Yearbook Staff Captures Essence

This year's publications class, under the supervision of Mrs. Bair, once again showed the ability of a group of motivated students to perform well under pressure. Not only did the class produce the yearbook, but they also conducted the school's picture program, published a literary magazine and compiled a newspaper every two weeks.

All the students in the class worked hard on the various projects, and despite the frazzled nerves and shortened tempers, all deadlines were met and a high level of humor was maintained throughout the year.

Bearin' Down Staff Reports BAHS Student Happenings

Coffin's Camera Club Focuses In On School Developments

This year as an addition to the BAHS club and organizations a camera club was established. Among the club's activities in the 82-83 S/Y there were classes in black and white developing and printing, slide printing, color printing, and lighting technique. As the grand finale the group took a tour to try out their newly gained skills. Among the more experienced members were Rod Kennard and Martin Dunham, president and vice-president respectively.

Under Mr. Long's Aegis, Jr. High Congress Flourishes

This year the Student Congress has played an active role in school activities. They have entertained the elderly. The annual Spelling Bee was under their auspices. There was much student participation in their events. The Junior High Congress held monthly meetings at which all plans were made. The officers of the Congress were:

President: Jeff Hoss
Vice-President: William Yancey
Treasurer: Josh Sexton
Cabinet Member 8th: Carlyle Norman
Cabinet Member 8th: Perry Grunewald

Student Council Brings Spirit to BAHS

This year the Student Council was successful in all of its major endeavors. The Homecoming spirit week was organized by the Student Council along with other organizations throughout the school. Before Christmas vacation, the Student Council took on their second challenge, the annual American Community Service Can Drive. The purpose of this event was for the students of the high school to collect cans and send them to less fortunate families in Poland. This happening was a terrific success! The Student Council also had to coordinate the visit of Vice President George Bush. Along with these events the Student Council had many other activities throughout the year.

The Executive Board of Student Council consists of the officers, along with the two sponsors. It was their responsibility to make sure that all activities went well.

Upper House and Lower House Represent BAHS

The Upper House of the Student Council consists of the 7-12 grade class officers. Each of these officers had the responsibility to report back to their respective classes on happenings in the school. All the class officers were elected at the beginning of this school year and these were the members who devoted their time to chairing the certain committees. It was their leadership which enabled the Student Council to perform the way it did.

The Lower House of the Student Council was made up of all the homeroom representatives, who were elected from each homeroom at the beginning of this year.

It was their task to keep their homerooms informed. It was this link that kept the students aware of council activities.

Outpost of Freedom Chapter of NHS Recognizes Scholars

The National Honor Society is composed of students who show not only high academic ability, but show character, service, leadership, and scholarship (the qualifications necessary to be an Honor Society member) as well. Each NHS member must have a 3.2 grade point average or better for one whole year to be eligible for induction, and must maintain at least a 3.0 average to stay in the NHS.

Inductions are held two or three times a year, giving each student in grades ten through twelve the opportunity to receive the honor of entering the NHS.

Mr. Mark Coffin sponsors the National Honor Society, giving up much of his time to organize many activities pertaining to the NHS. The officers this year are Elizabeth Waldrop, President, Peter Boatner, Vice President, and Cyndie Duckett, Secretary/Treasurer.

National Junior Honor Society Donates Time and Money

Mr. Long was faculty sponsor for the National Junior Honor Society. The officers were Fleming Jones, President, Jeff Hoss, Vice President, Julie Seymour, Treasurer, and Tanya Knight, Secretary.

The N.J.H.S. gave a 300 dollar scholarship to a graduating senior who is a member of the N.H.S. They also gave 180 dollars to a needy person from Indonesia.

Inductions were held during the first and third quarters for those students who have attended B.A.H.S. for half a year and have had a 3.2 grade point average for a whole year. Members must also maintain a 3.0 average to remain in the N.J.H.S.

This 1982-83 season produced another successful Drill Team. The Drill Team was composed of twelve girls who were chosen after a crucial tryout at the beginning of the school year. Other girls were numbered alternates, who got to perform when another member was absent for some reason, or dropped out.

The Drill Team performed at all home football and basketball games and at the wrestling meets, using gloves or doing a pompom routine.

The Drill Team was coached by Mrs. Lois Ahrens, who put in many hours of her own time to choreograph the dance routines for the girls. The teacher sponsor was Mrs. Williams, who managed most of the financial situations that came up.

