SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

On behalf of the senior class we would like to take this opportunity to thank the parents, administration, faculty, and staff for their cooperation and support throughout the years. Without all your time and effort we would not have been able to accomplish the necessary requirements to enter into the adult world.

A special thanks to those who helped with all the planning to make this day a success. Last but not least, thank you to the guests, families, and friends who have joined us to celebrate this very special occasion.

Pianist Elisabeth Farnsworth

"JOYFUL, JOYFUL, WE ADORE THEE"

Joyful, Joyful, we adore thee, God of glory, Lord of love:
Hearts unfold like flowers before thee, opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness, drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day.

Mortal, join the happy chorus which the morning stars began
Father love is reigning o'er us, brother love binds man to man.
Ever singing, march we onward, victors in the midst of strife,
Joyful music lead us Sunward in the triumph song of life. AMEN

"O GOD, OUR HELP IN AGES PAST"

O God, Our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

Under the shadows of thy throne thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine aid alone, and our defense is sure.

Before the hills in order stood, or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God to endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guide while life shall last, and our eternal home. AMEN

BREAKING OUT IN 92 . . .

JEANNIE AGUIGUI—I'd like to thank Mom, Dad, and Ivan for all the loving and caring support they gave me. Mom, no matter what I say to you, wrong or right, you will always be my #1 priority. I also want to thank my sweetheart Sascha for putting up with me. I love you babe! I wish all my girls, Trefena, Zamilia, Conaly, Shawna, Latoy, Kim, and Monica all the luck in the world. Coraly, no matter what happens - I love you. I'd like to thank Coach Suzanne, Elli, and Bawn for teaching me new things. Turquoise, I will never forget you. Most of all, thank you Lord for your guidance.

DEA ALVAREZ—First of all I would like to thank all my teachers for helping to be who I am. Thank you to the staff in the attendance office when I needed it most. A big thanks to all friends for believing in me when I didn't believe in myself. And mostly I thank my parents and family for always being there. Last, I thank God for without him, there would be no me.

SANDRA ATKINS—I would like to thank my mom and dad for all their support, love, and encouragement. I thank my sister Krystal for the motivation and advice. Ackimberly, my baby sister, thanks for keeping my secrets and listening to me when no one else did. My Grandmom, who prayed for me through the rough times in high school, I thank you and love you dearly. Last, but not least, my true friends who listened to me when I was in one of those moods, I love you all and thanks.

LARA AUBIN—Can you believe it? After 12 years of schooling I am now going to venture off on my own. High school has had its share of ups and downs, but I've survived it all! I could not have done it without help from many special people. Thanks to all my teachers for putting up with me. Mom, Dad, and Brian, you stuck by me through the thick and the thicker and gave me that push when it was needed. Your guidance and support will forever be remembered. Alexis (Mr. Beatz), Carl (pink elephants), Nicole (Polack), Jena (Africa), Kim (stop smoking signs), and Laara L. (Ribs is alive), your friendships mean the world to me. Thanks for all the memories. I love you all! To my class, I wish each one of you the best!

NAZRI J. BAHARI—I walk through the hull of the mighty senior class. The feeling of godlike beings rule over the other classes. But as we step off into the void of life, we become the mere freshmen that have long passed in our memory. It feels as if it's all ending . . . or has it just begun? I love you Mom!

PHILIP BARNHART—I would like to thank my parents for supporting me through my school years and also my brother and sister for keeping me company when I needed them. Without my family, I wouldn't be here for this ceremony. I would also like to thank all my relatives in Guam and also in the U.S. One last thing I would like to say is to thank all my friends that I knew during my high school years for their friendships.

MELISSA BEASLEY—Thank you Lord for giving me life and showing me the right path to follow. I would like to thank my parents for always being there for me and supporting me in everything. Without you, I would never have made it! To my brother, thanks for all your love and arguments. You brought plenty of sunshine into my life. I would like to thank my grandparents for all their love and support. To all my friends, thanks for all the good times that will make my school years great to remember. I'll never forget you! Mom, thanks for being such a great friend and for always putting up with me! I love you all!

VAUGHN CAMERON BECK—To the Senior Class: Stay in touch with your soul. It's been a great life, but now that we're about to start a new one, it's time to make a difference. Strive for perfection. Let's Party. Thanks to all my family and friends who made life bearable. Every one of you has a special place in my heart.

STEVEN BIRKNER—I'd like to say thanks to the following people: my mother and father (Temo), Tiffany and her family, T-beatz (Thomas Reese), Joy, Art, George, Antwan, Lawrence, Big Mike, Phil and all the hoaxes and hoaxes in the school and world. Peace and remember, life goes on. But life is too short...killin' with a 40 ac.

NICK BUCK—I'd like to thank my family for their support through these last 4 years. I'm out of here!

