BAHS wrestlers travel to K-town

by Kevin Lindroth

Last weekend the Berlin American High School Cubs wrestling team took a complete varsity squad and a few junior varsity men to Bonn to wrestle their final season match against the Bonn Crusaders.

Out of ten meets so far this season, the Cubs have won eight and hoped to chalk up another two wins to make their final season standing a ten win and two loss record.

Friday the Cubs battled it out with the Crusaders to come up only one point ahead making the final score of the evening 34-33. The next day was expected to be much rougher than the first so head coach John Chavies tried to emphasize a greater need for pins if the Cubs were to come out on top once more. However, after a changed diet and a restless over-night stay the Cubs weren't quite up to their greatest potential and took a 38-27 loss.

This weekend our team travels to Kaiserslautern to participate in the Northern Regionals Championships.

Cubs tie with Augsburg

The Berlin Cubs traveled to Augsburg for a tough weekend of basketball. The varsity squad tied for first place with the Augsburg Apaches.

The Varsity squad had a hard time on the basketball court, receiving two major upsets. They lost Friday 44-41 and Saturday 54-47. Alex Cole led with 10 points Friday. Saturday, J. W. Marshall led with 10, followed by Joe Morasco with nine, and Cole, eight. Cole had a perfect weekend at the foul line shooting 12 for 12.

The J.V.'s had a somewhat easier time, winning Friday 36-33 and Saturday 80-34. Mike Magnor and Allan Coe were the top scorers with 14 and 10 respectively.

The girls had another victorious weekend winning both games, 36-24, and 63-32. Kim Jones, playing good ball both nights, scored 11 points the first night and 20 the second.

The Berlin Cubs will be hosting the Karlsruhe Knights this weekend at the Sports Center Gymnasium on Huettenweg.
