Kaiser Wilhelm GedächtnisKirche

This Memorial Church is probably the best-known architectural symbol of West Berlin. Kaiser Wilhelm I was proclaimed Kaiser at Versailles in 1871 and was the grandfather of the famous "second Wilhelm" who abdicated in 1918. The memorial, before the destructive war, was an enormous church built in a neo-Romanesque style of the 1890's. It was left in ruins, however, by World War II. There was a post-war controversy over the church as to whether the blackened remains should be torn down or restored. It was resolved with a compromise when a modern architect, Professor Egon Eiermann, attached a modern, glass-and-concrete church to the side of the old church. The church was dedicated to the memory of the Christian martyrs who died resisting the Nazis. The carillon in the new bell-tower plays a melody composed by Prince Lewis Ferdinand of Prussia in remembrance of the Hohenzollern dynasty.

Victory Column

The golden figure of an immense Winged Victory celebrates a series of Prussian military triumphs over the French, the Danes, the Austrians, and the Bavarians.

The 200-foot Victory Column is ringed with the barrels of a French cannon captured during the Franco-Prussian War of 1870-71.

Reichstag

The Reichstag, opened in 1864, was the home of the German Parliament until 1933, when the notorious Reichstag fire, widely believed to have been started by the Nazis themselves, gave Hitler the excuse he needed to take leadership of the whole of Germany. After more than 30 years as a ruin, the burned-out building has been carefully restored. It now serves as, among other things, a museum for "problems of German history". It stands to the north of the Brandenburg Gate and is a tribute to Renaissance architecture.

Brandenburg Gate

Located in the western end of the city is the Brandenburg Gate, completed in 1791 by Carl Gotthard Langhans to celebrate Prussia's victories. Throughout German history, the Brandenburg Gate has been repeatedly battered by war and revolution. It was first dispoiled in 1806 when Napoleon temporarily seized the Goddess of Victory, its crowning statue. During the Left-wing uprising of 1919, it became a government strong-point. The gate was one of the goals of the Soviet troops assaulting the city in 1945. Now, fully restored, the majestic gate stands on twelve Doric columns with the Goddess of Victory (or Peace), named Quadriga, on top in a chariot drawn by four prancing horses. Today nothing can pass through the Brandenburg Gate because of the concrete barrier which stands only a few yards away, dividing the city of Berlin into East and West.

The National Honor Society is a club made up of students selected for their superiority in scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

This year the NHS has done two service projects: their annual decorating of the school Christmas tree, and selling mittens to raise money to donate to the East German resettlers for winter clothing. The NHS also held a very successful Sadie Hawkins dance, at which there was a "chapel" for "marriages" and a "divorce court" complete with certificates.

Perhaps the most successful part of the dance was the jail, with Mr. Sheeler as sheriff. Friends and enemies could put each other in jail for 10 minutes at a time.

Model United Nations

Model United Nations is for politically oriented students who discuss possible solutions to world problems such as human rights violations, disarmament and ecological deterioration. Members spend hours doing research, but in the end it's worth it when they go to the Hague International Model United Nations, which pulls together students from high schools and colleges all over the world. Delegates travel to the Hague, Netherlands, for this week of work and fun. Not only do students learn first hand how the United Nations works, by role playing countries of the world, but also they learn speaking and negotiations skills.

MUN also travels to Heidelberg in the spring for a Mock Security Council. This is a scaled down version of the Hague, only for DODDS students, where delegates are able to practice their diplomatic skills and see friends from the Hague.

Members are: Mike Weitzel, Bethany Knapp, Kathleen Hildenbrand, Nicole Hall, Laura Aubin, and Sonjay Doddamani.

Co-Sponsors are: Mr. Bluem and Ms. McQueen.

..... Concert Choir

The concert band and choir began the year by preparing for the Christmas concert that was a few short months away. Auditions for the Symposium on Performing Arts (SOPA) and the DoDDS Honor Band and Choir occurred. This year 26 band and choir students were accepted to SOPA, which was held in February at Hahn Air Base. Seven of those students were accepted to attend the Honor Festival held at Bad Kissingen in March. Congratulations to those students and their hard work.

The Berliner

THE BERLINER staff learned the real meaning of dedication this year as they worked to put together the 164 pages of the yearbook. Beginning in the spring of '89, they met with the Josten's representative, and chose the theme, cover, endsheets, and basic design for the book. The real work came in the fall as deadlines grew near, and photos were taken (and retaken), copy written, and layouts were drafted and finalized.