The Drill Team members who performed for both football and basketball seasons received a "B" certificate, a "boot" type letter, and a Drill Team plaque.

Bluem's MUN Class Travels to Hague for Debates

Model United Nations Class once again took to the roads of Europe as a group of delegates furthering debate, communications, and relations between the model countries they represent. Members of the class serve as ambassadors to various nations. They support their nation's policies, debate on current issues, and attempt to pass resolutions to their advantage.

The highlight of this year was a trip to the MUN assembly held annually at the Hague, Netherlands. Students from all over the world travel there to learn and work in an environment patterned after the real United Nations Council. Students from Berlin served on the Cameroon and Byelorussia delegations. The class also made a trip to Zweibruecken for a debate, and Heidelberg for the Mock Security Council.

As Extension of Students' Classroom Activities

Drama Club Brings a Touch of Theatrical

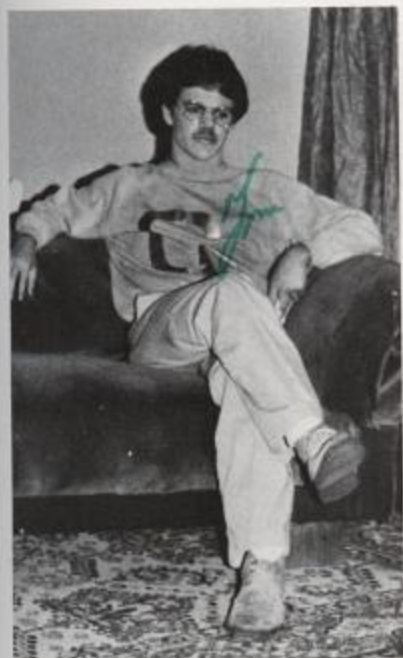

Once again, this year's Drama Club, under Mrs. Beech's able guidance, proved to be one of the most involved organizations in the school.

They began the year with a production of the three-act play, God's Favorite. This success was followed by the holiday performance of Christmas on Angel Street, a marvelous story co-produced with the music department. They struggled to present a weekly radio-theater drama with the help of Jerry Curry and AFN. Also, the spring one-act play presentations drew a great deal of interest, and travel to the annual Drama Fest gave the members a chance to use their own creativity in dramatic areas.

Both Bands Thrive and Extend Community Involvement

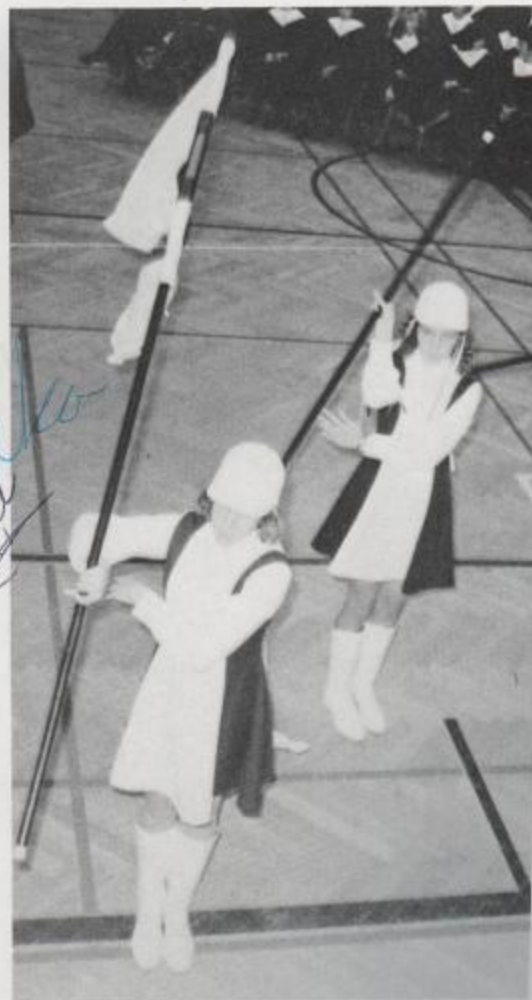

BAHS' Concert and Intermediate Band started the year with a bang at the Fall Concert under the direction of Dr. Ray Lindsey.

This was the first of a large variety of programs put on by the Band throughout the year. In January they played at the ICC for the Reynolds Tobacco Company, and in February for the Vice President of the United States.

