Every day, individuals use tickets, a train ticket, a lunch ticket, a movie ticket, or the unforgettable special, long awaited concert ticket. With this often small piece of paper, doors are opened to necessities or to utter enjoyment.

Used but once, tickets hold the memories of fun filled times, of experiences never to be forgotten. Because of a ticket, dreams can become reality for the ticket bearer creating what is only imaginable until the door opens. Then before us is the memory waiting to be created. This year's BERLINER is your ticket to peer into a year full of memories.

We can all remember standing in an airport somewhere, holding ticket and boarding pass in hand, waiting to climb aboard the flight that would carry us into the walled city. Because of this carbon-filled ticket, we would be given the opportunity to see first hand what most only see on the printed page. Our eyes would be able to gaze upon Berlin and its history, its top: Kaiser William Memorial Church middle: Brandenburg Gate bottom: Russian War Memorial structures remaining from the past and its struggles reaching for the future and for freedom.

With identification card or ticket in hand, we board the U-Bahn or bus and journey downtown to the Kurfurstendamm, the main thoroughfare, alive with action and movement. Before us is the Europa-Center, shop and restaurant filled. From there we stroll through an area of Berlin once leveled by allied air raids during W.W. II. The most predominant structure that captures our eyes is the Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church, a skeletal remain from the pre-war period. Encrusted with gold, its clock beats the seconds of both the past and the future of Berlin. Here surrounding the relic, is one of the major shopping centers of Europe, lined with shops for all, with something for everyone.

top: Tempelhof Central Airport middle: Airlift Memorial bottom: Checkpoint Charlie everyone.

Moving away from the famed "Kudamm," we discover the Tiergarten; history old and new, thrives in this area. Built between 1788-1791, the Brandenburg Gate, once the gate to the heart of the city, sits isolated meters within the iron curtain. Still domeless, is the Reichstag Building, once the seat of German Empire's Parliament. Partially destroyed by fire towards the end of the war, the Reichstag was restored between 1957 and 1971. At the end of the Victory Column, the Charlottenburg Palace catches our eyes with its aristocratic yellow tint of royalty. Once the summer residence of queen Sophia Charlotte, it now serves as a gallery and museum.

But Berlin not only has palaces, but also buildings of major modern-day significance. We can see the Olympic Stadium, where Jesse Owens won four gold medals under the spiteful eye of Adolf Hitler. We can see the Schöneburg Town Hall, where John F. Kennedy gave his famous "Ich bin ein Berliner" speech. In Kleist Park, the old court house, now the Berlin Air Safety Center Building, echoes with the trials presented before the Nationalist People's Court, against those who tried to assassinate Adolf Hitler. We can see Tempelhof Central Airport, once the central airport for the city, that now serves as the facility for the Air Force. At Tempelhof, we see the Airlift Memorial, paying tribute to the allies that risked or lost their lives during the Berlin Airlift between June 26, 1948 and September 30, 1949. Every ninety

top: Reichstag Building middle: Statue in the Tiergarten bottom: Freedom Bridge

seconds, an allied aircraft landed on the runway at Tempelhof; in all delivering 1.8 million tons of food and 16,000 tons of industrial supplies to sustain the city's life-line.

But there is more to Berlin than the relics of an unpleasant war. There are dense forests with miles of paths, including 32 square miles of the Grunewald or "Green Forest." Dark, rich green pines line the paths that lead to lakes such as the Schlachtensee and Krumme Lanke. The most popular is the Wansee, with endless recreation possibilities.

With that ticket and boarding pass, the door to endless opportunity opened, allowing us to do far more than peer into a fascinating city surrounded by a wall. This yearbook is the ticket to peer into a year of endless memories of the 1988-1989 school year.

Well guys, we are almost there! Just a step away! Behind us though, we will leave all the memories we created through our Junior year in school. I hope that they were the best of memories. Powder Puff was a lot of fun, and no matter what, we will be the champs next year. We really came together and helped each other out through all those hard times and laughed together through the good ones. Fundraisers were fun! The car wash was wet and wild! May there be many more in the future. May all of the Juniors of 1989 stick together for another year, our Senior year, and help to make that year just as good as this one has been. Congratulations on all of your accomplishments!

VICTORY over all other CLASSMEN!!

Secretary Nicole Clayton

The Freshmen Class was full of school spirit this year. Under the leadership of its energetic president, Peter Velazquez, the class was able to win the Cafeteria Decorations for Spirit Week held in October. Also the Class of '92 provided a terrific Valentine's Dance and sold Candy Grams to go with the occasion. We know that in the next three years, the Class of '92 will show the same enthusiasm, and will succeed in all their goals!

