

HEAD JANITOR DEFECTS TO WEST

by Diane Patenaude

In a sensational information leak last week, a trusted Communist official and amateur miner, the head janitor of the East Berlin Radio Station which broadcasts "Moscow Molly" was unexpectedly defected to the West taking with her the contents of the East German government which is here translated from the Russian:

"Study of programs broadcast to West Berlin reveals lack of interest appeal to crucial American teen-aged audience. Introduce effective propaganda broadcasts of interest to this group immediately or prepare for salt mines."

Clearly this presented a serious challenge. How could a program appeal to a bunch of frivolous, immature young capitalists and still get across the same old dull line of propaganda? As listeners to last night's premiers of "Frohliche Friedrichstrasse" will testify, the Communists certainly tried. However, an examination of some lyrics from the program shows the same old dull line of propaganda.

THE FLYING WALL STREET CAPITALIST

I saw this thing a-falling out of the sky;
It had a big top hat and a greedy eye.
Filthy rich, a fool could see,
It looked like a Wall Street Capitalist to me!

It was a greedy-eyed, deep dyed, flying Wall Street Capitalist !
Bloated stout, out and out
Parasitic capitalist!
(We push John Birch!)
Folk-exploiting capitalist!
Rich as rich could be!

I looked at the capitalist up in the tree,
I said, "Mr. Wall Street Capitalist, don't eat me!
"Proetariat rabble!" he said,
"I'd suck your blood, but you're too red!

It was a greedy-eyed, deep-dyed, flying Wall Street Capitalist!
Money grapping, profit nabbing,
Worker hating capitalist!
(We like John Birch!)
Non-progressive Capitalist!
Sure looked mean to me!

I said, "Mr. Wall Street Capitalist, what's your line?"
He said, "Mongering wars and it's mighty fine.
But the reason I'm up in your sky
Is I'm working here as a U-2 spy."

Cause I'm a greedy-eyed, deep-dyed flying Wall Street Capitalist."
Over ripe, spying type
Provocating capitalist!
(Yay, yay, John Birch!)
Imperialistic capitalist
Real military.

AN ARTICLE STOLEN FROM NEUES DEUTSCHLAND by P. von Pawel

(The thief is also responsible for the translation!)

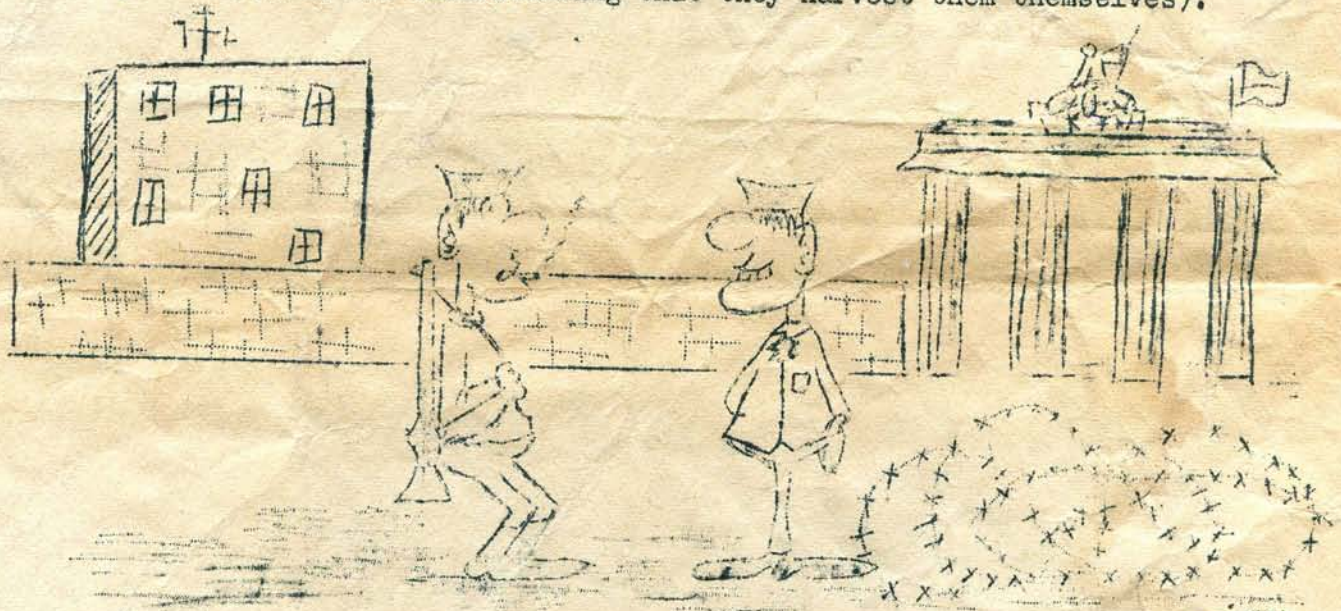

Today, thanks to the heroic persistence of Comrades Schulz and Schmeller, two war-mongering, capitalist spy dogs, sent by West Berlin subversive agents, were stopped at the defensive wall of Democratic Berlin.

The dogs, one a vicious German shepherd, the other an insidious dachshund, refused to heed the warnings of Comrades Schulz and Schmeller; therefore the Comrades were forced to shoot, in self-defense, of course.

Comrade Schulz had this to say about the violent incident: "We saw the dogs sneaking in through the barbed wire and we challenged them. They replied with threatening barks and the dachshund lifted his left leg. We took this as an insult and a challenge; so we opened fire. A fierce battle ensued and thanks to the superiority of our machine pistols, we managed to overwhelm them. Unfortunately, the German shepherd spy crawled back into the West, but the wounded dachshund remained. Comrade Schmeller, out of sheer bravery, approached the snarling dachshund and heroically killed him with a shovel, since his machine pistol was empty. We saw the West Berlin police execute the other spy dog for having failed in his mission of terror and subversion."

"The President of our peace-loving Republic has stated that our friends, the Russians will bring this incident up at the next session of the United Nations and at the Geneva disarmament conference."

As a reward for their bravery, Comrades Schulz and Schmeller will each receive 10 kilos of potatoes (with the understanding that they harvest them themselves).

"WELL WOLFGANG, WHAT WILL WE PRACTICE ON TODAY?"