Dr. Ray Lindsey and a select number of band students traveled down to Bonn to participate in the Honors Festival. They also participated in the Symposium of Performing Arts in Austerholz in April. The annual Spring Concert was also held in May and they topped the year off by representing all the Department of Defense schools in Wiesbaden.

Under the Masterful Direction of Dr. Ray Lindsey

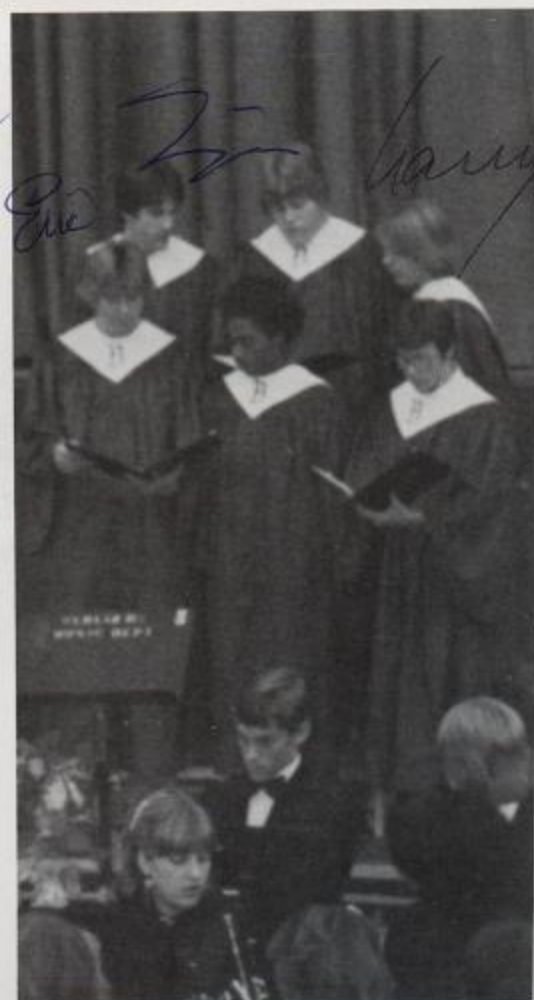

Advanced and Junior Vocalists Throw Open

The Concert Choir and Crescendo Choir, expertly directed by Mrs. Cleveland, a new addition to Berlin American High School, showed us their harmonious talent in such programs as the Spring and Fall concerts, and the Christmas musical, Christmas on Angel Street. Thirteen of our Concert Choir members were chosen to attend the Honors Festival in Bonn, and many were also chosen to sing at the Symposium of Performing Arts (S.O.P.A.), in Osterholtz. Our Concert and Crescendo Choir as a whole, not only performed for the student body at the High School, but also sang at the Rathaus Schoneburg. The chorus ended a fine year of melodious singing when they sang at the 1983 Senior class graduation.

Putt Patrol Helps With Important Errands

This year's Putt Patrol was sponsored by Mr. Long.

The Putt Patrol's duties are the following: to pick up trash in the hallways, return musical instruments to the music room, return library books to the LRC, return PE equipment to the gym, return trays to the cafeteria, return school supplies to the Lost and Found, and to report all damages to the main office secretary.

Each Putt Patrol member carries a permanent pass which is good for the period he works.

After completing one semester as a Putt Patrol member, he will receive a "B" certificate, a letter from the sponsor stating that he has performed his duties well, a picture in the yearbook (obviously), and if time allows the Putt Patrol members take a trip at the end of the school year. This trip usually has something to do with ecology.

The Putt Patrol members provide a great service to the school.

Monitors Discipline Students in Hallways

The 1982-83 Hall Monitors patrolled their hallways, and brought discipline and safety throughout the school.

Every week the monitors were assigned a certain station, where they remained for that entire week, after which they were transferred to another station.

Every three to four weeks the Hall Monitors had their rank increased, if their job was properly done.

The Hall Monitors were on patrol during the first lunch period, and since it was their lunch period, they were allowed to eat at their duty stations as long as this privilege wasn't abused.

Whenever a Hall Monitor was taken advantage of in one way or another, he would write out an incident report and give it to the section OIC. The section OIC then gave it to Mr. Chavies or Mr. Stowell.

The Hall Monitors who successfully completed three nine-week periods of duty received a Service Award at the end of the school year.

Jr. High Gyp Joint Raises Money for Projects

The Junior High Gyp Joint this year raised a great deal of money, that contributed to many important causes.

The Gyp Joint consisted of seventh and eighth grade students, who sold candy and school supplies, among other things, in the Bear's Den, during the first lunch period.