Student Council is the voice of democracy for students here at BAHS. None of this however would have been possible, without the respect, guidance, and patience of our advisor and friend, (and sometimes our mother,) Mrs. Fran Talbot.

Early Grads

Ms. Denecke anxiously awaits a piece of cake being cut by Mrs. Norris.

Congratulations!!
Early Graduation,
February 1, 1989

Top row: Tony Fergus, Cherif Hanafi. Middle Row: Jennifer Fullerton, Lacie Mabe, Maria Iranzo. Bottom Row: Richard Rapp, Lavanya Doddamani. Not pictured: Tomorah Lynn Mosconi.

Richard stares at his diploma, thankful that it is all over.

Jennifer and her parents smile while reading a congratulations card.

Eldred Ramtahal and Earl McDonald congratulate Tony Fergus. (Actually, Eldred came for the cake!!)

National Honor Society

Members are: Bottom Row: Soato Kume, Ashley English, Lavanya Doddamani. 2nd Row: Fazeela Morshed, Bethany Knapp, Kathleen Hildenbrand, Denise Hipkind. 3rd Row: Kim Vroom, Sonja Pepoy, Erik Caldwell, Alisa Sowers. 4th Row: David Sagor, Andrew Feutz, Wendy Niz, Art Swanson. Top: Greg Hall. Not pictured: Lori Barnett, Scott Brady, Jennifer French, Gary Giger, Wendy Stiver, and Kara Talbot.

National Honor Society, whose members are chosen for their scholarship, leadership, character, and service to the school, began its new school year by acquainting new students with Berlin American High School. Starting this off, they had an induction ceremony this winter at the American Community Chapel. To be in NHS, you must have at least a 3.2 grade point average. The president of this chapter is Scott Brady, Vice President is Ashley English, Secretary is Sato Kume, and Treasurer is Kara Talbot.

Members brainstorm for more service project ideas.

Sato, Mrs. Knapp, and Ashley display the NHS banner.

Everyday is MUN-day

Model United Nations (MUN) sent ten students to represent BAHS at the Hague International Model United Nations (thimun). They traveled as the Qatar Delegation, a small Arab League country in the Persian Gulf. The Qatar Delegation discussed questions such as the ban of Chemical and Biological Weapons, the debt crisis, famine relief, Namibia, etc. . . . Mr. Blum, sponsor, when asked earlier this year what he wanted from the delegation he said, "I expect them to have their resolutions in order, to have done their research, to be psyched up, and with these things, then they'll have done their job."

BAHS VOTES BUSH

Press correspondents Peter Jennings and Bernard Shaw played by Mike Stall and Greg Hall. Moderator Amy Ellis as herself.

Roberta Burden shows where her loyalty lies.

On October 27, 1988, 73% of the students who participated in the mock elections at BAHS cast their vote for Bush. Dukakis caught a meager 18% of the votes.

The election was part of a national mock election taking place in high schools throughout the United States, which overseas DODDS schools participated in as well.

Mr. Bluem, coordinator, sponsored an assembly in which the Republican and Democratic party candidates were represented by four high school students, who debated issues of concern before the presidential hopefuls. In addition to the debates and the election students were polled on their opinions in different subjects of national interest.

When faced with the question of tougher penalties for drug possession, 83% favored them with only 10% opposing. 83% also favored new government programs for the homeless while 7% were opposed to such a set up. Asked whether they felt the U.S. should aid the Contra rebels in Nicaragua, 48% were undecided, 23% said yes, and 29% felt we should not. Many thanks to Mr. Bluem, Mrs. Talbot, and all who helped to make this event possible.

Berlin Against Drugs groups together to form a Drug-Free environment for all at BAHS and in all of Berlin.

Berlin Against Drugs (BAD) was started this year with a trip to Stuttgart, where 11 BAHS students learned about the dangers of drugs and how to prevent their abuse and the destruction this abuse entails. After this, regular Monday meetings were established and plans made to raise money for the April trip to Atlanta, Georgia, where the next PRIDE Conference was held. Among the fund raising ideas were a Pie Throwing Raffle, Bake Sales, Car Washes, a Terrific Dance, etc. . . . We thank all those who supported a drug-free world and who will continue supporting a drug-free world!!!

COSMETOLOGY

Erin and Apple get into the cut of things.

