpture of Parisian monuments. We taste the art of Paris in her foods, smell her art in her perfumes, and some of us would love to be able to wear the art of Paris — her famous fashions. Being so surrounded, we feel an urge to make "Paris Art" the theme of our book this year.

Few of us are really artists, or ever will be. We are scholars, heroes, novices, organizers, followers, hopefuls, sportsmen, apprentices, businessmen . . . all of these. But really, who among these are not artists of a sort; or who among these are not abundant among artists?

Any artist worth his salt is first a scholar, then a craftsman. And at Paris High, scholarship is foremost too. To become a member of either the National Honor Society, or the Junior National Honor Society is a reward which can't be surpassed. Candidates are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The students on this page, having demonstrated excellence in all four of these qualities, we consider to be the "masters" of our school.

SENIORS

To be established is the ambition of every artist. To be "tops in the field" is his goal. We seniors have achieved this coveted position, and now that we are here, we find ourselves recalling and cherishing the memories of our four-year upward struggle.

"Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow, creeps in this petty pace from day to day..." was the appropriate theme during our years of utter obscurity. Time wore on, and a more mature class reached its ultimate during the senior year. Our last era of carefree prosperity was only nine months from an end, but we vowed to make a lasting impression on Paris annals. And that we did!

The school carnival, and hi-fi were our first achievements as a result of Bill Rountree's management. Then Dale Means, our veep directed our "Winter Wonderland" Christmas formal, with Sue Holterman in charge of decorations. The dance was acclaimed a success, but not without the able assistance of "Dick Heinzl", "Todd Number One", and "Todd Number Two" to put up the parachutes. To finish off the gala affair, Don Conrad and Karen Vandevanter were chosen as reigning monarchs. From then on, we enjoyed a pleasant lull from worries until we discovered that graduation invitations had not yet arrived. There were hectic moments, but they finally subsided and we undertook our next major task, the class trip. Miss Summers and Mr. Hull, our advisors, suffered many ulcers and headaches; however, all the complications were finally settled and off we were for London-town!

Well, the trip is over, and graduation day is nearing. Our "tomorrow" didn't seem to creep along at such a petty pace after all, but in retrospect, our four years at Paris High seemed like only a few months. We're sorry to leave, but the show must go on. Enter Class of '60!

Self-discipline is the cornerstone of good workmanship... in school life as in the arts. At Paris, as at most American high schools, we govern ourselves by a student council; but we like to feel that our Student Council is better than most. Not only are our membership requirements high, but our ideals are high too. As we serve, the source of our service is the "pride of social craftsmanship", and its end is "an incessant and vigilant effort to establish the eminent dignity of man".

This year, we watched with much pride and interest the growth and maturity of our protegé, the year-old Inter-Club Council. We watched our student store expand its stock and services under the good managership of Ben Sternberg. With the introduction of a new incentive system and Student Store Board of Control, we hope to offer an even better store next year.

At Christmas, we sponsored a party for French personnel of both the high school and elementary school. Our Cafeteria Committee strives the year around to attain better cafeteria service. This Spring, in helping to plan for the Student Council Conference in Orleans we look forward to a better year next year. Yet, we shall look back upon a satisfying year behind.

We are organizers, who like to see a work well coordinated like a fine piece of sculpture, or like a great building. There was a time when our school's activities tended to get in each others' ways — to be "out-of-joint". But the Inter-Club Council, a new permanent committee of the Student Council, now does the job of coordinating "all extra-curricular activities of every school organization", and offers "such services to the school as may be deemed necessary and proper".

During the 1958-59 year, senior Tony Janairo acted as chairman, junior John Davenport as vice-chairman, junior Sharon Blewett as secretary, and junior Jane Hally as treasurer.

For the first time in the history of PAHS, the school carnival was put into the hands of the I.C.C., and was ably coordinated by Bill Rountree. Frictions were minimized, schedules were settled, and supplies were obtained. At last the organizations of the school had their own equipment for dances and publicity campaigns.

Through this and other services performed this year, the I.C.C. has finally established itself as a proud part of our school.

JUNIORS

The class of '60 will enter proudly into the seniors' established place. Now our main concern is, of course, the Prom. We are looking forward to it with mixed emotions . . . anxiety, anticipation; even dread . . . and we only hope that we can provide for the Class of '59 a wonderful, memorable climax to their high school career. Under the advisorship of Mrs. Carroll, Miss Beauford, Mr. Cullen, and Mr. Rossetter, the Junior Class began the school's social year with a flourish by sponsoring the first semi-formal dance at Homecoming time. During the year, several juniors have been inducted into the National Honor Society, and we are very proud of them. Now, with the Prom at hand, we salute the seniors, and will humbly step up into their place.