Of the total sum of money that was made in the Gyp Joint, three to four hundred dollars is given to a senior as a scholarship. They also donate large sums of money to the Christian Children's Fund and the Heifer Project International.

The rest of the earnings are spent amongst themselves in activities such as the seventh and eighth grade spelling bees with trophies and prizes. If time and money allow, the Gyp Joint members take a trip near the end of the school year.

The Gyp Joint is one of the few Junior High activities that most seventh and eighth graders can say they have contributed to.

Coin and Stamp Club Traders and Sells

The Coin and Stamp Club is open to all students, grades seven to twelve, who like coins and stamps. The club members met on Fridays after school in Room A8, the classroom of Mr. Long, the club sponsor. As Mr. Long put it, "The main purpose of this organization is to give the students interested in coins and stamps a chance to trade and sell them."

The Coin and Stamp Club was fortunate to receive guest speakers from around the community on special occasions. These speakers would guide the students into what to look for when buying, trading, or selling coins and stamps and, most importantly, they explained ways to avoid getting ripped off.

The Coin and Stamp Club was fun as well as enriching for those involved.

Outstanding Seniors Recognized in "Who's Who"

In an effort to recognize the Seniors who have contributed the most overall to the school, the Publications Class and the faculty and staff worked together to form a Senior Who's Who.

First, the Guidance Department identified the Seniors with the top eighteen grade point averages (the ones with an average of 3.0 and above). Then, questionnaires were sent to the teachers, administrators, counselors, advisors, directors, and coaches, who were asked to choose the ten students whom they felt were the best all-around, and rate them in order of preference.

Their results were tallied, and the top ten were found.

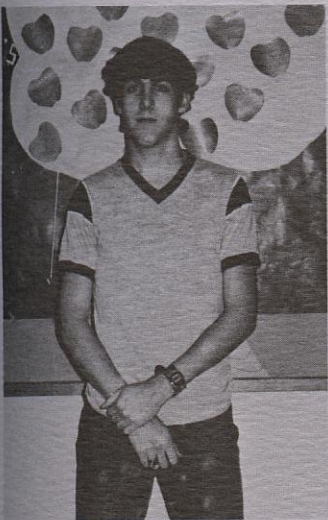

The final list includes student leaders, scholars, artists, musicians, and athletes, and lists students who can be seen involving themselves in dozens of activities essential to day-to-day student life. These Seniors represent some of the best characteristics of this year's Senior Class, and it is hoped that they will be as successful in later life as they have been at Berlin American High School.

Debbie — True love is something never forgotten; if it is, then it was never true love.

Larry — There is no cure for life and death, save to enjoy the interval.

Rod — "To try may be to fail, but not to care is never to be born." William Redfield

Frank — It's now or never

Wardi — Nin ayku hadbay ayay hawli haysaa.

Laurie — A flower is always a flower, no matter where it grows.

Tim — "These are the seasons of emotion
And like the wind they rise and fall
This is the wonder of devotion —
I see the torch we all must hold
This is the mystery of the quotient —
Upon us all a little rain must fall." Led Zeppelin

Marcia — "Then come the wild weather, come sleet or come snow, we will stand by each, however it blow." Simon Dach
This is dedicated to my best friend, Barbara Petullo.

Brian — My school years have been like a clock; the years just tick by.

Loren — One can be knowledgeable with others' knowledge, but one cannot be wise with another's wisdom.

Tom — Do not accept the world with all of its faults and shortcomings, rather, strive to make it the way it should be.

Craig — You cannot lead anyone farther than you have gone yourself.

Farida — Those who love deeply never grow old, they may die of old age but they die young.

Robert — Running: the ultimate experience in my life.

Dan — If at first you don't succeed, quit! There's no sense in making a fool of yourself.

Dave — That's life.

Mark — "When I was a child I caught a fleeting glimpse of the corner of my eye, I turned to look but it was gone, I can put my finger on it now, the child is grown, the dream gone." Floyd

Mark

Cathy — Thank you Mom for always standing beside me and being there to pick me up when I fell. I love you!

*Cyndie — The thing that goes the farthest Towards making life worth while
That costs the least and does the most
Is just a pleasant smile.*

Kevvy — My thanks to Beth, Pete, and especially Tim for making my years at BAHS wonderful — best wishes to them and to the greatest class ever at BAHS: the Class of '83!