This year the Cosmetology classes (divided into three main areas: Hair, Nails, and Personal Development) went far. The nails classes gave free manicures and pedicures. The hair classes shampooed and premed hair (on dummies and real models) Personal Development put on a fashion show in January for the community to see how talented the 13 young ladies who performed for the show are out on stage. Also the fashion show provided the opportunity to use classroom experience in such areas as nails, hair and make-up. Mrs. Ratliff said she was quite satisfied and that the fashion show was a success as it had never been before.

I finally got my hair just the right way thanks to BAHS COSMETOLOGY!

Letisia concentrates on finding just the right part to comb away.

Karen and Maria are caught in another hairy situation while looking for just the right cut!

Drama Club

The BAHS Drama Club got a fresh start this year with the arrival of Mr. Robbins, the new Drama teacher. the club's first performances were three one-act plays: Interview, This Property is Condemned, and The Happy Journey to Trenton and Camden. The people participating in these plays were: Tasha Bunnell, Sarah Coggins, Cat Curry, Amy Ellis, Gary Giger, Cathy Houston, Greg Hubbell, Thomas Lint, Chris Moore, Kimberly Newcomer, Kevin Steinman, Michelle Tuell, and George Worthington.

The Drama Club also sent some actors to the Drama Fest in Frankfurt, which lasted from March 12-15.

The purpose of the 17th AJROTC Battalion is to teach cadets to become better citizens. AJROTC strives to increase a cadet's academic and leadership abilities. Outstanding cadets are placed in leadership roles which allow them to exercise their potential and learn to be responsible for their own actions. AJROTC places great emphasis on citizenship, leadership, and responsibility as these qualities are necessary in both military and civilian life.

The Concert Band at BAHS had a very busy schedule this year! Starting off, the band cheered their team on by playing at all the home football games. Also, in the fall, they had a fall formal concert on November 8 in the gym. In December the band played familiar Christmas songs, which everyone enjoyed. On April 19, Concert Band had their spring concert. Not too long after that, the band members played at the TCA Open House. At Graduation the band members played for the seniors.

SOPA stands for the Symposium on Performing Arts. Students auditioned for this in December. The students from Berlin who made SOPA are Steve Barnett and John Marsh on the trumpet, Tom Lint on the tuba, Sonja Pepoy and Michelle Tuell playing flute, Keith Armstrong on the alto saxophone, Carmen Ramsey and Roberta Burden on the clarinet, and Antjuan Cunningham the tenor sax. SOPA was held in Berlin this year from Feb. 22-25, with a concert on the 25th.

A special recognition, that few students receive, is Honors Band, consisting of the most select members from all of DODD schools in Germany. The only band member from Berlin who made Honors Band was Kevin Steinman, he will be playing the trombone.

BANDS

Intermediate Band

The Intermediate Band this year has performed at their fall concert on November 1 and a Christmas concert. Their spring concert was filled with lively songs. This Band also performed with Concert Band at Graduation.

Intermediate band members: Carrie Bemis, Jennifer Christian, Jason Cleveland, Heidi Consaul, Keith Cottrill, Daniel Ellis, Joel Herard, Richard Brubaker, Christy Davis, Tommy Dorsey, Christy McKinney, Jason Mead, Shawn Mulligan, Stephen Parham, Jennifer Pecqueuer, Jarvis Roach, John Stephenson, Candy Weaver, Canetra, Tanya Woolridge.

Beginning Band Members: Donntel Bailey, Tamara Ball, Kinshaha Banks, Matthew Barnett, Kelly Brady, Matthew Calkins, Heather Clifford, Christopher Cloney, Orlando Colon, Robert Godwin, Kim Gonzales, William Grey, Darla Grice, Simon Huizar, Daniel Hall, Tomi Jones, Marris McKinnies, David Mitchell, Nathaniel Moore, Donald Ownby, Corry Perry, Kurt Talbot, Fred Titalii, Keri Piotrowski, Nicole Tuma, Amanda Vroman, David Peoples, Sekeyna Smith, K. Washington

Beginning band has also had a very busy year. This class played at the Christmas Concert only months after learning how to play their instruments. This class also had another concert this spring.

THE

Dear Editor,

Where can I find hot news, exciting features, stimulating editorials and action packed sports? I've yet to figure it out.

Thanks,
Frustrated

Ms. Greer-sponsor

Dear Frustrated,

I've found the answer. Look inside the BAHS TIMES. Just reach inside your pocket and pull out a quarter and then you'll find school news, the sports events you never made it to because of the duty train, upcoming concerts and movie reviews. We'll save you money with our album reviews. We've even got cartoons, often in protest over events that concern the student body of BAHS. Each month or so the staff works hard to get the stories lined up so that we can get them out to you. We encourage you to write letters, and remember . . . it's your paper.