In art, masters are few and far between. And so, in our school, it is the struggling "rank and file" that predominates. We, the sophomores, have played that role. If we had been artists, the story of our year's activities might have read like this:

'Arising from the lowly status of amateurs, we found ourselves as brash, foolhardy, disorganized apprentices, looking down on those below us, and questioning the established artists above us. As a first step out of confusion, we elected officers (shown on this page) to lead us. Needing money to buy supplies, we collected from exhibitions, carnivals, and other projects thru the year. At last, our efforts have paid off, for soon we shall be recognized as juniors, and shall have apprentices of our own.'

Class of 1962

The life of a beginner is a hard one, but we entered it full of expectations. After our first few weeks of floating on air, we were rudely brought down to earth with our initiation (though we didn't deserve it). For two days, the only time we got half way off the ground again was when we tiptoed past the almighty seniors. We eventually forgave them though, for they gave us a fine dance.

The highlight of our year was the success of our carnival booth, the "Fun House". We put our best ideas into it, and were well rewarded. Yet, some say that our dance topped even this effort. Now, by year's end, we begin to acquire a "seasoned" feeling, and are really looking forward eagerly to that sophomore year.

The Junior High School

In art, in life, or in a school annual, nothing is so welcome as that which is fresh and new. This year, for the first time in the history of the USAREUR Annual, the junior high schools will be represented. The students and teachers feel honored and privileged.

To the Junior High, congratulations and welcome!

During the first month of school, we were busy with elections. From one end of the halls to the other were posters lauding the worthiness of each candidate. Elections over, the members of both classes sat down to work. Yet we were not short on activities. We were seen repeatedly at all the high school games, and at many of their dances. We had our own dances, too, as well as cake sales and other activities.

In the years to follow, we anticipate becoming full-fledged senior high school students, and we look forward to doing some welcoming of our own.

The Junior High classes meet on the floor of the elementary building.

"We are scholars, heroes, novices, organizers, followers, hopefuls, sportsmen, apprentices, businessmen ... all these ..."

At PAHS we boast a complete palette of colorful clubs and organizations. One of the most interesting is our Franco-American Club, organized for the purpose of bringing together French and American teenagers. Members do such things as attend movies, square-dances, and ice-skating parties together.

The Pep Club, one of the largest clubs in school, is responsible for most of the enthusiasm exhibited at games, and members keep busy making posters, pom-poms, and noise, in an effort to improve school spirit. Many of the Pep Club Girls are also members of the Girls' Athletic Association, designed to arouse interest in sports, and to teach the fundamentals of those sports.

The Art Club is extremely active, and is popular among students as those can testify who attended the Club's cleverly decorated Hallowe'en Dance.

A most unique organization this year is Chris Nance's Chamber Chorale, a group which meets to practice serious music for long hours after school. Here, one student was inspired to write a complete mass — an original work.

These are only a few of PAHS' many, varied outside-school activities. On the next few pages, you will meet the members of the others.

ACTIVITIES

... there is the harmony for which we strive

Student Residence Halls

If you're an artist looking for a garret in which to lead a Bohemian existence, don't come to the student residence halls at Paris American High School. You'll find our rooms far too clean for your taste, our lighting too good, our beds too soft, and our hours too regular. You would meet some nice people, though. We have four counselors, Miss Messmore, Miss Harding, Mr. DeCarlo, and Mr. Giammatteo, whom you would like in spite of their curbing your emotional excesses. We have some nice students (and some "characters" too, of course) who come from as far as Dreux, Evreux, and Fontainebleau to live their school week here.

If you're looking for a place not to study, a place to get away from people, a place where the food is terrible, go elsewhere. Don't come to the PAHS "dorms".

... An easy place to work and live ...

Chris Nance accompanies the chorus.

The Music Department of Paris American High School is comprised of several sections: two regular choral groups for vocal ensembles, a Madrigal chorus of select and interested pupils, a student-directed chorus with sessions meeting after school, and an instrumental group.

Throughout the entire music program are mingled several purposes: the introduction of different styles and forms, the training in fundamental vocal or instrumental skills, the assimilation of historical background, and the development of a sense of harmony. The two major events in the life of our music student are the performances given at Christmas and in the Spring. There are also student recitals, ranging from a Haydn trumpet solo to a Bach piano concerto. These productions prove that the students put a tremendous amount of energy into their work, and that no matter what hardships there are, it is worth it.