JENNIFER CAMPBELL—Hey! It's been a great year thanks to all my senior friends. And to my cool friend Alessandro—we've had a lot of fun this year. I want to say thank you to my parents, my sister and most of all my brother Ed. You all have kept me going. I also want to thank an old friend, Kevin Jackson. May you all live as long as you want and never want as long as you live.

TAFT CLAYTON--I thank my parents for tolerating me during my Also the Younger year. I am very grateful you rode through the storm with me all the way to the end. I thank all teachers which have taught me more than the subject they taught in class, they taught me about myself. I now look forward to the future and know what direction I am pointed towards, but one more thing, once you know who you are, then you can find out where you are going.

MICHEAL CORNIER--Thanks to my parents who have made it possible for me to reach this point in my life. I love you guys and my brother and sister too. I guess. I would also like to thank my friends and I wish them the best of luck through the coming years.

RICO CUNNINGHAM--I would like to say thank you to my mother and father for putting up with some of my selfish ways. I would also like to give my love to Stephanie (even though you are gone), Steve, Keith, Thiron, Tom, John, Orlando, familia, and Amber. Remember to keep on movin' and please be with you. Love, the one and only, "DJ Spade One."

TOM DORSEY--I would like to thank my family for helping and forcing me through all 12 years of school. School has taught me more than education, it helped me develop socially and to conquer myself. It was a time for friends and memories which will not be forgotten. I'm grateful and glad.

MARK EISENMAN--Life granted me all that I wished for. A loving family and good friends. As my senior year ends, thanks to them. Thanks to my mom and dad for putting up with me for 18 years and to all the friends I made along the way.

LAWRENCE ERVIN--I would like to thank my parents for their support and guidance. Sorry for the hard times that I've given you, I love you. Although Ryan and I didn't always get along I love him anyway! Thanks to all my coaches and friends for standing by me. Thank you to the Heavenly Father for all the good fortune and failure that has helped me learn and grow. He helped guide and lead us to success and protected us always. To my friends, may God bless you and keep you safe forever. Love ya!

DOUGLAS FARNSWORTH--I ponder life and wonder, "If I am what I do, when I don't, am I not?" I would like to express my thanks for the help and support from my mom, dad, brothers, and sisters. I see all my teachers and past coaches lots of thanks for the great memories. Kids. Don't explain. Peace.

THIRON FREEMAN--First of all, I would like to thank my mom and dad. Special thanks to all my friends still here and also to those who are not.

DAVID GAGNON--I would really like to thank my parents for all their love and support over the years. I would like to thank my little sister for being around all of the time. I would like to thank Mrs. Barlow for all her love and support, she has given me in the last four years. Also, thanks to all my friends for their support and great memories. Last, but not least, thanks to the Lord for helping me with everything in life.

TERRI GARCIA--I'd like to thank my parents and the rest of my family for their tremendous love and support throughout my entire school years. I'd also like to thank all my friends, especially David, for making my senior year enjoyable. Most of all, I thank God.

JAMES GERHART--Believe in yourself and what you can do, don't sell yourself short by giving up, and don't be afraid to be different. I'd like to thank my parents and family for their support and advice, and my best friend Albert who stuck with me and never let me down.

MARY K. HAMMERLE--First and above all, I would like to thank God for watching over me all these years. A special thank you to my parents for bringing me into this world and for putting up with me these last 17 years. You thought it would be over after high school-not quite! Love ya always and I'll always be around! To Carla and Shawn, thanks for always being there for me and my problems. Remember all the fun times and I'll keep you in my heart always. Finally, to everyone else in Berlin-Peace ya'll-I'm outta here!

YVETTE HARRIS--First of all, I would like to thank God, for without him, none of this could be possible. I would also like to thank my parents Joseph and Jane Harris and say, "I love you." I thank my friends: Carla Small and Shawn Pride because without them, my senior year would have been unbearable. To all of those whom I may have forgotten, I want you to know you're with me in my heart. Finally, I would like to thank my best friend Stephanie Harris. I'll never forget you. Goodbye BAHs; Hello Grumbling S! Stay cool in 92.

XERXES HAWKINS--I want to thank my mother and my father, teachers, and coaches for believing in me.

MICHELE HEUER--This has been a year filled with events in my life that I will never forget. Thanks to my parents, teachers, coaches and friends for helping me through the year. I'll miss the good times. Good luck to the class of 92. I wish you all the best in the future.

MONICA HEUER--Mom and dad, you blessed me with the gift of life and helped me enjoy it. You taught me respect and that I can do anything I set my mind to. You believed, trusted, and encouraged me, and words can't say how much you mean to me. Michele, we had our good and bad times, but I love you! A special thanks to all my friends, especially Cafun, Murgie, Chelley, Jenn, Mary, Stacy, Jeannie, Dax, and Dawn who were there for me and have brought me great joy. You cheered me up and helped me survive. Thanks for the fun times. I'll carry them in my heart forever. I love you all!

