

Boy Scouts, representing American, British and German troops in Berlin, participated in a three-day Camporee on the shore of Lake Wannsee in April. Watching a songfest session (background left to right): Lt. Col. J. T. Shepard, scoutmaster of Berlin Troop No. 46; Brig. Gen. Maurice W. Daniel, commanding general of Berlin Military Post, and Albert Wehr, educational director acting as coordinator for the German Youth Activities in Berlin.

(US Army photo)