"Youth Today" is the theme of this year's yearbook. Youth today has set some Titanic objectives for itself, for the world, for all of us. I only trust that all of you, as wee dots in the teeming texture of youth today, will make a significant contribution to the Grand Effort. Thomas Carlyle observed, some 150 years ago, "Youth is to all the glad season of life; but often only by what it hopes, not by what it attains, or what it escapes." How very much indeed should I like to be around to see how much you attain and/or escape, because I think I know a little bit about your hopes. My hope is that you attain and/or escape the right things. But, it's time to get on with it. Whatever you're in for is about to begin!

Dedication

We, the staff of the Berlin American High School Erinnerungen, 1971, dedicate this yearbook to the "Youth of Today" in their search for tranquility, equality, and peace of mind.

The youth of today strike unique poses in expressing their complaints, ideologies, and goals for a better society. We are opening our minds to reality in our search for love and peace. We hope that our Erinnerungen is a way of communication with 1970's youth.

"We are here, and we mean to stay."

Youth of Today

The youth of today walk through life with their senses alert, taking in the environment. As their minds register all that is about them, they are also busily searching for a means of self-expression.

In today's world with its myriad forms of rapid communication and changing educational methods, youth can and must acquire more knowledge in less time in order to keep up with politics, international events, advancing technology and society in general.

Youth bustles with energy, optimism and ambition. They "do their thing" by seeking to solve the social problems brought on by technological advancements. Youth lives and works with fervor and intensity. Youth devotes much time and effort to searching for individualism in this increasingly impersonal world which seems to concentrate more and more on mass and less and less on the individual.

While reaching for personal identity, youth may participate in sports, listen and dance to their kind of music, meet different people, experiment with new ideas, and seek adventure.

The youth of today want to be accepted by the older generation and by our peers as thinking, worthwhile, and concerned individuals. They do not want merely to be regarded as a group of adolescents with way-out tastes and styles, or as people who are only interested in themselves and their personal pleasures.

May the older generation and youth both keep in mind these words by Johnny Cash:

"Yeah, the ones that you're calling wild
Are goin' to be the leaders in a little while;
This world is wakin' to a new born day,
And I solemnly swear it'll be their way."

Katrin Lindroth

Introduction

"Youth of Today" — the theme of our 1971 Erinnerungen. It's an interesting, yet mysterious idea. The youth of today will be the architects for a future that is at once promising, yet frightening.

The yearbook staff wants to capture some of the exciting moments of this past year in Berlin American High School, and to hold in pictures some of the spirit of our soon-to-be-lost youth. We hope you will enjoy paging through these memories, because they will have a special and unique meaning for each individual member of this school.

In closing, we wish all of you a successful future, and hope that our youth of today can build a wonderful tomorrow.

Good luck and Auf Wiedersehen!

Senior Class of 1971

Leadership, Service, Determination, Achievement, Preparation, and Lasting Fellowship. These ideals represent the goals of the Senior class of 1971. They speak of our history of close fellowship and of our efforts toward making this a worthwhile year for each of us.

The Senior class set the pace for an eventful year, establishing aggressive leadership and introducing a fresh approach to all events. Placing confidence in our officers and our sponsor, we successfully planned our dances, raffles, car-wash operations, bake sales, student-faculty games and the class play.

The Senior class promoted sportsmanship and competition in all sports. Each game was hard-fought and tense with excitement.

Homecoming was the climax of the football season. Under the reign of our queen, we honored our nightly football heroes at the Bal du Château.

In the Powder Puff games, the girls had a chance to show their athletic prowess, while the boys valiantly cheered them to victory.

Though the story of the Senior class can be related in events and accomplishments only, our history is also the culmination of the individualism, ideas, and philosophies of each Senior. Now that we've spent four years in high school, and are about to graduate, we shall remember the best of our times. We may even look back nostalgically, but we are proud to be graduates and even prouder in saying, "Remember the class of 1971!"

Junior Class of 1971

Upperclassmen at last. For the past three years we've looked forward to our junior year and to the senior year to come. Graduation and the planning of our careers are becoming realities, and we are well prepared to meet the challenges and responsibilities of today's youth.

Under the guidance of our class officers and our sponsor Mr. Douglas, we are sure of an exciting and memorable year. The Junior-Senior Prom is our responsibility this year. Although it entails much hard work and planning, our efforts will be rewarded by the extent to which the occasion is enjoyed.

School spirit has risen greatly this year, and for a major part in this we thank the junior class members involved in cheerleading, pep club, the band, and of course, the boys on the teams.

This year will be everything we make it, and we plan to make it one of the happiest of our lives. With a little luck and a lot of enthusiasm, the class of 1972 will make itself remembered at this school and around the world for years to come.

The energetic class of '73 is eager to excel. This year, as Sophomores, we have sponsored dances and bake sales. In fact, it was the Sophomore class who sponsored the year's first school dance.