JON JARMAN--I'd like to give a special thanks to: my mother, my father, and my teachers. Without their help I wouldn't have done as well as I did. Finally, a special thank you to all my friends.

ERIC JOHN--I would like to thank my parents for helping me through the 18 long years of my life and my sister for being there for me.

LAURA JONES--I'd like to thank my parents for their guidance and help. I'd especially like to thank my dad for the dedication, devotion, guidance, and that extra boost to make me work harder and realize how important graduating is. I'd like to thank my friends for taking me under their wings and the good times. Next, I'd like to thank Com Beck and family for everything and also giving me a chance. Good luck to all!

ARSLAN KHAN--Yeah! I made it. I finally made it. I really made it. Whoa! I'm overwhelmed! Four years of high school are over. Let's just say Berlin has been "quite an experience." There have been ups and downs. I want to thank my parents and my friends. If they hadn't put up with my attitude and mood swings, I don't know where I'd be today. "Peasut butter and whipped cream. Mon bite and, and CARDAF", thanks for the memories.

JAIME MARTINEZ--I would like to thank my parents for all the support and love they have given me throughout my school years. I would also like to thank my family in Puerto Rico who were there when we needed it. I couldn't forget my two brothers and my sister who were there to bring me up when I was down. A thanks to all my friends, teachers, and the Heavenly Father. May the future bring peace and love to you all.

LAURA LINDNER--I'd like to thank my mom and dad for their love, guidance, and encouragement. I'll miss you both next year. You're the best-I love you both. My love goes out to Byron who I see for the happiest, most enriching experiences of high school. And to my brother Todd, who is no longer a stranger to me-you're a pretty swell guy and I wish you luck next year. To all my good friends and to all the seniors: may God's hand be on your shoulders to guide you throughout life.

JENNIFER MAYER--I did it! All the days I counted down and I made it! But it was because of you Mom and Dad, your love showed me the way! Jim, Jeff, what do you think of your little sister now? I love you. And to my two closest friends in the world, Monica and Stephanie, thank you for believing in me! Lulu and Kim J., thanks for sticking with me! And as for you Christopher, I wish you were here to share in the joy! I love you with my whole heart Chris-bear! July 19, 1996 isn't that far away! Mangu zu meena! Adios Berlin!

MELINDA MCGINNIS--I would like to thank my parents for all the support they have given me throughout my 12 years of school. I would also like to thank all of my teachers, who as well as my parents stood by me while I had rough times with school. We had lots of fun, you know who you are. Take care and God Bless! Peace.

NICOLE MCGINNIS--I would like to thank my parents for their support throughout the years. I would also like to thank my friends for their support, you know who you are. Finally, I thank my sister Melinda, though we had our ups and downs, we always seemed to make up. God Bless.

MARY MCQUEEN--Mom and Dad, you are the best. I never could have made it without! Thanks for giving me so much love. Matt, thank you for being such a great friend and always being there for me. Travis, you are the greatest joy of my life and I'm so glad I found you. I love you all. Class of 92, we made it! Good luck always.

EDWARD MELO--My special thanks go to God for giving me the power to stay healthy and lead a wonderful life. To my parents, thanks for turning my life around and giving me all the love I ever needed. To my grandmother, who made me what I am today. To my sister and brother, thanks for all your love and understanding. I love you too! My love and thanks to the Guerra family for their kindness and special friendship. Finally, thanks to my teachers, classmates, and coaches. You were and will remain an important part of my life. God Bless You!

STACY NEUMANN—Your unending love and support made me who I am. Mom and Dad, Kevin, you'll never know how proud I am of you. I love you all so much. God, thank you for giving me strength, such a wonderful family, and a full, happy life. To my friends, you are more dear to me than I could ever express. To the class of '92—there'll never be another like us. High school was 4 years—my memories of you are forever. Thanks.

KIM NIX—Mom, Dad, Wendy, Duane, and Kristi, thanks for all the support you've given me throughout my high school years. You've molded me into the person I am. Manuel, thanks for everything! You were always there when I needed a shoulder to cry on. I love you! Stacy, Jeannie, Coraly, Monica, Lacey, Dena, and many more, thank you for a great senior year. To the Senior Class of '92, remember to follow your dreams and heart! They will lead you in the right direction! God bless and I LOVE YOU ALL!

LORI OLIVAREZ—Thanks to everyone who supported me through this final year. Mr. Schmitt—thank you for not giving up on me. To my parents, thank you for all the help you gave me. I love you both. To the class of 1992—good luck in the future.

