

Soldiers, airmen and sailors stationed in Germany dug way down in their pockets to make Christmas 1951 the gayest ever for thousands of needy children and grownups. Above, left, Santa talks with a little friend at party for tots of US personnel in Berlin. Right, members of Second Armored Division treat small fry at Sonthofen county children's home.

Armed Forces Play Santa to Young and Old