All Sophomores have shown that they like to get involved in a great many school activities. Five of the varsity football players were Sophomores. The entire JV cheerleading squad is composed of Sophomores, and we are also represented on the varsity cheerleading squad. Other class members are involved with the music program. Scholastically the Sophomores have done well.

All of us are looking forward to an excellent year under the leadership of our class officers and our sponsor, Mr. Huffer.

The class of '73 hopes to go far, and to leave behind high goals for the succeeding classes to meet.

Freshman Class of 1971

1974, here we come! Only three more years.

We Freshmen are looking forward to a successful year. With our officers and our sponsor, Mr. Bluem, we hope to accomplish a lot. We have had bake sales and have sponsored several successful dances.

Most Freshman boys play in AYA sports, but a few of them participate in high school sports. There were four Freshmen on the track team, and the team managers in football were Freshmen. Four of our boys participated in junior varsity basketball.

The class of '74 is full of spirit. We are carefree and always striving for better things. Our whole life lies before us, and we want to make the best of it.

Long live the class of '74!

Career Information Center

The Career Information Center is located in Room 104 and is under the direction of Mrs. B. The Center provides students with information in on over types of jobs and career areas. The Center can be used by any student in the school, and can tell a student the educational requirements, job opportunities, salaries, etc. about a given occupation.

Cooperative Work Experience Program

Our Cooperative Work Experience Program originated in November, 1969 with 12 students, under the direction of the Coordinator, Mrs. Belt. Since then, the program has grown to 35 students working all over the American Community at various jobs. The program is offered to students who wish to learn more about a particular job or occupational area. They must be at least 16 years of age, and must spend at least 10 hours a week at their job. The Cooperative Work Experience Program has two purposes: (1) To acquaint students with job experience, whether or not they are bound for college (2) To assist people in the American Community in an area where students can be of some help to their supervisors.

One of the most memorable nights of each year for members of the music department is the night of the annual Christmas concert. December 14th found us presenting "The Many Moods of Christmas" for the public.

Along with the regular concert band, senior high chorus, and junior high chorus, various smaller ensembles, as well as soloists, performed. The "Nightingales" were eleven of the music department's best.

Senior high vocalists, and the "Thrushes" carried the same torch for the junior high section. The Wind Ensemble of six band members performed two modern numbers. A soprano solo was sung by Maryann Stanislaw, and Diana Green presented an oboe sonata. Paul Greer acted as student director for one band number.

All in all, it was a memorable night, enjoyed by those who participated and those who attended.

Queen's Court

October 22, 1970, marked the beginning of the BAHS annual homecoming festivities. A huge bonfire, pep rally, and the burning in effigy of an Augsburg Apache football player took place on the Sports' Center Field.

On October 23, the Berlin Cubs met the Apaches in an exciting game at Defenders' Field at McNair Barracks. The Cubs were victorious — 38-18.

During half-time festivities the Homecoming Queen was crowned by Lieutenant Colonel Donald F. Hockett, president of the PTA, before the homecoming court and spectators. Music was provided by the band under the direction of Mr. Fenstermacher.

The court consisted of princesses chosen by the various classes. Girls chosen were Freshman Debbie Mercer, Sophomore Bonnie Bates, and Juniors Nancy Liepmann and Jose Mercer. The Senior queen candidates, Diane Stagnitta, Wanda Hatwood, and Roma Freeman, had been selected by the football team.

Homecoming ended with a semi-formal dance, the Bal du Chateau, held in the Student Union. Entertainment was supplied by the band "It Four," and a selection of songs by Maryann Stanislaw. There was also a repeat coronation of the queen. It was a beautiful end to a wonderful day.

On December 18, 1970, for the sixteenth consecutive year, the Berlin American High School sponsored a Christmas party for orphans from the Kinderheim im Grunewald. This year for the first time, however, the Junior High Congress sponsored it.

The party was a success. Students brought presents for the orphan they were to sponsor. The refreshments were also furnished by the students, with a big cake and fruit juice donated by a parent.

The eighty-six students and orphans thoroughly enjoyed the party. The Junior High Chorus and Band provided musical entertainment by presenting several well-known Christmas carols. The presents were distributed by Santa Claus and two elves. Santa Claus was played by Bill Planz.

We Leave You Now

As the 1970-71 school year draws to a close, we again find ourselves a year older, and, hopefully, wiser.

For most of us, this year has been one of trial and success; a year in which we have tried to live together with the idea of peace and brotherhood; a year in which we have struggled to learn a little more of Life itself. We have worked, thought, and grown together.

But the time to go has come, and we depart. Bidding a final farewell to the graduating class of 1971, we hope that they have absorbed enough knowledge to guide them through the world that now exists.

Perhaps someday we will together build a tower in the sky, wherein we can reflect on our yesterdays. But now we must face unto the sun, and dream only of our tomorrows.

John Freeman

We wish to thank the Parent Teachers Association for their help in making the publication of the 1971 Berlin American High School Yearbook possible.

The American Women's Club of Berlin extends to the graduating class of the Berlin American High School best wishes for success and happiness.