*Patty — To love is just a state of mind, but to care is the real challenge.
Thanks for everything Mom & Dad, I love you very much.*

Elizabeth — "The only way to have a friend is to be one." Emerson

*Doug — Thanks Mom and Dad for all the support and guidance over the last 12 years.
Thanks to everyone for everything.*

Debbie — Nothing is more powerful than dreams, except for Love and Hope which makes them come true.

Kenda — "If at first you don't succeed . . ." would never have been possible without "A friend in need . . ." — thanks to everyone for the friendship, love, encouragement, and faith even when I'd lost it myself: Mom & Dad, Mrs. "B", Mr. Sennett, Suzanne, Cyndie, Nona, Deb, David, Robert, and especially Dave! I love you all! & Connie B.!

Brenda — Most of the mistakes of our lives come from feeling when we ought to think, and thinking when we ought to feel.

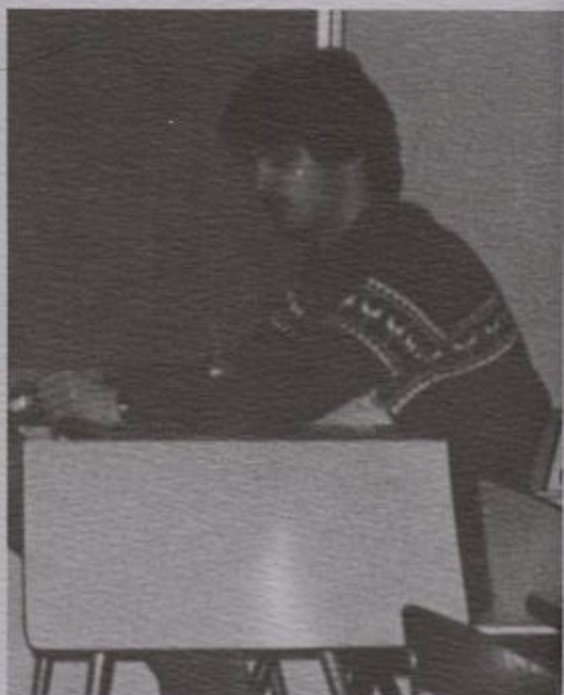

Jennifer — If one believes in their dream, it shall come true . . . But one must strive for their goal and truly believe in themselves and believe in life itself!

Moose — You may make fun of the way I dress, the way I live, my kind of music, or the way I plan my life, but let me tell you this my friend, I have traditions and a heritage, and buddy, I am just as proud of mine as any other man.

Deb — Friendship is unnecessary, like philosophy, like art . . . It has no survival value; rather, it is one of those things that give value to survival. Thanks Rae Ann.

Darren — "If a little knowledge is dangerous where is the man who has so much as to be out of danger?" T.H. Huxley

Dave — going through life is like sight reading a sheet of audition music. It starts off simple and the more you accomplish the more complicated it becomes. And when finished you look back at your accomplishments and realize that it wasn't as difficult as you first thought it to be.

John — Life is a bummer; But it's time for summer.

Yhosbekia — I've come too far to end it here, Though life be hard, I'll persevere.

Barbara — "While it is well enough to leave footprints on the sands of time, it is even more important to make sure they point in a commendable direction." James Branch Cabell Thanks Marcia! Our friendship means a lot.

Beth — Seek beyond the path given you. Create your dream and grasp it. You alone are the leader of your life. Make your choice — and believe.

Clem — Your Senior year is the year you will remember the most so make it a good year, not a bad year.

Renee — I discovered the secret of the sea in meditation of a dewdrop.

Sunday — To err is human.

George — It's your last year, make the most of it, you have the rest of your life.

John — Remember, with the right amount of love, trust, and loyalty, a friendship can become an everlasting bondage.

Connie — Beauty without the beloved is like a sword through the heart.

William — I feel whatever you do in life, you should do it to the best of your ability and because you want to, not because someone else wants you to.

Cindy — I have walked down an aisle to end my childhood life, now I must walk down another aisle to begin a new life.

Pete — School's two-face climb is finally over; Life's downward slip has now begun.

Ray — Life is a journey through time which you can only go through once.

Eric — It's been awesome,

Stephan — "We Germans fear God, but nothing else in the world!" Otto von Bismark

Michael — Man is the measure of all things.

Laura — It's been "wonderful" these past school years. I just want to thank two people I love very much: my Mom and Dad.

Debbie — Morgens ein Joint und er Tag ist dein Freund.

