And, so we say “Goodbye” . . .

Tim Brandt — Goodbye cruel world,
I'm leaving you today. Goodbye. Goodbye. Goodbye.
Goodbye all you people, there's nothing you can say
To make me change my mind. Goodbye.

Vonda Calbert — I'd like to thank my mom, dad, grandma, and the rest of the family. They really supported me. I'd like to dedicate all my love to Shane and my best friend, Chaene. Love ya.

Brian Cooper — I'd like to say “thank you” to my parents for their support and love through the past 18 years. I also would like to thank Jim and Bonnie Lynch for taking me in so that I could graduate here with my friends. Donald, Tracy, and Eric, I'll miss you guys a lot. Keep in touch!

Richard Courtney — Thanks Mom, Dad, and all my friends for pushing me all the way through school, because I would have lost hope without you.

Paul Coyle — It's stupid to build your life on guarantees and to live on your insecurities. Take a chance and dream a little.

Calli Fuller — Thanks, Mom for helping me to be the best I possibly can be and still letting me be myself. And Dad, thanks for all the new and interesting things you've introduced me to over the years. And Gretchen, I could never have survived without you. Remember solving the problems of the world. You will always be my best friend.

Donald Geimer — I want to thank my parents for their love and support, you guys are great and I love you. Tina — I only want to say one thing to you — I LOVE YOU! Boomer and Spartacus — I'll never forget the great times in Berlin!!! Keep in touch!

Justin Hadley — Thank you, Mom and Dad, for all the encouragement and caring you have shown throughout the years.

Jenny Hoffman — My high school years have been trying as well as exciting. Mom, Dad, David, and Kish, thank you for supporting and helping me, even though you may not have agreed with me. I love You.

To my friends and the class of 1988 — always remember to hold your chin up and keep smiling. Good Luck in your future.

Darin Hunt — Well I know where I'm going, but I don't know where I've been,
And I know what I'm knowin', but I can't say what I've seen,
And I know what I want, and my future is certain,
Give me time to work it out.
Gracias Mom, Dad, Michelle, and Pooh —
And all the little "Pilgrims" who Made my future possible.
Danke, Liebling, für alles; ich liebe Dich.

William Inman — Thank you, Dad and Jean, for your love and support. You are the two most wonderful parents and I couldn't ask for any better. As I step out on my own, the knowledge and "know-how" you taught me will guide me to great heights. I love you both. And, good luck to my little brother. Kevin, you're going places. Never give up.

Bojana Marinkovic — I want to thank all my teachers for giving me a proper education and most of all, my parents for being there when I needed them the most.

Elizabeth Chantle Marshall — Thanks to my parents and friends for all the support and love you've given me through the years. And, a special thanks to Teresa Phoenix and Arthur Williams for always being there when I needed you the most.

Dusty Marvin — I would like to express my love to my parents and to thank them for all of the support and guidance that they have given me throughout my life.

Dan Moroney — I would like to thank my parents, my brother, and my sister. They have set the example for me and encouraged me to do my best. Thanks.

Tina Poteet — Thanks to all of my friends for being there throughout the years. A special thanks to Donald and my parents for all of the support and love you've given me!

Christine Radziminski — Thanks to all my friends who supported me at B.A.H.S. I'll miss all of you. Good luck to wherever it is you go. I hope all of you succeed in reaching your personal goal.

Michelle Repine — As you slide down the banister of life — remember me as the splinter.

Erica Riddick — Thanks to my friends, and especially my family, for that "extra go ahead". To the class of 1988 — Enjoy life and fill it with much happiness and success. Special thanks to you all.

Caroline Roche — I don't have time to name everyone in my large family, but thanks to all for the laughs and good times. A special thanks to Jennifer Norris for putting up with me for three years, and thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Norris for their support. Good luck to the class of 1988.

Emily Schachinger — I would like to thank my husband, John, for being so supportive and my good friend, Julie Lance, for always being there for me. Thank you both.

Kirk Slobody — As we learn the difference between Rights and Wrongs,
We find out that our parents were usually right and
We were the ones wrong.

Shawn Steele — I'd like to give thanks to the two most wonderful parents. I can't say they made me work hard, but they didn't let me quit. Just one more thing, Mom, please lift the curse off of me. I don't want to have a son just like me. And, thanks to my great and loving grandfather — you made my life worthwhile. I love you all!

Jason Vasquez — Thank you Mom, Dad, and Shilo for all your support and love. Without you, my high school years wouldn't have been as successful. I love you. I would like to thank my teachers for enlightening me and giving me strength for the future.

Scott Wagner — Thanks for everything Mom and Dad — Dare Bear, Shag, and Piney — I'll miss you!

Gretchen Wendt — Mom and Daddy — Thanks for showing me what love is, and for trusting me. I'm trying to live up what I've already attained. And Calli, Bud, yes — I do remember solving the problems of the world-vaguely. I love you!

Dan Moroney

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I
To where it bent in the undergrowth

Then took the other, as just as
And having perhaps the better
Because it was grassy and
Though as for that, the passing
Had worn them really about

And both that morning equal
In leaves no step had trodden
Oh, I kept the first for another
Yet knowing how way leads to
I doubted if I should ever

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence
Two roads diverged in a wood
I took the one less traveled by
And that has made all the difference

The faculty of Berlin American High School
wishes the departing graduates
good luck and much success on the road of life ahead.