To meet each of the five deadlines, the staff spent many nights until 10, and entire weekends, in room 207, to complete a professional publication which records the school year which led us ... into the nineties.

How To Cry

Teach Me How To Cry, written by Patricia Joudry, was about teenagers and their problems. It followed a Romeo and Juliet theme, where a boy and a girl fall in love and open up their lives to each other, but can't be together because of outside circumstances, including parental dislikes. The girl learns that she can be happy and she grows out of her shell. She learns to accept her past and her mother. The play was performed on January 24 and 25 by a group of 10 students and four production crew members.

The Berlin Against Drugs Group, sponsored by Mrs. Stalpes, is promoting a drug free environment for BAHS students. In addition to weekly meetings, BAD is involved in Peer Group Counseling, Drug Awareness Campaigns, and Drug-free Dances. BAD also sponsored several activities during Drug Awareness Week, including passing out free information on drug abuse and serving "mocktails," which are flavorful alternatives to the real alcoholic drinks.

A trip to the PRIDE Conference in Florida in April is a reward for those actively participating in the BAD events at BAHS. During this annual conference, PRIDE members from chapters all over the country meet to discuss new strategies and ways to achieve their goals of a drug-free America.

BAD also had support from the Military Police. Spec. Melanie Woods, Spec. Steve Lundgren, Sgt. Michael Lewart, and the Office of the Provost Marshall at Andrews Barracks all helped during the year. Without them, BAD would not have existed.

FBLA has been reactivated this year by its sponsor, Mrs. Bahari. They started off the school year by providing candy grams during Homecoming and selling personalized locker mirrors and key chains. The club also held a clothing drive, with the Junior High Congress, with the Junior High Congress, for the East Bloc country refugees. On November 18 and 19 they sent eight members to the annual Fall Leadership Conference in Stuttgart. Money raised goes toward sending club members to the State Spring Conference in Frankfurt.

Video Club

The Video Club, sponsored by Mr. Benson, is a loosely knit organization whose members gain experience in media production by filming school activities. They cover sporting events and concerts, edit and dub home videos, and become familiar with the general use of video cameras. This year, the Varsity Volleyball team was new and full of potential; however, it was not until the A-North and A-Benenor Conference Tournament that they pulled it all together. The team, under positive coaches, soundly defeated AFCENT twice to earn a third place trophy. This win entitled them to a seat in the Small Schools Championships at Hahn, where AFCENT went on to win first place honors. The Berlin team did not fare well, but ended on a good note by defeating their long time rivals-Giessen.

This year, the boys' only loss was to a tough Osterholz team 5 games to 4. Girls split their season at a .500 conference record. In championships, the guys double team of Erik Caldwell and Art Swanson were seeded fourth and finished fifth out of 33 schools in Europe. They came in first for small schools. In males single, Michael Newcomer faired well, taking twelfth in Europe and Sixth for small schools. In girls championships, the doubles team of Wendy Stiver and Emi Nakajima placed in the top 20 for Europe. The singles competitor, Michele Heuer, was knocked out by the first seed but not before moving into the number 12 spot in Europe.

Sports-Sports-Sports-Sports-Sports-Sports

The 1989 golf team had a very successful year, according to Coach Bryner. This year's team consisted of ten members, making it one of the largest teams in the league, as well as in BAHS history. The golfers placed well overall, as well as individually, with all ten members placing in the top fifteen in championships. The team won the DoDDS A-North Small School Championships in Ramstein. Chris Sparks earned a silver medal and Ryan Dillon, Chris Smith, Eric Virgin, Larry Bentz, and Tucker Cornwell all took bronze medals.

Bears Pin

The Berlin Wrestling Team this year took an amazing fourth place in the Northern A Conference. An astonishing effort made by a young team allowed the wrestlers to beat the Bamberg and Osterholz teams in conference matches, and narrowly lose to the strong Giessen and Hahn teams. Outstanding performances were made by seniors Tony Alston, who has maintained an undefeated record, Jim Carnes, and juniors Aaron Roach and Mike Rafferty. Coach Roach believes, that this year's young team will be next year's dominate force in the Northern A Conference.

The Junior High Congress, sponsored by Mrs. Talbot, made a big difference in spirit for the classes of '94 and '95. Not only did they grow together, but they learned about themselves through the many activities sponsored by the Junior High Congress.