Few of us are artists, or ever will be, in the classic sense of the term. But some of us have a painter's coordination, or a sculptor's power and control. The sports program at PAHS is designed to develop similar skills, and good sportsmanship, as well as to serve as a focal point for school enthusiasm.

Under the able direction of Mr. Rocker and Mr. Hemendinger, the football team improved remarkably over last year's team record. Paris ended the season with a second place tie with Chateauroux. Todd Ackley was elected as most valuable lineman, and Don Conrad was elected as most valuable player in the backfield; Don and Heinz Dickl were co-captains of the team. Paris placed three boys on the all-conference team of France: Walt Lang, John Davenport, and Heinz Dickl.

After a successful football season, Paris again dominated the realm of sports, this time in soccer. Mr. Boehm coached the Paris team to the championship — the fourth consecutive time for Paris. The most valuable player was Cliff Bolduc, and Ronny Lapin was the team captain.

For the first time in the history of Paris American High School, a golf team was sent to the All-USAREUR Golf Tournament at Stuttgart. The team was well-represented by seniors; Dave Bary, Bill Ely, and Bill Rountree, with sophomore Pat Castelluccio. The quartet played well, but the unfamiliar course soon proved a handicap. Paris placed in a three-way tie with Mannheim and Munich.

Down through the centuries,
 Each age has given Man
 A more difficult goal —
 The victory of an untamed territory,
 The sea, the sky.
 In our age, Man has turned to science
 And the conquering of the smallest particle of life.
 Composing this minute mass
 Are even tinier particles,
 Each an individual,
 Yet,
 Each vital to the whole.
 Physicists are constantly
 Striving,
 Searching,
 Creating,
 A way to harness this power
 To make it useful to our world —
 This Is the ATOM.

At the giant universe,
 With the sun acting as the nucleus
 About which the planetary
 Electrons revolve,
 Builders may be as well
 Likened to the atom.
 From the most petite and youngest fragments,
 To the older, experienced particles
 Abounding within its walls,
 It contains untold potential and vitality.
 Our physicists, too, are ever
 Working,
 Teaching,
 Molding,
 Us into the power that shall someday be a credit
 To our school, and to our world.

Atomic existence is
 The hope of tomorrow
 So are we —
 If electrons, neutrons, and protons are small,
 But important assets of the mass,
 So are we —
 Particles of a Thriving,
 Living,
 Growing,
 Human Atom.

POITIERS

Picturesque city of antiquated homes with a sprinkling of modern stores — buildings and monuments left behind by passing invaders — city of history and progress — Poitiers, France.

The Romans first realized the beauty of the location and made the first settlement of the area. Later, Eleanor of Aquitaine, the wife of Henry II of England, founded the University of Poitiers, and finally Joan of Arc was imprisoned here four weeks, undergoing an examination by the Doctors of the University who questioned the state of her mind.

Our American High School joined the ranks of the numerous homes of education in September of 1958. Students from installations as far south as Captieux, near the Spanish border, and as far north as Saint Nazaire, were among those who united to make the new school a success.

The building was originally designed as a hospital; but the spacious halls and rooms provided a splendid place for the many teen-agers who, the year before, found the high schools of Rochefort and Chateauroux too cramped for their number.

Now the year of experiment is over — Poitiers, with its undying spirit and drive, has made a proud place among the older American high schools of Europe.

May each year be as successful as her first.

This school year of 1958-59 brought many worries for this, our faculty. There was the sudden change of country, change of student body, and change of school. For all but three of them it was a new experience entirely, and even for the old-timers it was quite an adventure since the year brought the birth of Poitiers High School and it was their job to aid the students in making a proud place for the new alma mater among the other older, and more established American Schools in Europe.

We, the Students of Poitiers, would like to thank all of them for their guidance in the past year. May we prove to be a credit to them.

We regret that the pictures of Mr. Robert Ackerson, Mr. Donald Ledger, Mr. Albert Grimes, and Miss Nicole Garcia are not shown here due to their absence when the photos were taken.

Again, many thanks to the Army and the Faculty for a wonderful year!!

Sitting: Claudette Colbert, Secretary; Kelly Hines, Vice-President
Front: Roger Casalingo, President; Butch Black, Treasurer

ELECTRONS

Looking back over the past year, we, the first Seniors of Poitiers High School, have much to be proud of.