Sincerely,
the editor

Missing-Greg Hall and Kathleen Hildenbrand. Thanks A-Jay for taking the picture!!

ARCH! The pressure!

Robin is pooped after getting the paper put together.

Chris hunts and pecks on the typewriter.

Tey and Chris are happy campers as they race to meet their next deadline. Clarence and Candice both smile as another page comes off the printer. Ms. Greer, Lynn, Jenny, Clarence, and Ken all smile while attending the Journalism Conference held in Neurnberg in November.

Richard is showing the signs of wear and tear, and even the weekend warrior can not take much more of this.

Kenn Brubaker rushes off to get that perfect shot.

ENGLAND TRIP

On November 10th, thirteen bleary eyed students joined Mr. Schmoll on the annual England Trip leaving via the Duty Train. With stops all across southern England, they got an overall picture of England's past and present. Stopping in Dover, Stratford, Canterbury, battle Abey, Oxford, and London, they visited such historical sites as the birthplace of Shakespeare, Dover Castle, Canterbury Cathedral, and the Towers of London. According to Mr. Schmoll, "It was the best trip ever!" Cheerio!

Big Ben looms over parliament and Westminster Abbey. Below: Chris, Whitney, and Bryan play dress up at the Royal Shakespeare Theatre.

Bryan, Greg, Candice, Chris and Wendy make a face at Mr. Schmoll as they head off to another site.

"Don't miss it!" They tried not to miss anything while in London.

Bo tries to stand up straight after a long bus ride into London from Stratford.

OUTDOOR

It was a week of continuous challenge! From the tree obstacle course to rappeling; from running in knee deep snow (in shorts) to jumping into ice-water for a quick dip!! Everyone who went on this trip learned a lot about themselves and usually found out that they were much stranger than they thought!!

How many of us thought we could (or would) actually jump into a tank full of cold water and fish? Or go hiking miles up a mountain to reach our cabin?!!

When we left our cabins in the mountains, we left skills and memories we will never forget and will encourage all those who need a challenge or time to learn about themselves, to attend the outdoor education week next year.

Attending were: Mikeal Weitzel, George Worthington, Aaron Raach, Russel Ottley, David Clifford, Steven Barnett, Erik Caldwell, J.J. Norris, Scot Koppenhaver, Paul Hunger, Andrew Keese, Ben Carey, Shannon Cashwell, Alisa Sowers, Valerie and Candy Weaver.

Football

This year's football team advanced to the finals of the single A Championships, something that hasn't been done in the history of BAHS. With a combined effort of all the team members, the Bears finished with an overall record of 6-2-1. In championship competition, the Bears took second place in the European Small School Championships. Players receiving special recognition are, Honorable Mention: Eric Reed (DE), Joe Hammond (NG/OT), Raphael Clark (LB), Eldred Ramtahal (TE), James Rejzek (G), Rich Edmond (QB), and Mike Haddock (DT). All-Conference: Hilton Huff (WR/DB), Jon Fleckenstein (DT/C), Chris Alford (RB), Patrick James (OT), Eldred Ramtahal (CB), Charles Green (LB). Eldred Ramtahal and Jon Fleckenstein received recognition for all Europe honors. Congratulations to the 1988 Football Team for a season well done.

Clockwise: Hilton Huff runs for the touchdown after a handoff from Rich Edmond; Hut . . . Hut . . . The Bears set up for the crucial play; Just short of the first down, the Bears get up to do it again; It's huddle time as QB Rich Edmond informs the players of the play.

CHEER

Top: Kim Sullivan, Pam Tice, Michelle Fowler, Tasha Bunnell, Stephanie Carney, Cillia Batchelor, Mascots Ashley English and Deo Gromely, and Keri Cutting. Not pictured: Chelli Doxey.

The cheerleading squad this year sparked Bear Pride that carried the fall sports through their competition and gave them the added boost they needed. With practice, the cheerleaders perfected their stunts for pep rallies and kept the spirit going during the different sport seasons. It's definite because of the cheerleaders—MAROON AND WHITE IS OUT OF SIGHT.

The Bears cheerleaders fire up BAHS with one of their exciting cheers.

LEADERS

top: Stephanie Carney threatens Michelle Fowler that she is going to go for a little dip at the pep rally before the Homecoming Game. bottom: As usual, the Bears come out on top!

Attack with a lethal weapon, Stephanie Carney assaults Kerri Cutting with her tail. bottom: Ta! Da! The Bears are victorious again!!!

A-Jay Walker sets up the spike as Christy Davis gets ready to give it all she's got.