One activity held every fall is the decorating of the cafeteria windows for Spirit Week. While the Seniors took first place, the class of '94 was right behind, winning second. Other activities included a Halloween dance, Nerd Day during Spirit Week, a Christmas dance, Several bake sales, and the annual planting of a tree on Labor Day.

National Junior Honor Society consists of students who have proven themselves to be outstanding in the following areas: Scholarship, Service, Leadership, Character, and Citizenship. To remain a member one must maintain a 3.2 GPA. Inductions of new members were held in the winter after the first semester and in the spring following the third quarter.

In November of this year the NJHS held their annual Read-a-thon. Students found people to sponsor them for a certain amount per hour of reading. These seventh and eighth graders were then given the opportunity to take a day out of classes to read. The $500 collected from the Read-a-thon will go toward buying a mat with the school emblem on it for the lobby. In a joint effort with the Junior High Congress, NJHS co-sponsored the Winter Cruise dance on February 16 for grades 7-9.

Eighth Graders Come Together

1989-1990 was an exciting year for the 8th graders with Crystal Webster as president, Tiffany Davis as vice-president, Eunica Sora as Secretary and Meredith Knapp as Treasurer. We had a lot of fun. This year's representatives were Kurt Talbot, Kevin Steinman, Krissy Sullivan, Allison English, Carrie Beamis, Cathy Houston, and Jody DeSautelle.

The 8th grade sponsored both a Halloween and Christmas dance, sold many candy grams that were created by the Junior High Congress and participated in many other BAHS activities. After this year of learning and growing, we're ready to make the huge jump from Junior High to High School.

England Trip

Eleven BAHS students joined Mr. Schmoll and eight other students from PATCH on the annual school trip to England. They left on the night of November 4, traveled through Germany, France, and Belgium, taking time to visit the site of Waterloo and other famous battles. They arrived at Dover on Nov. 6, then drove to London to soak up the famous sights of Buckingham Palace, Big Ben, the Tower of London, and Picadilly Square.

The next day they visited Canterbury and the site of the Battle of Hastings. Then it was on to Stonehenge and Stratford. On the last day in England, they drove back to London to do a little last minute shopping and then it was back to the ferry. They arrived in Berlin on Nov. 10.

In addition to seeing the traditional sights, the students visited Warwick Castle, the burial site of Shakespeare, Dover Castle, and the Canterbury Cathedral.

In the evenings, the students were able to see three plays, "All's Well that Ends Well" and "As You Like It" by Shakespeare, plus "Me and My Girl". They slept in bed and breakfasts, and once even in the haunted Edington Park Hotel!

As always, BAHS' England Trip proved to be a chance to experience the rich tradition and heritage of Great Britain and have a great time in the process.

Those who went are: Tandy Grue, Nazri Bahari, Jeromy Ainley, Kimm Sullivan, Jennifer Halpin, Alison English, Krissy Sullivan, Sonja Pepoy, Thea Jung, Nicole Tuma, and Daniel Brennan.

Poland Trip

The first ever BAHS Poland Trip, sponsored by Ms. Riggins and Ms. Talbot, took place Nov. 22-26. It was especially interesting because of the recent reforms and new freedoms in Poland and the rest of Eastern Europe. The 33 students on the trip traveled by bus to Warsaw, Krakow, and Chestahov. The students visited Auschwitz, and had a chance to see the Black Madonna Icon, believed to be able to perform miracles. In addition to sightseeing, the students learned much about Poland's history and culture. They had a chance to meet and talk with Polish students candidly about everything from politics to every day life. The students stayed in hotels, ate meat and potatoes, and had many snowball fights. In an unfortunate incident, Ms. Denecke fell and broke her hip, and spent some time in a Polish hospital before enduring the long bus ride home while in a full body cast.

The trip was an eventful one and sure to remain in the memories of all who went. They were: Joe Brodman, Chris Stewart, Kevin Inman, Eric Virgin, Aaron Maurer, Joe Gilmore, Carlo Gorrel, Earl Mike, Mike Fowler, Tim Howard, Kevin Neuman, Erik Caldwell, Tucker Cornwell, James Winn, John Cutting, Rick Bustillos, Kurt Talbot, George Worthington, Sung Wo Chung, Melissa Bessent, Nicole Crockett, Michelle Burns, Nobuko Watanabe, Emi Nakajima, Brandy Hill, Ginger Smith, Nicole Hall, Lynn Waller, Terun Kijimi, Chitose Kijimi, Karen Tufano, Marlena Amorin, Elizabeth Comb, Debbie Ben Maor, Christina Hovey, Apryl Dunkle, Alicia Cecil, Nakia Gordon, Barbara Matthews, Bethany Knapp, Christa Horton, Carrie Bemis, and Sokkyung Chung.