The fall PTA Raffle, year-long dormitory and sports concessions, and a humorous Lollipop Day all played an important part in our class trip goal — London, England.

In traditional form, we sponsored the Christmas formal, Joyeux Noel. Despite the interference of a slight hurricane, the dance was a success both in enjoyment and profit.

May found our goal achieved when the picturesque towers of London loomed above us. What a splendid time we had on our last jaunt together!

After our memorable trip, the class rings arrived, the Juniors presented us with a wonderful prom, and then came, not the end, but the beginning of our research, Graduation.

Yes, this year is full of MEMOIRS not soon to be forgotten by any of us; and we wish to thank Mr. Dwight Johnson, class sponsor, for his guidance and encouragement throughout the year.

Au revoir et bonne chance — Poitiers!

NEUTRONS

Upperclassmen at last!

Realizing the duties that go along with the post we promptly began working to fill the class exchequer in anticipation of our Prom in May.

We began our campaign by giving a Sadie Hawkin's Dance with the Dogpatch theme, followed later in the year by the Valentine's Dance, with the traditional red and white decor. Sharing the ball-game concessions with our rivals, the Seniors, also provided an additional rise in our funds.

Competing for our attention was the matter of ordering the actual emblem of our upperclass station — our class rings. Their arrival was a momentous occasion for all of us! We worked hard throughout the year and finally the night was upon us. Our Prom and breakfast was a high success thanks to the combined efforts of class members and our class sponsors, Miss Juliet Valois, Mr. Robert Hartman, and Mr. Gene Becker.

As the year closes we leave with minds and hearts filled with happy memories — but no remorse at leaving the year behind. Why? Next year we will be Seniors!

By giving the first dance of the year, Homecoming, our Sophomore Class of '59 got well under way. Two candidates were chosen from each class and we were honored to have the Homecoming Queen, Lynn Anderson, in our number. To high-light the evening we had the high school cheerleaders lead us in a few "Yea Teams!" for both Poitiers and our guests for the evening, the Verdun Cardinals. This pre-game fete was a huge success, and enjoyed by all.

Under the capable leadership of our faculty sponsor, Mrs. Pempek, and our class presidents, Roz Ambrose, who returned to the United States at mid-term, and Walter Flammond, we succeeded in building up our treasury. Among our numerous projects was a Color Day. How lucky for us that nearly everyone wore red or blue that day!

We were very active in sports this year for approximately fifty percent of our football and basketball teams were composed of Sophomores. Entertainment at half-time was not without our support either as we contributed our talents to the Cheerleading and Majorette squads, with two girls in each group.

Hard work, determination, and fun have made a most profitable year. Now we are looking forward to the responsibilities and pleasures of being upperclassmen.

POSITRONS

The Freshman Class of 1958-59, under the capable leadership of our president, Jean Jones, began preparation early in the year for the presentation of the St. Patrick's Day Dance in March, as it was the main project of the class. Having a bake sale in February was our way of earning funds to present this dance.

Helping throughout the year were our other officers: Louise Buckner, vice-president; Connie TeSelle, secretary; and Mary Westerman, treasurer. Many thanks go to Mr. Probert, Miss Sandra Modisett, and Mr. Donald Ledger, class sponsors, for their untiring efforts and aid in this, our first year of High School.

7TH AND 8TH GRADE

The 7th and 8th grades of Poitiers High School spent most of their time frantically studying and preparing themselves for their fast approaching years in senior high. These young members of the student body were not without their social activities, however, as all attend a Christmas dance and Valentine's frolic — these being the major events on the junior high calendar — as well as various other fetes.

In November the young ladies of the group played hostess to the many parents present for the PTA Open House.

FOOTBALL

Our first game, and only victory, was against Paris, the "terrors" to all Franco-American teams. A fast moving second half, spirited by team effort, led to a winning score of 13-6.

The next two games were played against Orleans and Chateauroux. These were the damper on our steam with scores of 33-7 and 18-13.

With a renewed effort, Poitiers met the impressive Verdun team on home territory. A closely fought game resulted in Verdun's winning the game 24-1. Team spirit and student support kept the Panther morale and all members met once again to enjoy Father-Son Banquet January. Highlights of the evening were the showing of films from all our games, an inspiring talk by Michael Rotundi, Recreation Director of Special Services, and the presenting of our letter certificates.

Wayne Jones, ferocious tackle of the Panther five, was elected to the COM-Z All Star Football Team.