VOLLEYBALL

On the first day of practice, Coach Ballard said, "This is the year of the Bear." And it was. With a winning season, the volleyball team made it to the European Small School Championships held in Giesen, West Germany. They were defeated, never-the-less, their efforts were not in vain. Seniors Kara Talbot and Jennifer Fullerton were named to the All-Tournament and All-Conference teams. Sophomore Whitney Warren was named to the All-Conference team. JV players moved up to varsity for tournaments were Roberta Burden, Stephanie Kunkle, and Traci Hartin.

"Okay ladies," coach Ballard gives the team the advice they'll need to hit their opponent with the "MONSTER SPIKE."

Knowing serves count, Jennifer Fullerton serves the ball.

Hmm . . . One . . . two . . . three . . . Whitney Warren gets herself psyched before putting the ball into play.

The tennis worked hard this year. Their hard work payed off as they captured the "A"-Central title. Practicing at Cole Sports Center, the team was coached by Lillian Mueller, Mr. Eichner, and Tomas Wicky. The team flew to Wiesbaden earlier in the year for the European Championships. Candice Howard and Cherif Hanah competed for the singles title. In doubles competition, Wendy Stiver, Britte DeVeries, Art Swanson, and Eric Caldwell competed.

Coach Eichner throws some burgers on the grill as Greg Hall looks on drooling with hunger.

NIS

Candice Howard and Wendy Stiver take time out between matches.

Wendy Stiver gets ready to serve as Kim Newcomer waits.

Eric Caldwell and Art Swanson await in anticipation for the other side's serve.

GOLF

The 1988 BAHS Golf team, coached by Mr. Bryner, consisted of ten golfers, which made it one of the largest golf teams in recent BAHS history. The team competed in four Conference shoot outs with all schools in Germany. Out of one hundred and twenty golfers, the Berlin team found their way to second many times.

Berlin hosted the Central European Golf Championships and placed third in this tournament. Outstanding golfers qualifying for the Championship included Larry Bentz, James Davis, John Marsh, and Chris Smith.

Left: Eric Reed goes for the shot. Above: ARGH! Jermaine Darden is determined!

To be the best. That's what they have worked on being ... the best. The boys basketball team no longer wants to be the "doormat" in the A Central Conference. Improvement showed the entire season with rising statistics in shots and rebounds. They journeyed to Karlsruhe for the A Central European Championships and to the European Small Schools Championships held at SHAPE, Belgium.

Jon fights to take control to bring the Bears back into the game.

Basketball

JV: Bottom row: Jerry Mike, Daniel Reed, Kyle Robinson. Top row: Guy Baram, Antoine Ferrette, Tony Ribble, Sascha Richardson, Sean Cherry.

Girls

This year's girls basketball team exploded onto the single A sport scene with a rousing victory over Osterholz. Led by returning players Kara Talbot and Nicole Elliot, along with Lienda Hughes, the girls definately burned the courts up!!

Coach Smith, Tamicah Edwards, Jennifer Halpin, Michele Heuer, Nicky Coleman, Lienda Hughes, Wendy Gibson, Nicleo Elliot, Damara Stephenson, and Coach Ellis.

Basketball

Coach Smith, Jodie Hyde, Tamica Edwards, Wendy Gibson, Michele Heuer, Letitia Ortiz, Damara Stephenson, and Coach Ellis.

REMEMBER

JOY AINSWORTH—"Life is too short to dance with ugly men!!"

STEPHANIE CARNEY—"Don't worry ... be happy!!" ... Bobby McFerrin

MICHAEL HADDOCK—"You only live once, so what you leave behind let it be of value. To the fellas: Chucks, Kevin, Pat, Marshall, Dex, Earl, S-N-S, and my homes El, thanks for all those trippin times in '89! The football team was in all effect! To the one I care for the most ... Steph ... remember me and I love you with all my body!!"

WHEN

TAMMY DUNAWAY—"I remember when ..."

DEO GROMLEY—"I'd like to thank everyone who has helped me through my high school years. I'd like to thank my mom and dad and all of my friends. Good luck to the CLASS OF '89!!"

DEXTER HAWTHORNE—"Life is like an aerobics class—keep reaching for the stars."

KARA TALBOT-"We shape our lives not by what we carry with us, but by what we leave behind."

CHELLI DOXEY-"If I knew then what I know now, I would have graduated a long time ago!!!"

LYNN HARDAWAY-"A dream is nothing more than a preconceived notion of reality. It is dreams that make today and tomorrow worthwhile. May all your dreams come true CLASS OF '89!!!!"