After 28 Years The Berlin Wall Opened . . .

The announcement on the night of Nov. 9 from the East German government that East Germans could travel freely to the West, for the first time since the Wall went up, filled the city with the sounds of cheers, tears, and popping champagne corks. A headline in the Berliner Morgenpost proclaimed that "Last night, the German people were the happiest people in the world."

Hordes of people flocked to Checkpoint Charlie, and the Wall in front of the Brandenburg Gate was crammed with people standing on top of it. The atmosphere was electrifying as East and West mixed together. Many people took out 28 years of frustration and oppression by chipping and hammering away huge chunks of the Wall.

Freedom Bridge and 18 other new border crossings were also opened. The West German President von Weizsaecker said that "Deep joy and thankfulness fill the hearts" of East and West Germans, who are free to mingle with each other for the first time since 1961.

After the initial celebration and disbelief, the East Germans flooded the Western streets and stores, causing traffic jams and overflowing shops. Public transportation was crowded around the clock. One million people visited West Berlin and Germany on Nov. 11, buying fruit, electronics, and chocolate with their 100 DM "Welcome Money."

The Brandenburg Gate, which had been opened on Dec. 22, was the site of a massive New Year's Eve party. People from all over flocked to Berlin in the last days of December, preparing to celebrate with a huge explosion of firecrackers, crowds, cheers, dancing, and joy. The exhilarating sight of people under, around, and on top of the Gate, which had become a symbol of the division between East and West, is sure to remain in the memories of many BAHS students.

On Jan. 3, 1990, the East German government announced its plans to tear down all of the Wall and replace it with regular border markings, signalling the end of a dark era in history.

We Watch History Being Made

Spirit Week is a well-loved tradition at BAHS. It is known as a time to raise support for the school, have fun, and get a little crazy. Spirit grows all week long, leading up to Homecoming Day.

This year Spirit Week was from Oct. 10-14. Students enjoyed the dress up days, contests, decorations, and games that make Spirit Week what it is.

Tuesday was the 7th and 8th grade dress day - Nerd Day. People dug in their closets and let their true colors show through. Many eyes were strained by tacky mixes of patterns, highwaters, and toilet paper streaming from underneath shoes. Wednesday was Beach Day, chosen by the 9th and 10th grades. Students got all decked out in shorts and sunglasses, despite freezing temperatures. Cowboys and Indians roamed the halls on Thursday's Wild West Day, the theme chosen by the 11th and 12th grades, while Friday was Maroon and White Day.

All week students dined in a colorful cafeteria, decorated by all the classes. The Seniors won the Cafeteria Decorating Contest, with the Sophomores and 8th grade being runners-up.

Athletes from each class contributed Baby Pictures, and people voted for the cutest baby by putting money in jars.

Spirit Week Homecoming

The Sophomores received the most money and won the Baby Picture Contest.

Friday the 13th brought good luck to BAHS. The afternoon was devoted to soccer games, Class Olympics, and Powder Puff. The 7th and 8th grade tied, and the 9th grade won over the Sophomores in the soccer games. During the Class Olympics, people ran relays, spun around until they were dizzy, swung potatoes between their legs, and made fools of themselves in the name of fun. The Juniors won the Powder Puff game with a score of 8-6.

The Bonfire, Pep Rally, and Luau Dance, hosted by the cheerleaders, took place on Friday night. The Sophomore class was awarded the Spirit Stick for gaining the most Spirit Points throughout the Week.

After a festive and fun-filled Spirit Week, people eagerly awaited Saturday's Homecoming activities.

Close Your Eyes Forever

Anticipation for this year's Homecoming Game and Dance on October 14 was at a fever pitch after all the activities of Spirit Week. The weather on Saturday was perfect and sunny after a week of rain, and there was a great public turnout for the football game against our rivals, the Osterholz Blackhawks.

The Homecoming Court was presented during the halftime ceremonies, and General Marsh received a plaque in appreciation of his work for our school. As the court was driven around the field and marched under the saber bridge, all those present wondered who would be chosen King and Queen, but no one would know until later that evening.

During the last half of the game, the Bears finished off the Blackhawks with a score of 27-14.

The girls' tennis team also won against the Blackhawks with a score of 9-0, while the boys scored 4-5.