SOCCER

The soccer team met at Orleans for the opening and their first victory. Backed by hard practices and fine sportsmanship, the Poitiers booters walked off the field with an impressive 2-0 victory.

Due to a loss of experienced players, Poitiers was unable to break the winning streak of Paris High when they defeated us 2-1 in a hard fought game on the victors territory.

The boys hope to continue with the sport with a possible spring tournament.

BASKETBALL

"Never victorious, never defeated," seemed to be the motto of the fast moving basketball squad. The beginning of the season was jinxed for the Panther Varsity, but luck arrived on the wings of a victory from Chateauroux in early January. The Junior Varsity had a much better season with three victories.

Win or lose, the boys' morale was never low, and they prided themselves on their ability to keep all rivals constantly on their toes. Even the loss of several important team members did not subtract team drive.

Mr. Joseph Stephen, coach, kept each boy working steadily throughout the season. His patience and aid certainly are the reason for such an enjoyable, hard, and well-played basketball year.

CHEERLEADERS

"We made it!" was the cry which echoed through the tranquil halls of Poitiers High School on the afternoon of September 18, 1958. Popularly elected by the student body, this peppy, energetic six, realized their responsibilities of leading cheers, getting together with the motions, and increasing school spirit.

Luckily, all members of the squad had had previous experience at cheerleading, and it did not take the group long to get together a list of original "pep boosters".

Most of the cheers used were born during their numerous practice sessions, but it was not unusual to see them practicing during lunch hour and any other spare moment. Climaxing a year of fun and hard work, the cheerleaders attended the annual tournaments held in Bremerhaven in March.

MAJORETTES

Under the leadership of Claudette Colbert, Captain, the majorettes of Poitiers High School successfully performed at Pep Rallies and half-time throughout the football and basketball season. The girls were chosen by the Student Council, and their strenuous practices began immediately after their election.

Symbolized by the Torch and Flame, our chapter of the National Honor Society was a proud section of the nucleus of Poitiers High School. New members were inducted into the organization in February. The members helped us throughout the year by displaying scholarship, leadership, highest character, and willing service.

Equally important to PHS was the Student Council, which served as a liaison between our administration and student body and acted as a screen for all school sponsored activities. Under the guidance of Mr. Probert, faculty sponsor, and Gary Graham, student president, our council served us well.

PARTICLES IN ACTION

Charge!!

What's the good word?!

September found the students of PHS earnestly putting their noses back to the grindstone for another year of study and fun. After a few days of bewilderment and exasperated queries of "Where am I?" everyone became accustomed to their new locations and things ran on an even keel.

In the fall spot-light was football and especially preparations for a spectacular Homecoming.

Preceding the "Big Game" was a novel, lively pep rally during which "Miss Jimima" Leathe was crowned queen of the day by co-captains of the foot ball team, Jack Curry and Wayne Jones.

The real queen, pretty, perky Sophomore, Miss Lynn Anderson, arrived at the stadium in a regal coach in the form of a blue Cadillac. Miss Anderson was crowned by General Richard Myers, and escorted from the field by two members of the Panther team. She was followed by her court of lovely maidens. Each class had chosen two representatives to run in the contest.

We're gonna' win of course!

He uses Pond's.

I'm from Poitiers!

Her Majesty.

Such taste, these Seniors!

POITIERS HIGH SCHOOL PEP CLUB

The more people, the more cheers and the louder the voices proved over and over again that in our Pep Club we had many top-notch pepsters in our student body.

VOCAL MUSIC

Under the direction of Mr. Cotone, the Vocal Music Group of PHS had a most profitable year. This group sang at the Christmas assembly, reviewed musicians, and studied music appreciation throughout the year. As a climax this group attended the annual Music Festival in Karlsruhe.

PHOTOGRAPHY

"Hold it" and "Good, I've got the picture" were two of the common expressions heard by students at Poitiers during April when the "Snap" Club held their photo contest. Mr. Hartman, faculty advisor, helped to make this an interesting year for the club members.

Back row: Patrick Truman, John Day, Mr. Hartman, Sponsor; Vicky Vasquez, Ralph Hederet, Marcia Brown
Second row: Aldina Cason, Mary Westerman
Front row: Marian Le Duke, James Skaggs

PROJECTIONISTS

One of the hardest working clubs at PHS, the Projectionists, under the direction of Mr. Nicholas DeCecco, avidly studied the intricacies and art of movie cameras. Many of them were called upon to run films for classes and assemblies. What enjoyment and challenge in helping others.