NICOLE ELLIOT

SATOKO KUME—"Well, what can I say? Life is like a lemon, sweet and sour, and sometimes like an onion; you peel one layer at a time and sometimes you weep. BUT don't worry, be happy!! Remember Berlin. Remember BAHs. And most of all, remember the CLASS OF'89! I would like to all my friends for being there whenever I needed you. I hope you'll all succeed and achieve all your dreams. Good luck in your future. I would like to thank all the teachers for your guidance. Special thanks to my loving family and my grandfathers in heaven for loving me, understanding me, supporting me. I LOVE YOU!! I'll never forget the good time I had! Good Luck to the Class of '90! You are the leaders next year. Let the good times roll!!!! P.S. Remember me as "Sato" and not "Taco".

WILLIE ROBINSON—"Live long and peacefully!"

GARY GIGER—"Argue for your limitations, and sure enough, they are yours."

KEVIN HANSON—"When life becomes too confused and stressful, go skiing, the best way I know to get away!!"

MARIE IRANZO—"Once, the road ahead seemed endless, but now that I've almost reached the end, I wish I could turn back and start this ride all over again. I want to thank each and everyone of my classmates, the Class of '89, for making this past year and a half such a memorable one. It has been a pleasure to know all of you—may happiness and success follow you everywhere. Class of '90—you are the graduating class of a new age, make the most of it. Thanks to my friends—those that are here and those that aren't—for so many special moments. I love you and will never forget you. Have a fabulous life!!

CHRIS MARVIN-"The world will break everyone's hear eventually, Cherish each day of your life to the fullest extent, But never dwell in the past, Or you will miss the opportunities of accomplishment of all your life long dreams and goals.
May everyone's life be as fun as the good times we've had in Berlin. Prost to the class of '89; tchuss juice."

GREG HALL-"The game of life is nothing, it's playing is everything. TO MIKE AND KAAH: Well guys, we made it. Thanks for the fun and the good times, and never forget P2 or or MGM/UA. It has taken 18 years, but finally you'll get rid of me. Never forget that I love you all dearly."

SAMMY PEREZ-"Life is not a dry pimple saved by clearacil. Make it exciting and rip through life like the roots of a pimple."

CELLIA BAYCHELOR

GREGORY TURK-"I'd like to thank all my friends for their support that they have given me in my high school years. Thank you Nicole for putting me on the right track. I wish all my fellow seniors the best of luck in the future. Remember---'89 RULES!!!"

JAMES CONWAY

GULDEHEN
YOUGURTA

CHRIS RICE

THADDEUS FREEMAN-"School is like an alley-you have to go through a lot of trash to get to the end."

KERI CUTTING—"So many days have passed and yet the memories will remain.
We see it as it once was.
We smile and then
Realize how time went by so quickly,
And we return the smile it gave,
And cherish the memories together,
The thought that we had days to share,
Before we had to part,
And we find time had not erased
Nor it's passage faded,
The times we've had together in our lives,
Are the ones not to be forgotten.
And so dear friend, I'll keep them close,
Although we'll be apart,
Your memories will be in my heart.
... TO THE CLASS OF '89 ... BEST OF LUCK!!!

JENNIFER FULLERTON—"I would be true, for there are those who trust me;
I would be pure, for there are those that care;
I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave, for there is much to dare." ... Howard A. Walter

DONNA McWHORTER

ELDRED RAMTAHAL—"Remain cool and calm in the forces of adversity, and prosperity you seek will come just as smoothly."

LAVANYA DODDAMANI—"If I had to go through high school again, I wouldn't change a thing, especially not my friends. I want to thank all those friends and my teachers for all their help and support. I want to thank my family for being there for me. Mom, Dad, I love you very much.
BAHS was the first American school I've ever been to, and I think it really is the BEST! Oh yeah-good luck to the Class of '90."

LACIE MABE

ASHLEY ENGLISH

ANJELIA WALKER—"I've learned to be the very best,
I want it all, no time for less,
I've made the plans,
Now lay the chance here in my hands,
Give me one moment in time,
When I'm all that I thought I could be,
When all of my dreams are hardly away,
And the answers are all up to me."
... Whitney Houston

CHRIS JILLSON

CHERIF HANAFI-
"Principles and determination help us to achieve our goals.
Try not to rest until the good be better, and the better be best. WALK LIKE AN EGYPTIAN!!!"

AMY ELLIS—"Let every smile be an inspiration to you.
Let every word you say be from the heart.
Let life have it's way with you.
Let joy permeate your being ... it's easy!
Let yourself go,
Let yourself be,
Let yourself love,
Experience true peace!!!"