James — "Ignorance and Prejudice and Fear Walk hand in hand." Neil Peart

Jon — To all upcoming Seniors I hope you reach all your goals in life and may God Bless you.

Kris — Whatever the mind can conceive and believe it can achieve.

Renae (Berge) — Don't take life too seriously, some day you're going to look back on it all and laugh. Good luck Seniors!

Erik (Brush) — There are many powers in the world, but all are governed by the two greatest urges of man, the urge to create and the urge to destroy. Do not let either draw you to the dark side of life. It's hard to escape.

Michele (Dawson) — A child is an island of curiosity surrounded by a sea of question marks.

Elain (Hammerstad) — Live life to its fullest, and try for the best each and every day.

Bobby Jr. (Harrell) — I'm so far behind I always think I'm first.

Steven (Horvath) — the year eighty-three will always live in infamy.

Bubbles (Juris) — I wonder sometimes: Why me? But I made it anyway, Mom!

Mr. Magoo (Norman) — I'm glad I'm graduating this year and I've had fun this school year. I like all my teachers.

Stephanie (Pugh) —
If you love something, set it free
If it comes back it's yours
If it doesn't it never was.

SENIORS

Berlin American High School boasted one of its finest Senior classes ever during school year 1982-83.

Under the superior leadership and direction of the Senior Class officers, Laura Morgan, Marcia Spohn, and Beth Deasy, and sponsors, Mrs. Tiberghin and Mr. Wieland, the class could be well described as one having a special character all its own, with many different sides of the Seniors being shown.

It was a rather divided class in itself, as there were those who participated in just about everything possible, and those who were content to sit back and be spectators of the performances played.

Not an activity or sport went by without the Seniors being involved, showing their skills and talents, and being examples for the underclassmen to follow.

Seniors of '83

Twelve years of education are behind us and now it is time for us to depart. We have been prepared for life's unknown by our teachers, friends, and family. We can only reflect on our past experiences, look to the future with open eyes and minds and reach for the highest stars. We, as graduates, from high school, hold the key to the future. We thank all those who have played important roles in our lives and who have brought us this far.

D.L.K.

"Every man who rises above the common level has received two educations; the first from his teachers; the second, more personal and important, from himself."

Edward Gibbon

To Cathy Davis

Being my first born there were a lot of trials and errors in raising you, Cathy. To sum it up, the experience of your growth was like baking a cake. There were times the cake fell in the oven because I didn't put in the right ingredients, but now in your life we have the correct measurements of all the good things that make a perfect life. Cathy, you're baked and ready to be served. With God's help, you are my finished product.

I love you and God Bless,
MOM

You were born — what JOY!
A beautiful, kind, red-headed boy.
You grew and learned and had such fun
And always you were a special son.
An Eagle Scout you became,
And we expect there will be yet greater a claim.
In sports you excel,
In school you have done well.
Now as you graduate — your parents with you rejoice,
And are proud of their son's choice.
Go forward with highest aspiration,
Seeking always spiritual inspiration.
You will exceed in whatever you do
Your parents have heartfelt love for you.

The Senior Class is parting now and we're supposed to be sad
But the thought of them not being around anymore
Is making us all very glad.

It must be because the Junior Class is rising to the top
And we know the seniors thought they were cool
But really they were not.

And our great school will be run,
we promise, like never before
Because the senior class next year

BERLIN OFFICERS' AND CIVILIANS CLUB

We would like to take this opportunity to thank a very fine group of young people, the busboys and busgirls of the Class of 1983 for their outstanding contributions while employed at the Harnack House during the past year.

As a result of their dedication to duty and personal involvement, the operation of this club has reached a level of quality which is considered the best of any US Army Officers' Club in Europe.

As you enter a new phase of your life, be it to continue your formal education or to dedicate yourselves to other meaningful endeavors, we would like to share with you an excerpt of Ralph Waldo Emerson's writings:

"Write it in your heart that every day is the best day in the year. He is rich who owns the day and no one owns the day who allows it to be invaded with fret and anxiety. Finish every day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and absurdities, no doubt, crept in. Forget them as soon as you can, tomorrow is a new day: begin it well and serenely with too high a spirit to be combered with your old nonsense. The new day is too dear with it's hopes and invitations to waste a moment on the yesterdays."

On behalf of the management and staff, we would like to extend our sincere appreciation to all of you for your contributions to the Harnack House. May the stars be your guiding light for the future with the hopes for a better and peaceful world.