Back row: Bob Federman, George Barrows, Don Quigley, Victor Lopez
Front row: John Ludwinkowski, Alan Waters, Lydia Dante, Lydia Luna, Fred Black, Mr. Probert

Back row: Mr. DeCecco, George Barrows, Henry Langhaim, Ronnie Rogers, Don Quigley, Bill Canfield, Roy Judkins, Joe Bone, Mike O'Malia
Second row: Terry Maini, Nehla Patterson, Lana Boruff

RADIO CLUB

Another of Mr. Nicholas DeCecco's ventures was the Radio Club. Several mechanical minded boys met once a week to learn the "how" and "why" of the "wireless". Perhaps we harbor a number of future Marconis!

STAMP CLUB

Traveling from continent to continent through the study of stamps was this enthusiastic group of Panthers. Under the guidance of Mr. Harold Probert, the group found many hours of enjoyment and learning in the tiny, colorful, "timbres."

Back row: Mr. DeCecco, Marion Dilley, Bernard McNally, James Stewart

FUTURE HOME-MAKERS OF AMERICA

The first project of this club was the making of yarn animals for an orphanage at Christmas time. Brenda Griffen was elected president of this group and Miss Wenger was faculty advisor. They had skits pertaining to good grooming, table setting, and good housekeeping throughout the year.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Experience was gained by the Future Teachers as they visited various classes and interviewed the teachers. These future educators also had the privilege of teaching a class in order to learn the basic fundamentals of the profession which they plan to enter.

Back row: Patricia Pennet, Mrs. Pempek, Charlotte Ross

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

The Future Nurses of America Club of Poiriers High School glimpsed at their futures by visiting the General Dispensary at Chinan Depot in April. Throughout the year members of this club made bedroom shoes for patients at the La Rochelle Hospital. The faculty sponsor was Mrs. Pempek and club president, Mary Jurbula.

Back row: Susan Schuyler, Judy Moss
Second row: Mrs. Pempek, Shiela Parent, Marther McMann, Norma Dimond, Nancy Ward, Jackie Alston, Theresa Griffin, Nancy Butler

Presenting a Red Cross assembly to the members of PHS was one of the projects of the Red Cross Club led by Carol Harth, president, and Gary Graham, vice-president. The members visited the branch of the French Red Cross in Poitiers. One-hundred per cent membership was given to this organization by the student body.

Back row: Mike O'Malia, James Weideman, Stanley Verra, Gerry Haver, John Spees
Fourth row: Frank Quesada, Ed Skelly, Leon Roane, Lew Brown
Third row: Freddy Black, Mark Cline, William Morris
Second row: Larry Brunner, Tom Peters, Orville Hamilton, Robert Sell, John Ludwinkowski
Front row: Carrie Lawrence, Kathy Shannon, Judy Langhain, Marie Boyer, Rosemarie Uttaro

ART CLUB

Mrs. Dwight Johnson, art director, led the Art Club in making decorations for Christmas and Valentine's Day which made the halls of PHS the most colorful in France. They also made an intensive study of block printing. Near the end of the year, an art exhibit was displayed for the students.

DRAMA CLUB

Excerpts from "Macbeth", reading of the "Valiant", and bit acting from books and plays were all projects of the Drama Club. The faculty sponsor, Mr. Stephen Ross, helped these students to gain poise and perfection both on stage and off.

Back row: Patricia Pennett, Mary Caley, Linda Woodbridge, Rita Zelinsky
Front row: Patricia Marden, Mary Connolly, Judy White, Elizabeth Day, Mr. Stephen Ross

Front row, sitting: Van Segars, Tom Peters, Bob Federman, Roy Pace
 Second row: Jerry Bruner, Bob Sell, Philip Waters
 Back row, standing: Orville Hamilton, Peter Coth, John Hill, Raphael Hederer, Dave Hederer, Milton Lesser

CHESS CLUB

Under the direction of the president, John Day, and the willing aid of Mr. Dwight Johnson, the faculty sponsor, the Chess Club had an interesting and enjoyable year.

ADVANCED GROUP

Among the thirty enthusiastic students meeting twice a week to show their skill at maneuvering pawns were a few wise old hands at the game of chess. These boys assisted in teaching the beginners the difficult game along with pitting their own wits at the sport.