TEY CARSON—"Best of luck Class of '89. And to all my geeky goobs-remember, it will always be 'Hot in the City!'"

ERIC FITZPATRICK—"Don't worry, be happy!!"
... Bobby McFerrin.

TODD BENDER—"Damn the torpedoes, full speed ahead." Admiral Faragut. "I believe that to have a strong America, we must have a strong defense. And to have a strong defense, everybody contributing to this must be educated. The most wrong thing you can do is drop out of high school and attempt to earn a living either in the civilians world or the military. An uneducated person is more easily swayed away from the right path. This is why I am graduating from BAHS, going to Norwich University, then serving in the United States Army. That is the best for me, my country, my fellow citizens."

ALLISON ELLWOOD—"Whenever I asked my father 'Can I do something? All my friends are doing it.' He would say, 'You never do something because your friends are doing it. You do it because it is the right thing to do. It doesn't matter if it is different from what your friends are doing.
Make up your own mind and persuade others to follow you!'"
... Margaret Thatcher

ROBIN PEARSON—"Make the best out of whatever comes along. Take each day at a time."

TOMARAH LYNN MASCONI—"Live life, love life, open your hearts, follow your dreams, achieve your goals ... Enjoy life and live it to the fullest!
I would like to thank my mom and dad, and Shannon for always being there for me. If it wasn't for you guys, I wouldn't have made it this far—I LOVE YOU!! (Mom, I know you are glad it is finally over!!) I would like to thanks also Chaene, Anne Marie, Todd and Pat B. for being such great friends. Pat O'Leary you have helped me through it all-I'LL LOVE YOU FOREVER!!

Special Friend Page

The year has gone by and come to an end,
And boy, I'm lucky you are my friend.
It's been a long time since the very first day,
When we walked in the door and we went our way.
From class to class,
They went too fast.
The moments we shared,
It was obvious we cared.
Through the good and bad,
I would not give away the moments we had.
The dances and the parties,
And oh my goodness, all those tardies.
Because those special moments were so true,
I know my special friend will always be you.

THE PRINCIPLES OF PALSMANSHIP

FRIENDS DO NOT

- Listen
- Treat each other regularly to lunch
- Call on a frequent basis
- Visit, even if they live in different cities
- Leave each other alone when requested
- Have dinner with each other's parents when they're visiting
- Call and visit when one of them is sick
- Write condolence letters when there is a death in the family (and come to the funeral if it's in the same city)
- Travel whatever distance is necessary (even if it's vast) to be at each other's wedding
- Tell white lies rather than hurt each other
- Help cook dinner
- Take an interest in each other's work (even when it's really boring)
- Go out of their way to make each other happy
- Compete in all endeavors
- Tell each other everything
- Withhold all secrets
- Forget birthdays
- Repeat nasty gossip about a friend
- Say nasty things at each other
- Borrow money (unless the situation is dire)
- Disappear when needed
- Drop out when they're not needed
- Call each other absolutely
- Stand each other up except due to family or work
- Permanently change clothes
- Permanently, temporarily or even consider borrowing boyfriends
- Ask each other about their taxes

A road of memories laid behind me,
Full of twists and turns,
And exits I never chose to take.
As the road turns ahead of me,
I glance back behind me,
Realizing there is no turning back ...
I see an exit ahead of me,
So I signal and steer down the road of tomorrow. ... L.H. '89

Robert E. Sennett came to Berlin American High School in 1973. He was a science teacher until 1984, when he became deputy principal. Mr. Sennett was a familiar sight in the hallways, wearing his famous plaid pants and paisley ties. Earlier this year he was appointed as the first principal of the new Hanau Middle School, and he left BAHS in late September. The students of Berlin American High School miss him and wish him good luck. Therefore, we dedicate this 88-89 BERLINER to Mr. Sennett

Candice,

We are proud of you and love you more than words can say. You will always be our "baby girl."

Good Luck!

Love,
Mom & Dad

Even though we fuss and fight, I love you and will miss you!

Dear Tomarah Lynn, Hurray! You made it! Here's to all the joys we've shared; the many trials we've faced as one; the disagreements that have resulted in major battles! And battles they were . . . but the end resulting in a very precious reward-your growing into a "terrific" young woman. Just remember-you're the one to please now, the one to respect, the one to live for! Celebrate your life. Love lasts forever, Dad, Mom, Shannon, Mandy, and Princess too!

Jennifer,

Congratulations! We are very proud of you and your accomplishments. We treasure the special moments along the way. WATCH OUT DAVIS-HERE SHE COMES!

We like you and love you.