In the cross country races against Hahn, the girls' team came in first and the boys' team placed second.

The volleyball team lost their game against Hahn, but beat Baumholder.

Homecoming

After celebrating the afternoon's victories at a pre-Homecoming party or dinner, BAHS students, dressed to kill, headed towards Tempelhof's B-Halle. Everyone danced the night away at the same place where the Berlin Airlift took place over 40 years ago.

Pat James and Kim Ricks made a dazzling King and Queen, dancing to the theme song "Close Your Eyes Forever." The dance came to a close at midnight, and people made their way off to further celebrations, thus ending this year's full and successful Homecoming Week.

Election

Students let their opinions be heard in this year's class elections. Campaigning took place during the week of September 11-15, with speeches on Thursday and voting on Friday. Ballot boxes were set up and students grade 7-11 could vote during lunch and after school. The Senior officers were elected at the end of the last school year.

During the campaign week, the halls were colorfully decorated with campaign posters, and many students decorated their clothes with buttons supporting their favorite candidates.

Class officers are necessary to represent their fellow students and to help the student government run smoothly. They are responsible for planning and carrying out class functions, such as dances or fund raisers. Their duties also include bringing comments and suggestions from their class members before the Student Council, which is made up of the class officers, senators, and the Executive Board.

The 8th Annual Inter-Scholastic Academic Games, or the "Brain Bowl," took place on Nov. 17-18 in Wiesbaden, West Germany. Despite not having much time to practice, the team did very well, placing in the top 15 schools. During the games, the team answered questions on math, science, sports, literature, and art. "This is the best that Berlin has ever done in the Brain Bowl," according to participant Bethany Knapp.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Freshmen Have All The Spirit!

Being the newcomers to high school was both fun and exciting. As Freshmen we were able to get involved in Varsity sports, and even eat during high school lunch.

The Class of '93 carried through very well during Spirit Week before Homecoming. The Freshmen played a major role in the activities, such as sponsoring Beach Day, which was a big hit. The Freshmen also gathered enough points during Spirit Week to win this year's Spirit Stick.

We elected officers to lead our class: choosing Melissa Bessent as president, Christy Smith as vice-president, Jennifer Stiver as secretary, and Angie Pisoni as treasurer. Mrs. Wood, the class sponsor, helped them and the class senators, Doreen Evans, Emi Nakajima, David Scharfbillig, Greg Wasson, and Yolanda Watkins, make this a great year for the class of '93.

Although this is only the beginning of our high school experiences we are setting our goals for the three years ahead, hoping they will be as terrific as '89-'90!

A Look Back . . .

JOE ADAMS: Thanks to my mom & dad for puttin up with my hard head. My little brother for gettin on my nerves and keepin me busy all the time. To Teresa, for your support, and being there when I needed you, you really mean a lot to me . . . Luv Ya! And to all the fellas, this year's been a trip . . . PEACE . . . Keep on doin watcha like, but do the right thing.

CHRIS ALFORD: The hardest thing ever is not saying hello but saying goodbye. You never really miss anyone until you know you won't see them anymore.

BRIAN ADAMS: We, too, born to freedom, and believing in freedom, are willing to fight to maintain freedom. We, and all the others who believe as we do, would rather die on our feet than live on our knees. Franklin D. Roosevelt James — always defend the faith. Jennifer keep me in your mind, heart and soul in all you do, no matter where you are; I love you.

JENNIFER ALLEN: You can only succeed when you try. Always give your best and failure will never come because for you, your best IS Success. Momma & Dad thank! for your trust and respect for; Tim, you're on your own. To my EB and the "bears" remember friends and good times don't become a part of the past; they become a part of forever. Danny, I truly adore you.

ERETE BLOOM: If you don't grab it first, somebody else will.

JOSEPH BRODMANN: Today is the tomorrow we worried about yesterday.

GANNON BECK: If at first you don't succeed . . . quit!! There's no point in being a fool about it.

KRYSTAL ATKINS: Remember to smile; it makes people wonder what you're up to.

ANTHONY ALSTON: Put pep in your step and pride in your stride, and always strive for the very best and success will be right around the corner.

ERIK CALDWELL: In one's eternal pursuit of happiness and true love, let him not forget that beauty is only skin deep, but ugly goes straight to the bone.

YUN-KYUNG CHUNG: Time is flowing like a river.