Front row: Bonnie Rogers, Dug Hale, Yoge Ewing, John Prosser
 Back row: Chuck O'Brien, Patrick Truman, Bonnie Brien, Horst Ewing, Bill Canfield, Joe Connelly

Sitting: James Terrill, John Curry
 Standing: George Duker, John Day

BEGINNERS

"Experience is the best teacher", and we have proof of the adage in these first year chess players. Beaten once or twice when the club was just getting underway, they staunchly held their own, and it was often that the "pros" of the advanced group left a club meeting with sheepish faces. Beaten by a beginner!!

DANCE CLUB

One of the most popular clubs of Poitiers High School was the Dance Club which met once a week. Faculty sponsors, Miss Sandra Modisett and Mr. Gene Becker, ably led the club in perfecting their waltzes, polkas, and even held their own in the Rock and Roll.

Standing: Miss Sandra Modisett, Mr. Gene Becker
Kneeling: Robert Roane, Secretary-Treasurer; Wayne Jones, President; Duane Wilson, Vice-President

Fourth row: Chester Yingst, John Slauterbed, James Wheideman, Eddie Brown, Lew Brown, Klaus Bancutter, Bill Canfield, Ronnie Adler, Bill Williams, Robert Roane, Ed Skelly, Leon Roan, Mr. Gene Becker
Second row: Sharon Vaughn, Clare Burke, Lynn Carroll, Helga Lofriv, Macia Amenshauser, Brenda Wilson
First row: Marget Dahlke, Jo Ellen McConn, Carmen Berrios, Gay Nelson, Nieves Carlos, Cynthia Creel, Diana McGraw

ADVANCED DANCERS

The advanced members of the Dance Club were a great asset to their teachers in that they already had a general idea of the proper techniques and courtesies of the dance floor: their main objective, perfection.

BEGINNERS

Made up primarily of the 7th and 8th grade, this portion of the club showed remarkable improvement after just a few lessons. In spite of a few bruised toes, or perhaps because of them, much fun was had by all.

Third row: Mr. Gene Becker, Jerry Boyer, Chester Yingst, Roy Judkins, Maureen O'Connell, Rita Zelinsky
Second row: Jo Romero, James Hurst, Mary Westerman, Jean Jones, Judy Whit, Marion Le Duke, Marcy Brown, Nancy Distasio, Pat Martin, Elisa Carter
First row: Gerry Burke, Larry Ryan, Mark Cline, Bob Ponds, Pat Kelley, Loretta Leblube, Janet Alstin, Martha Edwards

Back row: Leon Roane, Gordon Schrader, Ronnie Alder, Keith Pond, Frank Quesada, Mike Caine, Ed Skelly, Allen Todd, Larry Cook, Jim Gillespie
Fourth row: Lew Brown, Douglas Hale, Manny Buccola, Jim Leath, Jerry Vaught, Garry Haver, Stanley Vera, James Weideman
Third row: Joe Connolly, Jo Ellen Steffen, Loretta La Duke, Valeria Vogt, Linda Woodbridge
Second row: Peter Poth, Robert Sell, Freddy Black, John Prosser

Conducted by Mr. Stephen Cotone, the numerous band members made their jaunts into the music world twice each week. Many hours were spent putting the club on its feet. No officers were elected. We hope for an equally successful school band next year.

LIBRARY CLUB

Presenting the school with a series of programs on travel, in January, and a comparison of books and their corresponding movie versions, in February, were two of the main accomplishments of the Library Club. Money was made by selling refreshments at a Service Club dance to set up a special section on France in the school library.

Back row: Susan Scheeler, Kelly Hines, Linda Woodbridge

Back row: Mr. Gene Becker, Fred Richter, Jim Williams, Tom Kirthlink, Melvin Clark, Eddie Caldwell, Jim Bruce, Jim Grote, Chester Yingst, Tom Weeks

SCIENCE CLUB

Holding general discussions and viewing scientific movies were two of the activities which members of the Science Club participated in.

Under the leadership of Mr. Gene Becker, sponsor, and Pat Truman, president, the club organized the Science Fair held in Poitiers on February 14. The local winners went to Paris for the regional fair in March.

First row: Jeanne Baker, Carol Asby, Social Editor, Mary Lambert

YEARBOOK AND NEWSPAPER

The annual staff, under the capable guidance of our editor-in-chief, Kelly Hines, started working early in October. Carol Harth, co-editor, John Dunmar, junior editor, Ferd Richter, lay-out editor, Beverly Schimmel, literary editor, Gary Graham, sports editor, and Roger Casalengo and Henry Langhain, our two business managers, helped to keep us moving along to meet the deadline.

To help finance our section of the annual, we had a yearbook raffle and a bake sale.