There's a miracle called friendship
that dwells within the heart,
And you don't know how it happens
Or when it get's its start . . .
But the happiness it brings
you
Always gives a special lift,
And you realize that friendship
is God's most precious gift.

Berlin, January 1989

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen and Students of the American High School,

We thank you for your interest to hear the opinions of the parents of your students of the BAHS.

Please allow me to introduce myself. I am Gerhard Gisy (father of John Gisy), born in Berlin in 1909. I went to school in Berlin in 1915, during the first world war. this was a terrible time for most people in a big town like this. It was not possible to organize transport of food for about four million people under war conditions.

Years later I remember the Christian Quakers of America earned a great merit of Appreciation as after the war they sent milk powder, cocoa, corned beef and much more to Germany; they prevented the dying of thousands of German children by serving them lunch.

I could write a book about this time in Germany. We were more than fifty boys in one classroom, because there were no more teachers. The young generation was all in the War of Kaiser Wilhelm II against nearly the whole world as a result of a very bad Imperialistic politic.

When the war was over, two millions of the German Youths were dead.

In the years of 1918 and 1919, I was ten years old. We boys were just among the Revoltuion in Berlin with fights all around us in the streets, and machine guns firing around us as we went to school. I finished school at age fifteen, with 6 years of French and 3 years of English.

My father was a well known person in the Shoe Industry and so I started in the Manufacturing of Shoes. In the years 1930-32 I worked quite successfully in the English Shoe Industry; I had many friends in England.

I remember that nobody could imagine that a second world war was possible in Europe. I would if I could blot out the darkest chapter in German History.

If you should ask me what I would wish if I had two wishes, I would answer: The first would be not to have been German in the years from 1933 till 1945 and not to have lived in Europe during those years.

The second wish is: I would like to be a school boy like John again and be allowed to go to the Berlin American High School.

I believe with few words I have said everything and please take it as a compliment for all that your school represents. I am happy that I could afford this school for my son, John. I am sure he will remember his years at the BAHS and be grateful for them with great respect.

I know John made trouble sometimes and his Mother has to ask for your understanding. I thank you for your patience. We want to thank your wonderful staff of teachers and counselors once more for giving him a good foundation of basic knowledge for the life he is beginning now.

yours greatly
Gerhard Gisy

To our Dieuxber daughter,
You've been such a good girl.
You're not quiet, You're loud. Where ever you go, you stand out in the crowd. Whatever you try we know you
can dieux it,
because you're a rossiter. We hope your life will be filled with joy and laughter. Love,
Daddy, Mommy,

We've always been there one for another, we've laughed and we've cried and stayed with each other.

We've seen the world and learned how to lead, together we've planned what our school did need.

Is it all over now, do we have to say good bye? We must go our separate ways and pray for luck

as we try. We go on with our lives it is true we must part, but we'll always be together for friendship gives wings to the heart.

I'll miss you!

This year has gone by all too quickly, but I am glad we made it. I hope this yearbook does for you what we tried to do, preserve the memories. I thank all the students for the little things they did. I hope all your dreams come true and you enjoy the rest of the year. Thanks yearbook staff, you know who you are.

Farewell . . .

It's over. Another school year has come and gone. Thank goodness we made it through it all . . . yearbook, sports, weekends. But the bad thing about it all is parting from those we've cared about and created memories to last with.

I hope we've done that for you, created memories with this book. I know this book will never equal the moments that each of you has locked within your heart. But in these pages is something unforgettable . . . the 1989 school year.

Thank you, thank you the student body for doing all the things that make a school year what it is—the sports, Homecoming, the dances, and parties.

Thank you faculty for letting yearbook take pictures, providing the names, and letting us borrow from you your time.

Thank you Mrs. Norris for letting me use your copier and for your smile that lifted my spirits when my head was down.

Thank you Mom for putting up with running film for development when there is no way I can ever repay you or thank you enough for your time and unconditional kindness.

And most of all, thank you Jennifer, Allen, Melanie, Angel, Carmen, and Kenneth for coming through in the end. I admire you all for your dedication. And I thank all those that contributed the best they could.

Perhaps for those of us who worked on this book, the only reward and praise we will receive is what we will find within ourselves when we open the cover. So, I encourage all of you who will be at B.A.H.S. to care, to care enough to preserve the happiness that we have felt, and what will be felt in the years to come.

I wish for all of you all the best that you may discover and create. Maybe one day, we'll come across one another again. When we do, I hope we open up the cover of this book and laugh.

May your future be full of laughter and memories to come,

Lynn Hardaway
2nd Semester editor