SARAH COGGINS: We all carry regrets but they must not carry us. Good luck to everyone in the class of '90'. May we all carry joy in the future. Thank you Mom & Dad, and Jessica for being a wonderful family. I love you Jimmy- Here's to our future together.

JIM CARNES

NICOLE CROCKETT: God bless my family for giving me the support and strength to make it. I love you all. God bless my friends that helped me through my problems: Shonda, Nikki and Sanjay. I hope you all will succeed in life, and never give up. "fight the power."

CAT CURRY: There have been times to remember, and some we'd rather forget. No one can know what the future holds, but for good or evil, we just have to close our eyes and push through, go on living. The Class of '90 has done one great year; hopefully, the kind you would rather remember. Let's be careful out there. TCHUESS, YA'LL.

What Was The Craziest Thing, You Ever Did In Public?

JOE BRODMANN - ran over an old lady on my bike in Atlantic City.

DAVID CLIFFORD - I had to wear casts on both of my arms in my first year here. (Tag Football)

SARAH COGGINS - Danced on a table at a wedding reception.

MIKE NEWCOMER - Lit a telephone booth on fire

RENARD OWENS - Ran home in my underwear.

CHRIS SALAS - Fell in a fountain.

WENDY STIVER - "Rapped" for money on the Ku'Damm.

GRETTA WALKER - I was eating a whopper and bit my finger.

JOSEPH GILMORE: Hell awaits

JENNIFER FRENCH: Though we travel the world over to find the beautiful we must carry it with us or we will find it not.

ANDREW FEUTZ: You can always tell a real friend: when you've made a fool of yourself he doesn't feel you've done a permanent job.

JENNIFER HALPIN: Your best years are your high school years so live them up. Don't depend on others to make them fun, that's all up to you!!! If the world ever seems to be trembling down upon you -Keep a steady pace and Keep on going- Don't ever give up - Mom, Dad, Kim- Thanks for putting up with this annoying child of yours - I promise, I'll make you proud of me!

AL HARRIS: I'd like to say thanks to my mom and dad for all the help they gave me through the years. Thank God for helping me through 12 years of school and all my friends for the support. Pat James, Erik Reed, Renard, Bruce Sora, Brothers; Aaron, Baron, and Virgil, (AKA Smokey V.)

GARY HIPSKIND: Thanks Mom and Dad for everything, and to the Senior Class, James, Shelly and Erik. I'll remember you forever.

PAT JAMES: Take life one day at a time. If something goes wrong, take it in stride and remember tomorrow is another day.

STEVE LIGHT: Mom & Dad, thanks, I'll never forget you. Mom you've given me everything I've ever wanted. Dad, you're the greatest man I've ever known. Coaches Mats and Figs, you've made me strong and you have my total respect. That which kills you makes you stronger! Finally, thanks to all my friends ... never 4-get to g o o d times, I'll never forget any of you!!!

THEA SANDRA JUNG: Mom and Dad, Risa, Lucas, and Marta, Grandma, and the Ryans, you are a wonderful family. Thanks for putting up with me! I really love you! Thank you for my education and moral values. Sow a thought-reap an act; sow an act-reap a habit; sow a habit-reap a character; sow a character-reap a destiny. Good luck to all my friends! Go M, V. Matt. 6:19-21.

KEVIN KING: To all The Fellas on the Football, Basketball, and especially Track teams & to all the peoples of BAH5, Homies (Pat, Chris, Tony Alston, Sean F., Bruce, Ivan, Erik, Coach Ellis, Rivers, Pepoy, and Huebner, Oh and Bennett) to "Live long and prosper greatly"

STEPHANIE MABE: I have worked to get to where I am today and I'm proud. I hope I have put a permanent impression on all my friends lives so I'll never be forgotten.

RENARD OWENS: To all my friends at BAH5. I wish you all well in your future in the world to come. P E A C E !!!

IWALANI PECQUER: Believe in yourself ... keep smiling ... alwaz try-don't give up! Never break character-don't be afraid to be you, to be different ... speak out and voice your opinions-stand up for yourself ... be assertive ... seek the best, not the worst, in others ... believe nothing you hear, and half of what you see ... and lastly ... in your memory Tasha, babe! ... zorb!!!! PS ... Hey Redonna, we made it, now what!!!!

NINA PEPOY: Give everything a fighting chance ... hope is the key.

SONJA PEPOY: Now that our senior year is almost over with, we are left with the souvenirs of time- our precious memories. I would like to thank all of the people that helped me to become who I am today. Thanks to the understanding & guidance all of you so graciously gave me.