Our thanks go to Miss Valois for her help and guidance in preparing our MEMOIRS.

First row: Henry Langhain, Fred Richter, Beverly Schimmel, Kelly Hines, Carol Harth, John Dunmar, Gary Graham

Third row: Thomas Wix, Manuel Buccola, Robert Rogers, David Rhodes, Allan Todd, Walter Flammond, Stanley Vera, Edward Caldwell

Sharing the lime-light in the journalism world was the school newspaper. Under the watchful eye of Mr. Ross, faculty advisor, and Jeff Durburrow, editor-in-chief, "The Panthers" kept the students posted on sports, extra-curricular activities, and other items of interest to the students of PHS. "The Panthers", appearing bi-weekly, did a splendid job throughout the year.

Sports and dances kept the social calendar full, but the majority of the time the students were to be found frantically pouring over their books. If it wasn't final exams that kept them busy, there were Senior class themes and assorted tests.

The dorms were especially lively as the students made good use of the spacious recreation hall for ping-pong, dancing, talking, or consuming the delicious hamburgers prepared by the Seniors each evening. For many of the members of the residents halls it was their first year away from home, but the veterans soon had them accustomed to signing in and having their lights out by ten o'clock. Showing their leadership, the Seniors took over some of the discipline by acting as monitors to alleviate the work of the supervisors.

The Christmas Dance brought a bit of dismay, but a bit of fun too, as it was canceled due to a hurricane. The evening found the students of the dormitory singing Christmas carols in the halls since the lights were cut off by the terrific wind. The dance was held a few nights later, and proved to be a great success, wilted flowers and all.

Other high-lights of the school year were the Student Council elections, which found Gary Graham in the top executive position, and the long jaunt made by the basketball team to the annual tournaments in Germany.

At last the end of the year — the Seniors had returned from a marvelous trip in London, exams were over, the yearbooks had arrived. In leaving Poitiers, we are proud to say that we have helped make her first year a good one. May her success continue.

VERDUN

we wouldn't think we'd like it then. No, everything was so different, so new. No customs, traditions, no school memories of a past year to sweeten the beginning of a new one.

No shouts of "Hey, think we can beat Poitiers again this year?" or "Gee, it's good to see the gang again." Some of us were a little bitter, perhaps, because of the rough upheaval in our otherwise well-ordered lives. We complained, grumbled, and compared our present "miserable" state with the better days that had been. We held our former schools up as perfect examples which could never be paralleled. We recognized our task, though. We dug right in. We named our school, we established our customs, we stored up wonderful memories for future reference. We set about the job of showing that American youth in a foreign land is indicative of the spirit of democracy. We had our failures right along with our successes. We learned to deal with each in the proper way. We watched the two-way stream of students and benefited from the gifts of themselves which they had to offer, and only prayed that they, too, upon leaving would take with them a part of us. Looking back on it all now, we can say that it was fun. It was a great challenge true, but like all Americans faced with a difficult task, it was no challenge so great that it couldn't be met and conquered. Now when people say "How do you like Verdun?" we can say with pride, "We like it. It's our school. We put it in operation, and we are proud of our accomplishment."

WÜRZBURG

THE AMERICAN STUDENT IN WÜRZBURG IS GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY WHICH MANY WEALTHY, PROMINENT, AND IMPORTANT PEOPLE IN THE UNITED STATES NEVER OBTAIN. THAT, OF COURSE, IS THE ABILITY TO FURTHER THEIR KNOWLEDGE OF THE WORLD AROUND THEM. THIS MAY NOT SEEM IMPORTANT NOW, BUT LATER ON IN LIFE IT WILL BECOME AN ASSET. THIS ASSET IS THE UNDERSTANDING OF PEOPLE AND CUSTOMS OF OTHER NATIONS. FURTHERMORE, THERE IS A GREAT SENSATION THAT COMES FROM SEEING THAT WHICH WOULD OTHERWISE BE READ FROM A BOOK. THE AMERICAN STUDENT MAY PROSPER BY THIS IN GAINING A FULLER AND RICHER KNOWLEDGE OF LIFE.

The fountain was erected in 1894, representing Frankonia with the Würzburg flag. The figures are: Minstrel (knight errant) Walther Von Der Vogelweide, whose tomb is behind the Neumünster Church (died about 1212), the famous painter Mathias Neithard, called Gruenewald (16th century) and finally Frankonia's best known artist in wood sculpture Tilman Riemenschneider (15th to the 16th century).