SHAWN PRIDE—First of all, I would like to thank God Almighty. It was His work that I did what I did. I am His tool and He put me here to serve a purpose. My parents for giving me life, their love, their support, and encouraging me to succeed. To my brother for being that driving force to finish school and be the first out of the house. I can not forget Carlo Small my best, and life long friend! Thanks for being there when I needed someone to talk to. I love you Carlo. And last like always (till) Mary Hammerle. Babe, you're one in a million. Good luck in the future. Last, but not least, thanks to the class of '92, always remember to set high goals and strive to achieve them. "IT'S SO HARD TO SAY GOOD BYE TO YESTERDAY"

CORALY RAMOS—I want to thank the Lord above for watching over me the past 18 years. Thanks to my parents Jorge and Julia Ramos for putting up with all my crap and for standing by me through my high school years. I love you very much. Also, thanks to Lynn, Nicole, Jeannie, Kim, and Stacy for always pushing me to do better and always being there for me. I love you all dearly. Keep in touch. To the class of '92, party on.

MICHELLE STEPHENSEN—Thanks Mom and Dad for being the absolute best, and giving me the direction I needed in order to finally make it to this day. My MANY brothers and sisters, thank you for always spicing up my life to never make a dull moment. Damara, you are my inspiration. Jean Pierre, even though you weren't here, you are definitely the icing on the cake. I LOVE YOU. To the class of '92, catch your dreams and go with them, but always remember who you ARE!!

ERIN STIELER—I'd like to thank the Lord for His help, my family for their support, and all my friends for their compassion throughout the years. I thank my teachers. It's been one heck of a journey, but I'm here and I see a new path before me. Look out world, here I come!

ERIKA TAYLOR—Thank you to my mother for loving me, supporting me, and sacrificing many things. I love you. Thanks to my dad for working hard to keep a roof over my head and food in my mouth. I thank Tazoo and Eric for listening to me and standing by me during my times of depression. I also couldn't have made it without my teachers. Most of all, I thank God for being the one who truly understands me and knows where I'm headed, he loves me with a love stronger than any on this earth.

NANCY TURMAN—A grand thank you to my family and friends for all the traditional reasons. Special thanks to my friend Leticia Rodriguez for keeping me sane. To all my teachers, thanks for opening up the world to me and thanks to everyone else for making life interesting.

GWEN WHITE—I didn't think this day would ever come. Now it's here, and I wonder how it all went so fast. To all my friends throughout the years, thank you, you'll always be in my memories. A very special thanks to my parents and family. Guess I'm all grown up Mom! Jessie, what would I have done without you to protect me these past couple years of high school? You're the best (little) brother I could have asked for. I love you all. To the class of '92, the future is ours!

JACQUELINE WILSON—Thank you Mom and Dad for your support and love these last 4 years, and for making this the happiest day of my life.

KALI ROBINSON—I would like to first thank God for all the guidance and support. To Dad, thanks for all the love and guidance, no other father could give his son. To my mother, the strongest black woman I have ever seen! Thank you for your love and more love, which only a mom could give. The rest of the family, keep up the support. To my boys, the future belongs to us, homies! To the rest of those I did not mention, thank you. The FDR dream lives on through me, rise the supreme. Oh, and Coach Baxton and Chris, thanks for the wisdom. Peace.

SAMANTHA SEARLE—I would like to thank my parents for caring and supporting me throughout the year. I would also like to thank my sister for being there when I needed her. I love you.

CARLA YOMICA SMALL—First of all, I'd like to thank God for guiding me through twelve long years of school. I thank my parents for all of the support and encouragement they give me. I would have never made it without you. Thanks Leticia, for teaching me how to be a stronger person than I am. All of those fights really helped! I thank my sister and brother, Raynel and Rayfield, for always doing their best, which encouraged me to do my best. And to thank my best friend, Shawn Pride, you were always there for me when I needed you most. You definitely give life a new meaning! Mary Hammerle, you made the year exciting. You're one of a kind, thank God! I want to thank the senior class of '92. Remember, the secret to life is to know who you are and where you are going.

SEKEYNA SMITH—I'd like to thank my parents for helping and putting me through school—I couldn't have made it on my own. A special thanks to my best friend. I cherish your love and friendship. If it weren't for her telling me to never stop dreaming, I would have been all alone.

MITCH SMOOT—To my mother, who I love and adore, after all these years, I would finally like to say thank you. To my step-father, though I was not your own, you loved me and helped me be the best I could in life. Finally, to God, I could not receive this diploma if it weren't for you.

DAVID SPEARE—Well, I have finally made it! The long road has come to an end. I did not make it on my own. If it were not for my mom's constant nagging, I would have quit long ago! If it were not for my dad's understanding and patience, I would have gotten seriously stressed about school. I have to thank my brothers and friends for putting up with my attitude. Thanks to Terri Garcia for just being you! I am going to miss you, but it's not over yet!