JAMES MCCORQUODALE: "Life is a process we must all endure to reach eternal happiness, it just so happens that education is a part of life and must also be endured!" To the person who helped me most in my schooling, from diapers to caps and gowns, I love you mom, I want to thank my friends Gary and Brian, and Shelly who gave life new meaning.

MICHAEL NEWCOMER: Thanks to my fellow Seniors and all my friends for making this a great year. Let's have a reunion in 20 years. Do the best you can with what you got. TSCHUSS YA'LL I'M OUTTA HERE! - Spec. Tom Adams

If You Walked In Your Sleep Where Would You End Up?

TONY ALSTON - Jody Watley's bedroom.
KRYSTAL ATKINS - In a shopping mall.
JOE BRODMANN - Marcel's house.
YUN-KYUNG CHUNG - Refrigerator
CAT CURRY - Duck pond.
JENNIFER FRENCH - In the arms of my handsome prince.
JOSEPH GILMORE - Downtown.
PAT JAMES - In Paula Abdul's bedroom.
JENNIFER ALLEN - In Ms. Greer's room working on a deadline.

RONCIA PHOENIX: Mom, Dad, & Randy Jr. Thanks so much for your support. I love ya'll sooo much. Gretta ... Girl you know we had too much fun 2-gether (4 the reals). Best wishes & happiness w/Tremont. Joe ... you're one of a kind (thank God). but very special to me. Thanks baby, for your caring, love and support. I'll never 4-get you. Luv Ya!! ... To Krystal (Ms. Muffet) and Chantle thank for everything sis, Luv Ya!!!!

DEANNE PISONI: Mom, did I surprise you!!!!

VALARIE ROACH: Smile, it makes the day go better.

MARLON RODRIGUEZ: If you don't know the answer, buy a bird.

ERIK REED: I would like to thank God, Mom and Dad for watching over me for 12 years through school. I also want to thank my friends for being there when I needed them. Mom & Dad ... I love you.

If You

Could Have One Wish

What Would It Be?

GANNON BECK - I would wish for 3 girls in togas; one to give me Swedish foot massage, one to feed me grapes and the other to ... well, never mind.

ERETE BLOOM - That there is another planet that's not messing it self up as bad as we are.

KRIS STEWART - move to my own island in Jamaica.
WENDY STIVER - A decent Homecoming date.

What Do You Want To Be Remembered For?

BRIAN ADAMS - My hair (or lack there of)
 TONY ALSTON - Being a wrestler
 KRYSTAL ATKINS - My clean locker
 ERETE BLOOM - Just remember the good times
 ERIC CALDWELL - Tennis, and Poptarts
 DAVID CLIFFORD - What a funny person I was
 NICOLE CROCKETT - Being willing to help my friends
 CAT CURRY - Weirdness
 ANDREW FEUTZ - My toe jam

JENNIFER HALPIN - Never being on time
 PATRICK JAMES - Bringing smiles to peoples faces
 THEA JUNG - Being willing to help out
 KEVIN KING - Setting track & field records
 DAN LYNAGH - For streaking my hair
 STEPHANIE MABE - My friendliness
 MIKE NEWCOMER - My one eyebrow

NINA PEPOY - Student who struggled in school but survived
 ERIK REED - Attitude
 VALARIE ROACH - Being cheerful
 MARLON RODRIGUEZ - For my honesty and humor
 WENDY STIVER - Continuing the Ashley tradition: cruise when you feel like it
 MIKE WEITZEL - My boxer shorts

CYNTHIA SNYDER: I would like to thank all my friends who stood by me no matter what. A special thanks goes to you, Shanetta Younger, my big sis.

JOHN CHRISTOPHER SALAS: To be a senior is a part of life, but to be a great senior is life.

CHRIS SPARKS: Don't be a follower, be a leader.

KRIS STEWART: Never go solo rely on help from those you consider your friends and you'll go far!

WENDY STIVER: Take your own pace and get ahead, and then stop and laugh at all those who struggle to catch up. What good is success if you can't flaunt it? Someone once said that life like a cake, is what you make of it. So why do I always start out with Chocolate and end up with Pineapple-upside down cake????

KIMM SULLIVAN: Reminisce yesterday tomorrow. Remember the good times we shared yet. Never recall the sorrows, always live for each sunrise and pray for the rest, never surrender your dreams or settle for less. To the Class of 90 — we are the best!!! As for the rest of the underclassmen: remember the first rule of partying - do it at someone else's house.

IWALANI PEQUEUR

KIM RICKS: Best of luck to the upcoming graduates. Set your priorities straight, and you will accomplish your goals. Jeannie, I wish you luck. Take your time in life, Don't rush it. Antonio Johnson, I love you baby. Thanks for being a part of my life. I love you Mom & Dad for helping me through school.

JEFF WOLDROP: "You don't get something for nothing. You can't have freedom for free. You won't get wise with the sleep still in your eyes, no matter what your dream might be. Geddy Lee, from: Rush ... there's no sensation to care for this, suspended animation, a state of bliss. Can't keep my eyes from the circling sky, tongue, tied & twisted. Just as earth bound misfit I." Pink Floyd

SHELLY WATTS: Thank you Mom & Dad for all your love and support you've given me the past 17 years. And Gary, James, and Whitney, Thanks for being the best of friends a girl could have.

GRETTA WALKER: I would like to thank my husband, Tremont, for encouraging me through this year and help making it a success, for I love you dearly. Now, Teresa you have made this year for me. Thanks for being there when I needed you most. I'm gonna miss you .. Luv ya.

MIKHAEL WEITZEL: "I drank what?" Socrates 399 B.C.

GEORGE WORTHINGTON: It's important to enjoy life; however, don't let enjoyment stop you from making something out of yourself. Be somebody, do some good ... PS. sometimes you just have to say, "What the hell."

PETE THOMPSON: It happens when it happens ... so go with the flow.

JERRY ZINN: Thanks Mom, Dad and Keri for all the support throughout the years. To all the skaters and freestylers out there: Live fast, ride hard and die satisfied! Jamie, thanks for all the help and support through the good and bad. I'll always love you. To everyone ... PEACE!!!

Shelly Watts,

We are so proud of you, our "Gift from God." As you prepare for this exciting step into your future, remember we love you and will always be there for you. Be wise, strong, and caring. Seek friends who truly care for you and will stand by you through thick and thin. Congratulations and love always, Mom and Dad.

Jennifer Anne French

To our Eldest Daughter Jennifer,
 To one who has accomplished so much,
 We Pray for your continued success.
 To one who gives so much energy to all she does,
 We Pray that your energy never dims.
 To one who loves with all her heart,
 We Pray that your love is returned many times over.
 To one who has her whole life ahead of her,
 We Pray that you never forget we love you and are with you always.
 Mom, Dad, Jeff, Cricki, Carrie, Kim, and K.

To Nina and Sonja:

We planted the seeds of hope, now go out,
 blossom and enjoy life but remember:

Life is more than gathering what someday we must leave. Each one of us needs goals in which we can believe. It's not so much the getting, if we don't know how to share. For only love can turn the rain ... to rainbows, everywhere.

Good luck to both of you

love, MOM & DAD

Congratulations Jennifer Allen

Just like flowers bring happiness to the world, you have brought happiness to our lives. We thank God for sending you to live with us and allowing us to witness your transformation from our "little girl" to a very enthusiastic, dedicated, and mature young lady. We wish you success and happiness as you strive to fulfill your dreams. Keep your heart filled with compassion and kindness as you reach for the sky. You are very special to us and we love you very much. May the Lord bless you and keep you and cause his light to shine upon you. Mom, Dad, and Tim

Farewell

As time goes by, the many facets of our lives change, leaving each day behind ... not as a part of the past, but as a part of forever. One thing that cannot change is the good times we've had together at Berlin American High School.

In years to come when we remember friends, trips, Volleyball, StuCo, Wrestling, or Drama, we can relive the moments by opening this book.

This great year of 1989/1990 has led our school to higher standards and enthusiastic spirit; it has led Eastern Europe to Democracy; and it has led the World ... into the nineties.

Thank you Valarie Roach, for spending long hours in room 207 with me; Brian Adams, our "film-man"; Kathleen Hildenbrand for doing many of my typesheets; Damara Stephensen for sweating through the sports section successfully; Krystal Atkins; Doreen Evans; Kim Gonzales; Bethany Knapp; Aaron Roach; David Scharfbillig; and all of the staff members who finished layouts that weren't so exciting.

And Ms. Greer, thank you for learning that we CAN do a good job, we CAN meet deadlines, and that we CAN keep positive attitudes.

To the entire Student Body and Staff; thank you for living this year exactly as you did. YOU created the events; we recorded them.

May God watch over you all, and keep you in his constant care, until we meet again.

Jennifer Allen
